OGDENITE DIES ON COAST

E. W. Rhivers, for the past fourteen years a telegraph operator for the Western Union company at the Union Depot in this city, died last night in San Francisco after an illness of a week or ten days. Mr. Rhivers, in company with his wife, who was formerly Miss Leek, left for the west before Christmas to visit their son, who holds a position with Chief Engineer Hood of the Southern Pacific. It was the first vacation Mr. Rhivers had enjoyed for nearly a score of years and he and Mrs. Rhivers were as happy as children as they accepted passes for the trip from Superintendent Manson. It was the event of their lives and as they stepped aboard the Southern Pacific train they were surrounded by a host of friends who extended felicitations and wished the couple a pleasant trip.

Arriving in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Rhivers met their son and were enjoying themselves when the former was taken ill and removed to the hospital where he passed away at 12 o'clock last night.

Mr. Rhivers was well and favorably known in Ogden and his wife is a popular member of a well-known family in this city. The news of his death came as a surprise to his friends and expressions of sorrow are heard from those who have been associated with him in railroad service for years. Arrangements in reference to interment will be announced later.

We've discovered that we're a trifle overstocked with suits and overcoats—that we're very liable to have some on hand at the end of the season—but—

To prevent this business catastrophe—we have decided to clear out the surplus at GENUINELY cut prices—these:

Six to seven hundred suits—of Dame Fashion's style—we are now closing out at—

25 to 50c on the Dollar

Do we have to say, "come early!" If you're wise you will.

PLANT FOR WASHING BOILERS

D. Anderson of Chicago, accompanied by Mrs. Anderson, is in the city, having apartments at the Pacific hotel at the Union depot. Mr. Anderson is here for the purpose of installing a hot water boiler plant for washing engines in the Southern Pacific shops. It is a new process for cleaning boilers and one approved and endorsed by Master Mechanic Malone and other officials of the Harriman system.

The plant will be erected under the personal supervision of Mr. Anderson, as soon as weather conditions admit, and he will remain until the work has been accomplished.

BLACK HAND LETTERS IN OGDEN

Judging from letters received within the last few days by Judge H. H. Henderson, Black Hand is casting its shadow upon the wall. Mr. Henderson is at a loss to know who the party or parties are, nor can he understand the reason for the communications. He does not pretend to say who is responsible for these letters, and he has not the slightest idea where the responsibility for the mysterious correspondence is to be placed.

"I am not the prosecuting attorney of this county or district, and why anybody should warn me not to prosecute Mr. Howell, I cannot understand. The only part I have played in the unfortunate accident that cost Mr. Faust his life has been to represent the interests of the widow at the coroner's inquest," said Mr. Henderson this morning.

Three letters, one bearing the Salt Lake postmark, the other two bearing the Ogden postmark, dated January 5th and 6th respectively, have been received by Mr. Henderson, threatening him with destruction if he proceeds farther in the so-called Will Howell case. The letters are all written in lead pencil and, apparently, in the same hand.

The letter bearing the earliest date was enclosed in a large, official size, plain envelope, the address being written in ink, the other two were enclosed in envelopes bearing the firm name of Last & Thomas and Browning Brothers of this city. One of these letters was written on a telegram blank of the Western Union and the other on a blank piece of account paper.

The letter bearing the Salt Lake postmark of January 5, 1910, reads as follows: "Henderson: Let up on Bill Howell. Drop your work against him. You shall never prosecute Bill. Heed this warning if you place any value on your life. Don't let this reach the papers. This is for YOU, not for the public."

"Word to the Wise, etc." The second letter received by Mr. Henderson bore the Ogden postmark of January 6th, 1910. It was written on the blank form of telegram of the Western Union Telegraph Co., and was enclosed in a small-sized envelope, bearing the name of the business firm of Last & Thomas. It reads: "H. H. Henderson: Let up on Bill Howell. You will pass in your checks unless you do, damn quick."

This letter bore no signature. The last letter was enclosed in a small envelope containing the name of the firm of Browning Brothers, and was written upon a piece of paper torn from a large-sized account book. The letter was delivered to Mr. Henderson on the 9th of this month and it read as follows:

"H. H. Henderson: If you value your life, cease your efforts against Will Howell. You must go no further in this case. You are a marked man unless you quit. Let this be a timely warning to you. IN NO CASE MAKE THIS NOTE PUBLIC."

"BEWARE." Will Howell interviewed. Mr. Howell, had his attention called to the above anonymous letters, and said:

"I never wrote or caused to be written these letters. Such a thought never occurred to me. I bear Mr. Henderson no ill will. He has acted in this matter, as he had a right to act. I have not the slightest idea who wrote these letters. Whoever he is, he can be no friend of mine."

"I feel that my case has been greatly prejudiced by whoever wrote these letters, and I shall make every effort to find out who this party is."

HEAD OF THE FORESTRY SERVICE

A Washington dispatch late this afternoon announced that President Taft had decided to appoint Henry S. Graves, head of the Yale school of forestry, as chief of the forestry bureau, to succeed Gifford Pinchot.

When a Standard bulletin announcing Graves' selection as head of the forest service was read before the Forest Supervisors convention in session in Ogden, there were expressions of great joy, the applause breaking in on the regular order of business and upsetting the proceedings for several minutes. Many of the supervisors are from the Yale school of forestry.

NEGRO RESISTING ARREST, KILLS POLICEMAN

Leavenworth, Kas., Jan. 12.—A negro, while resisting arrest, shot and killed Policeman Devinnish and seriously wounded Policeman Sweeney. He was arrested by other patrolmen after a struggle.
