

The Evening Standard

Published Daily, except Sundays, by William Glasmann.

ADVERTISING RATES

Advertisement shall run.....	PRICE PER INCH EACH DAY.
	Ad. to Every Day	Ad. to 3 Days	Ad. to 7 Days	Ad. to 14 Days	Ad. to 1 Month	Ad. to 3 Months
Change each issue.....	20c	15c	10c	8c	6c	5c
Ad. to run twice without change.....	15c	10c	7c	5c	4c	3c
Ad. to run three times without change.....	10c	7c	5c	4c	3c	2c
Ad. to run six times without change.....	7c	5c	4c	3c	2c	1c

Classified want ads one cent per word each day; no first insertion less than 25 cents, or 10c per line per month. Random References, 20c per line first insertion; 20 cents each subsequent insertion; 5c per line per week, or $3.00 per line per month with change once each week. Local Readers, 15c per line first insertion; 10c per line each subsequent insertion, or 5c per line per week. CHURCHES, SECRET SOCIETIES, and Charitable Institutions, 5-10 cents per line either Random References or Locals. No heads allowed in Randoms.

SAVING THE SHEEP.

Nearly 70,000 sheep were caught in the storms of the past ten days while en route from the northern ranges to the desert region west of the Great Salt Lake and now the owners of the herds are endeavoring to save the animals from destruction. Fortunately the sheep are within reaching distance from the railroad and can be fed with provender shipped from Ogden.

The winter of 1889-90 found thousands of sheep and cattle on the ranges without hay and grain available and the animals perished. That was a severe lesson, which impressed livestock owners with the importance of guarding and providing against an emergency just such as has occurred this winter.

The mistake made twenty years ago, which cost millions of dollars and bankrupted thousands of cattlemen and shepherds, was delay in moving to get hay and grain to the perishing animals. Evidently this mistake is not to be repeated as there are already carloads of corn and barley going out of Ogden daily to storm-bound animals on the desert.

HOW COAL FAMINE COULD BE AVERTED.

The recurring coal famines or shortages of coal some day will bring about the organization of a company with sufficient capital to build a pipe line from the Wyoming or Utah coal fields to this part of Utah, and through that conductor there will be distributed a gas supply for heating purposes equal to the demands of Ogden and other cities of northern Utah.

Government experiments made in St. Louis prove that it is economy to convert coal into gas and burn the gas, and now there are eastern plants where the fuel supply is being furnished in that way.

Coalville, to the east of Ogden, might be made to serve this community through gas mains. Once established, a gas system would go to way forever with the possibility of a fuel famine.

GAMBLING IN A CLOSED TOWN.

Salt Lake, you know, is a closed town. There is no gambling—that is to say, there is no open gambling. Strangers in that city are invited into a back room to join in a quiet little game and invariably the honored guests emerge penniless.

Here is the story, the sequel of one of these back-room affairs, taken from this morning's Tribune:

Dependent over gambling losses and suffering from the effects of a three-day spree, W. C. Hunt, a rancher from Winnemucca, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a pocket knife on the corner of First South street and State street this Monday morning at 2:25 o'clock. The body of the man, gasping for breath, was discovered by a newspaperman, who immediately informed the police. The pocket knife, of the old Barlow type, was found by the man's side.

According to George Duncan, of the Lincoln house, Hunt came to the city three days ago from Winnemucca, Nev., and out in the time in this city in drinking and gambling. E. H. Madden, a porter employed at the Lincoln house, where Hunt had been rooming, said that the man had been sitting around the lower floor of the hotel a short time before his body was found, and that he had been crying. When he was asked why he did not go to bed, he said that he had no money to pay for his lodging. Duncan said that the man had been on the verge of the delirium tremens for the last three days.

That is a sad commentary on Salt Lake's claim to purification. No doubt there is more gambling in that city today than there was before the gambling halls were closed, and, worse still, the gambling now going on is not a game of chance at fair odds, but a form of robbery in which the victim enters a room by stealth to find himself at the mercy of holdup men.

CHILDREN IN DISTRESS.

Saturday night a five-year-old child had his hands and feet frozen in one of the frail buildings on the Canyon Road where new settlers are struggling to establish homes on small farms. The youngster was the victim of frost while he was in bed.

