

MAYOR SENDS IN HIS NOMINATIONS

Only Three Fail of Confirmation by the City Council—Thomas Browning Remains as Chief of Police and William M. Bostaph, a Grand Army Veteran, is Made City Engineer—Thomas Lundy, Also a War Veteran, Wins a Place in the Mayor's Family.

We're doing some great things in Fall Clothes selling. It's special sale time now, you know!

The time of the year, when we always "clean house" for Spring.

We've cut prices more than ever this season.

The man that stays away is going to lose some money.

You can bank on it!

When we sell all our hand-made new suits and Overcoats made for this season's trade—that are worth $25, $30 and $35, for $18, can you stay away?

Everything in our store is marked down in the same proportion.

Just come to see what's doing here now.

Don't bring much money—you'll not need it!

FRED M. NYE CO.
2413 Wash. Ave.

January Sale Prices In all Departments

- A few choice numbers in Ladies' Tailored Suits at .50 per cent off
- Fine Panama Dress Skirts, $5.00 values at $3.75
- Tailored Waists of fine linen and Madras Cloth, $2.50 values at $1.95
- Manish Shirts in fine stripes and checks, $1.50 values at 95c
- Flannellette Gowns, special values at 90c, $1.10, $1.25, $1.35 and $1.50
- Children's Heavy Winter Stockings per pair 23c

The M. M. Wykes Co.
2335 WASHINGTON AVE.

RANDOM REFERENCES

The delectest of pastry "that is pastry," at Charles Cafeteria.

Called to Iowa—Mrs. John McEthern left Monday evening for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in response to a telegram saying her mother was ill, and could not recover.

Charles' New Cafeteria, a modern plant with the most modern appliances, thoroughly sanitary, meeting the most exacting requirements of the pure food law—the highest attainment in the art of cooking and serving food. Lunch 10:30 to 2:30. Dinner 5:00 to 8:00.

Born—To the wife of W. J. Wilson, 543 Sixteenth street, a nine-pound boy. Mother and child are doing well.

The evening paper is the paper of today. The morning paper is the paper of yesterday.

The delectest of pastry "that is pastry," at Charles Cafeteria.

Given Farewell Orders—Capt. and Mrs. Pettit, of the Salvation Army, have received orders from headquarters to go to Bisbee, Arizona, and a farewell meeting will be given in their honor Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock, at No. 255 Twenty-fifth street.

Government Inspected meat and pure food only at Charles Cafeteria.

Mrs. Martha Usher Dead—Mrs. Martha Usher of West Weber, passed away at her home at 4 o'clock this morning.

For Sale—Old newspapers, cheap. Call at Standard office.

Marriage License—Hjalmer Emanuel Berg, of Sparks, Nevada, and Miss Virginia Lee Brandt, of Reno, Nev., were issued a marriage license by the county clerk today.

The best of food prepared by a first class chef. Charles Cafeteria.

May Have Appendicitis—A. Koons, deputy city treasurer, is confined to his room by a threatened attack of appendicitis.

Handsome, comfortable—Tasty food—a great place to eat. Charles Cafeteria.

Running on Slow Time—Slow orders on the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and Oregon Short Line roads have had the effect of delaying all passenger trains arriving at the Union depot today.

Mrs. Martha Usher Dead—Mrs. Martha Usher of West Weber, passed away at her home at 4 o'clock this morning.

Coal, call up Parker & Co., for rates on lump, nut and slack.

Dr. Forbes has resumed practice, 400 Eccles Building, usual office hours.

Departs for Stanford—Miss Sagle Rasmussen, daughter of O. D. Rasmussen, left on the Overland Limited last evening to resume her studies at Stanford.

COAL! Call up Parker & Co. for rates on lump, nut and slack. Parker Coal Co.

Many Engines Under Repair—The back or south, shop of the local Southern Pacific shops is at present crowded with engines undergoing repairs from hard service during the winter months.

PEACOCK—The best Rock Springs on the market. Phone 27, John Farr.

PEACOCK—The best Rock Springs on the market. Phone 27, John Farr.

Crowds Invade Wrights' Stores For the Important Sales of the Year

The Yearly White Sale

Fully five hundred women visited our second floor yesterday and bought largely of the great showing of undermuslins.

Heaped on tables which partially cover the second floor are billows of white muslins and cambrics—fine laces and embroideries which are offered cheaply.