Those who enjoy homes that are steam heated and beds that are warm should be asking themselves if there is something they might do to make the lives of their less fortunate neighbors more bearable. These stories of distress are seldom heard beyond the homes where there is suffering, unless some extraordinary happening of the kind bring a call for a doctor or other outside help.

The poor—the modest, humble poor—should be searched out and assisted by those who have and can afford to give.

What say you?
Is this not the season of sympathy and charity?

NEW WORLDS ON THIS OLD EARTH

If railroad building continues to penetrate the frozen north, the time will come when excursions will be run to where the Greeley party perished and even to a point beyond where Dr. Cook thought he saw the North Pole. Here is the Canadian government encouraging the construction of a railroad north to the shores of Hudson Bay. The surveys have been made and the preliminary construction work begun.

There was a time when our school geographies left a blank spot on the maps of North America, covering that region known as Hudson Bay. Soon there will be villages, towns and cities in that frigid zone, great steamers will be plying between Fort Churchill or Port Nelson, carrying out cargoes of grain and other produce. And then the wonder will be that people ever thought of the Hudson Bay country as uninhabitable.

Will this world of progress never cease to afford surprises in unlooked for developments?

MRS. SARAH KENNEDY DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Word has been received in Ogden of the death of Mrs. Sarah Kennedy, wife of Charles Kennedy, at her home in San Luis Obispo, Cal., last Wednesday. Death was due to blood poisoning. Charles Kennedy is well known in Ogden, where he was employed in the S. P. shops and was a member of the local camp of Woodmen. The funeral services for Mrs. Ken-

BOYLE FURNITURE COMPANY

2329 2331 2333 WASHINGTON AVENUE.

You will find the line of Home Furnishings shown by the Boyle Company of unusual size and quality this season. Prices you will find very reasonable, in fact we guarantee them to be as low, quality considered, as any place in America. We meet all competition, and if at any time you find our prices not right, we will see they are made so. Liberal terms of credit.

EXCLUSIVE AGENCY

Globe-Wernicke "ELASTIC" BOOK CASE

A DOZEN CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

FROM THE HOUSE OF QUALITY

EXCLUSIVE AGENCY

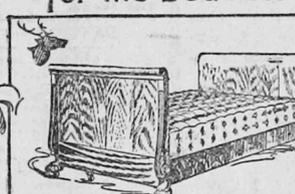

For the Library

Globe-Wernicke "Elastic" Book Cases sold at factory prices. Furnished in Quartered Oak Mahogany—eight different finishes—dull polish. See our special holiday display.

For the Boudoir

Be sure and inspect our beautiful line of Beds. Wood Beds in Colonial styles are very stylish at the present time.

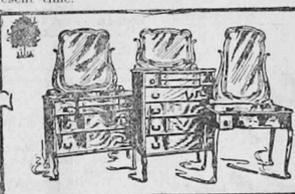

For the Dining Room

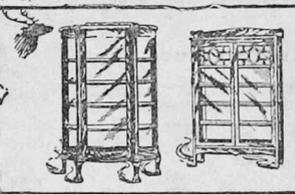

See our handsome display of Dining Room Tables. All the latest styles and woods. Priced from $1 to $125. Special discount Xmas week 25 to 33 1/2 per cent off.

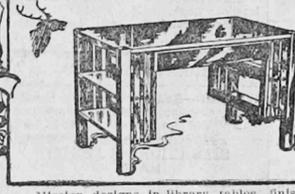

Over thirty styles of Morris Chairs to select from, ranging in price from $9.99 to $50.00.

The showing of Dressing rooms, Vanities, and Dressers is large and varied. Mahogany, Bird's Eye, Maple, Oak, Walnut and Birch.

Special sale on China Cabinets—cases of 50 designs and finishes at a reduction of 25 per cent.

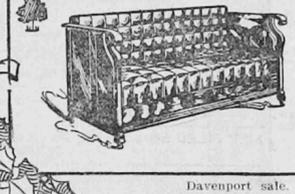

Mission designs in library tables, finished in Golden, Early English & Fumed Oak. Prices greatly reduced Xmas week.