No sale held in Ogden heretofore has offered the variety here shown. Particularly is this true of the finer garments: Such a display of skill in the making has not been shown—and the choosing today is just as good as at the start.

January Reductions in Every Section

All former sales have been eclipsed in this January House Cleaning.

We've gleaned from every department of the stores those items which we wish to have removed and prices which are moving those stocks have been affixed.

The sale is a very broad one—including both stores and every item in each—it would, therefore, be folly to make purchases in our lines before investigating the possibilities of saving at this January Sale.

Every dollar also gives one ticket on the Auto.

Someone Will enjoy the Auto in June—Who?

which was fixed at $150. The petition was referred to the claims committee.

J. H. Kurtz, proprietor of the Ogden Canyon Sanitarium company, sent a communication to the council calling attention to the fact that he is due for a refund on a retail liquor license issued last fall, and asking the council for some assurance that the license could again be obtained in the spring.

A petition from the Wasatch Canning company and other property owners in West Ogden asked the council to take steps towards connecting this part of the city with the water system. The petitioners say that they have no fire protection, and that an extension of the water mains in that section is an imperative necessity.

An ordinance amending an ordinance creating the office of clerk of the municipal court, defining his duties and fixing his salary at $1,200 a year, passed its second reading by title and was referred to the law committee and city attorney.

Councilman Humphris moved that the public building and grounds committee be instructed to look after the distribution of the free telephones furnished to officials of the city. The motion was amended by Councilman Peery, who declared that the distribution of the telephones two years ago had caused some dissatisfaction, and suggested that the matter be taken up at the next meeting of the council as a whole. His amendment was adopted.

A vacancy having occurred on the board of trustees of the Carnegie Free Library, Rev. John Edward Carver was named by the mayor to fill the place on the board and the appointment was adopted unanimously.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the city, the accounts of the city audited by disinterested parties, and the mayor, in a communication, submitted bids from H. H. Harris of Denver and the Utah Auditing company of Salt Lake to do the work and make such suggestions as may be found feasible for an improvement over the present system of bookkeeping.

The bid of H. H. Harris was $10 a day for the work of two expert accountants with an approximate time of four to six weeks to do the work. The Salt Lake concern made a bid of $225. The communication with the bids was referred to the engrossing committee.

Current expenses for all departments of the city, amounting to $1,359.20, were allowed on recommendation of the city auditor. The biennial report of the city recorder for 1908 and 1909 was submitted and referred to the finance committee. Payrolls for employees in the several departments of the city for the past two weeks, amounting to $1,060.76, were allowed. Nine saloons and three pawnbrokers were allowed a renewal of their licenses upon the recommendation of the chief of police. The annual report of the fire committee was referred to the fire committee. Claims of the waterworks department, amounting to $390.64, were allowed.

Claiming that a valuable horse belonging to James Varney & Son was injured by stepping on a tin can lying in King street on December 15 had to be killed as a result of the accident, a communication was received from the owners asking the city to reimburse the owners for their loss.

Every Stevens' face is so suited to the character that you forget the actor. First, the cringing, fawning, "umble Utah Heep; next you watch him transform himself into the miserly, decrepit Grandfather Smallweed; last he changes so quickly to the youthful Dick Swiveller, "who, after all, was mostly man."

One does not need to be a lover or a reader of Dickens to enjoy the character changes. If one happens to be, however, it will make the act more enjoyable.

"When I first talked of putting Dickens' characters on the stage," said Mr. Stevens, "my friends said, 'Oh, people don't want Dickens nowadays.' I answered: 'I don't care a hang about Dickens. Those characters are worth presenting, and would be just as good if Tom or Harry Jones wrote them.' In this case it's the characters and not the author that I am presenting."

Mr. Stevens was right. His work has proven a tremendous success and he is known as the greatest portrayer of Dickens' odd men.

Mr. Stevens and Miss Marshall will change their sketch, commencing Thursday night, so the people of Ogden may have the pleasure of seeing these two clever people in a bright musical playlet. The name of the new sketch will be "Guardy."

The New Zealanders will be at the Weber Academy tonight, the performance opening at 8:15 o'clock. The company arrived in Ogden from Evanston this morning and will be ready to open promptly at the hour scheduled. They come highly recommended and an exceedingly interesting and instructive presentation of the home of the Maoris will be given.

Three hundred views will be used in illustrating Mr. Rawel's lecture, "From Annals to Culture." The Rawel family are native-born New Zealanders, all highly educated, Mr. Rawel having graduated with honors and the degree of Master of Arts from Christ Church University. The portrayal as given by the family in song, story and picture, is said to be most unique and fascinating.

The preliminary examination of Trainmaster W. S. Law of the Union Pacific Railroad company for shooting Charles Ward, will take place at Evanston Thursday morning. Law is now out on bail in the sum of $3,000 and the defense will be that the shooting occurred in self-defense.

It is said that Law had just returned from an official trip over the freight district between Evanston and Green River and, as usual, carried a gun while out on the road. On arriving at Evanston he ran over to his home for supper, but was not expected by his wife and the meal was not ready.

He advised Mrs. Law that he was in a hurry, would not wait for her to prepare supper, but would get a meal at the depot restaurant. He did this and then entered his office to transact business, neglecting or forgetting to remove the gun from his hip pocket.

A little later Ward entered the room, demanded a pass for himself and wife from Evanston to Ogden, and was refused on the ground that such a pass could not be issued from Wyoming to Utah without violating the interstate commerce law, as Ward was not then an employee of the Union Pacific company. An altercation followed and, it is alleged, Ward assaulted Law, knocking him out of a chair and onto the floor. In falling, Law maintained he felt the presence of his gun in his hip pocket and fired one shot in the ceiling, hoping to frighten Ward off. He insists that this had no effect on Ward, who continued to beat him, and then Law, believing that his life was in danger, shot his assailant. This will be the line of the defense.

Other trainmen employed on the Utah division say that Law has been in the habit of making gun plays on numerous occasions before and that he wanted it known generally that he was a "bad man" with a gun.

Mrs. Ward, wife of the dead brakeman, is in Ogden at present, and the remains of her husband will be kept at a local undertaking establishment until instructions as to the disposition of the body is received from decedent's mother at Decatur, Illinois.

The stage of anxiety in the minds of the officials of the city building has practically passed, except with the clerical forces that for the past two years have held positions in the various departments. The action of the city council last evening settled, in most instances, the question as to who will be at the head of the departments for the next two years.

The appointees of last night have not yet taken their positions but it is expected that those who accept the appointments will do so tomorrow. It

NEW OFFICERS EXPECTED TO TAKE OFFICE TOMORROW

The stage of anxiety in the minds of the officials of the city building has practically passed, except with the clerical forces that for the past two years have held positions in the various departments. The action of the city council last evening settled, in most instances, the question as to who will be at the head of the departments for the next two years.

The appointees of last night have not yet taken their positions but it is expected that those who accept the appointments will do so tomorrow. It

NEW OFFICERS EXPECTED TO TAKE OFFICE TOMORROW

The stage of anxiety in the minds of the officials of the city building has practically passed, except with the clerical forces that for the past two years have held positions in the various departments. The action of the city council last evening settled, in most instances, the question as to who will be at the head of the departments for the next two years.

The appointees of last night have not yet taken their positions but it is expected that those who accept the appointments will do so tomorrow. It

NEW OFFICERS EXPECTED TO TAKE OFFICE TOMORROW

The stage of anxiety in the minds of the officials of the city building has practically passed, except with the clerical forces that for the past two years have held positions in the various departments. The action of the city council last evening settled, in most instances, the question as to who will be at the head of the departments for the next two years.

The appointees of last night have not yet taken their positions but it is expected that those who accept the appointments will do so tomorrow. It

NEW OFFICERS EXPECTED TO TAKE OFFICE TOMORROW

The stage of anxiety in the minds of the officials of the city building has practically passed, except with the clerical forces that for the past two years have held positions in the various departments. The action of the city council last evening settled, in most instances, the question as to who will be at the head of the departments for the next two years.

The appointees of last night have not yet taken their positions but it is expected that those who accept the appointments will do so tomorrow. It is anticipated that all will accept the trust offered them.

Street supervisor, T. W. Jones; sanitary inspector, Moroni Poulter, and city sexton, W. L. Porter, had their bonds prepared today, with the expectation that the mayor will approve the same this evening, which will enable them to assume the duties of their respective offices tomorrow morning.