Cheval Mirrors and Hall Mirrors go on sale during Xmas week at a reduction of one-third off.

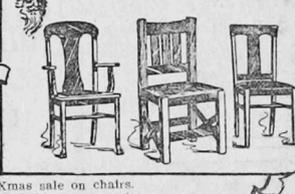

Buffets and Serving Tables in Golden Oak, Early English, and Fumed finishes. Prices from $15 to $150.00.

Davenport sale. All Davenports and Couches one-quarter off during Xmas week.

Odd prices a plenty. Novelties that will add tone and refinement to any home. See our south window and art department on third floor.

Xmas sale on chairs. Priced from one-quarter to one-eighth lower than usual.

nedly will be held at San Luis Obispo this afternoon. Mrs. Kennedy is a daughter of Samuel Dye of Utah, and a sister of Mrs. Frank Devoto and Mrs. M. Gray of Ogden. Mrs. Kennedy's husband is employed as a foreman of the Southern Pacific round house in the California city.

GEORGE FISHER CHARGED WITH FORGING CHECKS

George Fisher made a wild rush through the business district of the city Saturday night in reckless style. He was loaded with bogus checks and he handled them promiscuously until he ran amuck at the Bismarck saloon. Officer Layne captured the frenzied financier, but not until he had succeeded in cashing five checks, aggregating in value $115.11.

Fisher was taken to the police station, where a charge of forgery was booked against him. The checks bore the forged signature of W. S. Donaldson and were for the following amounts: $40.50, $15, $29, $15.50 and $15.51. Becoming suspicious of the check which Fisher attempted to pass at the Bismarck, the proprietor of the place notified the police and had Fisher arrested.

The bank checks had been stolen from W. S. Donaldson's office, and bore the printed name of his firm.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.
FOR SALE—2 heating stoves. Inquire for Mr. Poulter, basement Standard office.

DEATH OF MRS. ALICE DEAN

The large circle of relatives and friends of Mrs. Alice Dean will be pained to learn of her death, which occurred at the family residence, 734 East Seventh street, Saturday evening at 10:20 o'clock, after an illness of fifteen months of nervous prostration, terminating in pneumonia. A week ago she was stricken with pneumonia and death followed quickly.

Mrs. Dean was born in Australia June 21, 1850. She came to Utah with her parents in the year 1867 and was married to Joseph E. Dean in Salt Lake in 1869. She is survived by five daughters and four sons, a brother in Arizona and a sister in Australia, also seven grandchildren. The names of the children are I. C. Dean, Lawrence Dean, Elmer Dean and James J. Dean, sons; Mrs. David McGilford, Esther Dean, Rhea Dean, Lettie Dean and Adelaide Dean, daughters. One of the daughters, Miss Esther, is a stenographer at the Standard.

Mrs. Dean was a true wife, a loving and painstaking mother and a woman who lived in the confidence and esteem of all who knew her.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Lynde Ward meeting house, Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

MOTION CALENDAR IN THE DISTRICT COURT

The following cases on the motion calendar have been passed on in the district court Saturday:
Gertrude Staker vs. Harold W. Staker. Motion for modified decree. Continued.
Mary Ellen Richie vs. Thomas Richie. Motion for temporary alimony. Continued.
George Frye vs. Sam Browning, et al.; writ of certiorari. Continued.
Utah & Oregon Lumber Co. vs. Fleeman Construction Co.; demurrer. Submitted, overruled and twenty days' notice waived.

Geo. W. Umbenshur vs. Lula D. Umbenshur; motion to set aside decree and dismiss action. Continued.
Lula M. Foley, et al vs. Internountain Packing Co.; demurrer to answer; motion to strike. Continued.
Frank A. Hockle vs. Union Pacific R. R. Co.; motion for removal. Continued.

Funeral of Hannah Lucile Billings—Elder George Shorten conducted the funeral services over the remains of Hannah Lucile Bills at the family residence on Van Buren avenue yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. He and C. J. A. Lindquist were the speakers. Interment was made at the City cemetery.

READ THE CLASSIFIED PAGE.

GOOD SKATING AT SHUPE'S POND THESE BEAUTIFUL MOONLIGHT NIGHTS