Wm. Bostaph, who was appointed city engineer, is out of the city today and it is not known whether he expects to take charge of the engineer's office in the morning. The incumbent, Mr. Parker, says he is ready to vacate and he is a little anxious for Mr. Bostaph to enter the office as soon as possible.

None of the appointees could give any information today as to what changes, if any, will be made in their respective departments, and the clerical forces in the offices are on the anxious seat regarding the situation.

of section 7 in township 5 north, range 2 west of the Salt Lake meridian. Consideration, $2,000.

Caleb R. Evans and wife to Alexander Lambert, part of the northwest quarter of section 18, in township 5 north, range 2 west of Salt Lake meridian. Consideration, $1,850.

Peter H. Barney to Nellie Barney, his wife, lots 17 and 18 in block 11 in Lake View addition to Ogden. Consideration, $1.00 and other values.

John H. Winslow, Sr., to Reuben T. Winslow, part lot 4, block 13, plat "B," Ogden City survey. Consideration, $1.00.

The Stephens Investment company to Kate Grace Taylor, lot in Central Park addition, block 5, Ogden City survey, $2,162.

John S. Garrison and wife to Lincoln Crowell, lots 1, 2, 3 and 4, in block 6, Brummitt's addition to Ogden City. Consideration, $600.

Robert Stephens and wife to Chas. J. Stephens, a part of southwest quarter of section 34, township 6 north, of range 1 west of Salt Lake meridian, U. S. survey, $5.00 and other considerations.

M. R. Wendell and wife to M. Anna Wendell, lot 32, Reeves addition to Ogden. Consideration $100.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 11—With twelve prospective jurors in the box and with but three promissory challenges to be exercised on each side, the prospects seem bright today for the early completion of the jury which is to pass upon the evidence in the case of former Congressman Binger Hermann of Oregon, whose trial for conspiracy to defraud the government of public lands, was commenced in the United States court here yesterday.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Prosecutor Francis J. Healey, in questioning talesmen, was particularly solicitous as to whether the prospective juror had ever exercised his timber and homestead rights. He also inquired into the past political associations of a number of the jurors.

Man With Four Faces at the Orpheum

In twenty minutes' time this man has four faces. Each face is totally different. In fact, this man has six faces, and probably more than that. The man is Edwin Stevens, delineator of Dickens' characters, who, with Miss Tina Marshall, presents three of the cleverest bits of character work seen on the Orpheum stage in a long time. During the past week they appeared at the Salt Lake Orpheum. Having but limited time in Ogden was not included in their itinerary, but the Ogden Orpheum management insisted, and Mr. Stevens is giving a week to this city. St. Paul will be cut out to make up.

Every Stevens' face is so suited to the character that you forget the actor. First, the cringing, fawning, "umble Utah Heep; next you watch him transform himself into the miserly, decrepit Grandfather Smallweed; last he changes so quickly to the youthful Dick Swiveller, "who, after all, was mostly man."

One does not need to be a lover or a reader of Dickens to enjoy the character changes. If one happens to be, however, it will make the act more enjoyable.

"When I first talked of putting Dickens' characters on the stage," said Mr. Stevens, "my friends said, 'Oh, people don't want Dickens nowadays.' I answered: 'I don't care a hang about Dickens. Those characters are worth presenting, and would be just as good if Tom or Harry Jones wrote them.' In this case it's the characters and not the author that I am presenting."

Mr. Stevens was right. His work has proven a tremendous success and he is known as the greatest portrayer of Dickens' odd men.

Mr. Stevens and Miss Marshall will change their sketch, commencing Thursday night, so the people of Ogden may have the pleasure of seeing these two clever people in a bright musical playlet. The name of the new sketch will be "Guardy."

The New Zealanders will be at the Weber Academy tonight, the performance opening at 8:15 o'clock. The company arrived in Ogden from Evanston this morning and will be ready to open promptly at the hour scheduled. They come highly recommended and an exceedingly interesting and instructive presentation of the home of the Maoris will be given.

Three hundred views will be used in illustrating Mr. Rawel's lecture, "From Annals to Culture." The Rawel family are native-born New Zealanders, all highly educated, Mr. Rawel having graduated with honors and the degree of Master of Arts from Christ Church University. The portrayal as given by the family in song, story and picture, is said to be most unique and fascinating.

The preliminary examination of Trainmaster W. S. Law of the Union Pacific Railroad company for shooting Charles Ward, will take place at Evanston Thursday morning. Law is now out on bail in the sum of $3,000 and the defense will be that the shooting occurred in self-defense.

It is said that Law had just returned from an official trip over the freight district between Evanston and Green River and, as usual, carried a gun while out on the road. On arriving at Evanston he ran over to his home for supper, but was not expected by his wife and the meal was not ready.

He advised Mrs. Law that he was in a hurry, would not wait for her to prepare supper, but would get a meal at the depot restaurant. He did this and then entered his office to transact business, neglecting or forgetting to remove the gun from his hip pocket.

A little later Ward entered the room, demanded a pass for himself and wife from Evanston to Ogden, and was refused on the ground that such a pass could not be issued from Wyoming to Utah without violating the interstate commerce law, as Ward was not then an employee of the Union Pacific company. An altercation followed and, it is alleged, Ward assaulted Law, knocking him out of a chair and onto the floor. In falling, Law maintained he felt the presence of his gun in his hip pocket and fired one shot in the ceiling, hoping to frighten Ward off. He insists that this had no effect on Ward, who continued to beat him, and then Law, believing that his life was in danger, shot his assailant. This will be the line of the defense.

Other trainmen employed on the Utah division say that Law has been in the habit of making gun plays on numerous occasions before and that he wanted it known generally that he was a "bad man" with a gun.

We've discovered that we're a trifle overstocked with suits and overcoats—that we're very liable to have some on hand at the end of the season—but—

To prevent this business catastrophe—we have decided to clear out the surplus at GENUINELY cut prices—these:

Six to seven hundred suits—of Dame Fashion's style—we are now closing out at—

25 to 50c on the Dollar

Do we have to say, "come early!" If you're wise you will.

Watson-Tanner Clothing Co.

Our Magazine Bargains FOR 1910

The following are the best Club Offers that will be made this season. All subscriptions for the EVENING STANDARD One Month all others, One Year

Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three	Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three
Pictorial Review . . . 1.00	$2.05	Success Magzn. . . 1.50	$2.25
Success Magzn. . . 1.00		Success Magzn. . . 1.00
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three	Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three
Modern Pictoria75	$1.55	Pearson's Magzn. . . 1.50	$2.25
The Housekeeper75		American Boy . . . 1.50
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three	Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three
The Independent . . . 3.00	$2.40	World To-Day . . . 1.30	$2.25
Success Magzn. . . 1.00		Pearson's Magzn. . . 1.50
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four	Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four
Pictorial Review . . . 1.00	$2.60	Success Magzn. . . 1.00	$2.75
Home Needlework75		Pictorial Review . . . 1.00	$2.75
The Housekeeper75		American Boy . . . 1.00
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three	Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four
Home and Farm50	$1.55	Farmer's Voice50	$1.55
Home Needlework75		Home & Farm50
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four	Paria Modes50	$1.55
Pictorial Review . . . 1.00	$3.05	(Inc. 1 pattern, free)
Success Magzn. . . 1.00		Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three	Home & Farm50	$1.55
World To-Day . . . 1.50	$2.85	Reliable Pktry Jnl . . 50
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four	Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four
Home and Farm50	$1.55	Housekeeper75	$2.25
Poultry Success50		Modern Pictoria75
Paris Modes50		American Boy . . . 1.00
(Inc. 1 pattern free)		Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four	Metropolitan . . . 1.50	$2.55
Home & Farm50	$1.55	Success Magzn. . . 1.00
Farm Poultry50		Ogden Standard . . . $.75	Both
Paris Modes50		Technical World . . 1.50	$1.85
(Inc. 1 pattern, free)		(Or World Today, . . .)
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three	Ogden Standard . . . $.75	Both
Farm Jnl., (5 yrs.) . . 1.50	$1.90	Ainelee's Magzn. . . 1.50	$1.85
The Housekeeper75		Success Magzn. . . 1.00	$1.55
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Three	(Or Pictorial Review)
Pictorial Review . . . 1.00	$2.25	Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four
American Boy . . . 1.00		Uncl' Remus-Home 1.00	$2.55
Ogden Standard . . . $.75	All Four	Metropolitan . . . 1.50
Pictorial Review . . . 1.00	$2.05	Paria Modes50
Ladies' World50		(Inc. 1 pattern, free)
Modern Pictoria75			