JOHNSON TO APPEAR BEFORE JUDGE CONNOLLY

Detroit, Feb. 9.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist, must appear before Judge Connolly this morning. Johnson's latest bout with the law is over the possession of one of his fine bull dogs.

Sam Lewis came into the recorder's court yesterday with his arm bleeding and his coat sleeve torn to ribbons. He declared that he was walking on Madison street when Johnson's dog, which was being given an airing by the champion himself, leaped on him and buried his teeth in his arm. Johnson pulled the dog off and went his way, while Lewis hurried to the municipal building to make a complaint.

Johnson was served with a summons last night.

Leon Browning of the city engineer's office states that building activity has already begun and that it looks as though the building season of 1910 will be a lively one in Ogden.

The weather is not yet favorable for extensive building operations, but preparations are being made by those who contemplate building during the year, to be ready for the work as soon as the climatic conditions permit. Building permits have been issued as follows:

Tribe & Jones to build a two-story brick business block at 2212 Washington avenue, the structure to be completed within three months. The dimensions of the building will be 110 feet by 40 and structure will cost upwards of $5,000.

The Shupe-Williams Candy company has been given permission to erect a large reserve water tank at their place of business on Wall avenue between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets. The tank is now being constructed for the further protection of the factory against fire.

Thomas B. Farr is ready to begin the construction of a fine residence on Twenty-ninth street between Adams and Jefferson avenues. It will be completed in 90 days and will cost Mr. Farr about $3,000.

LEAVES THE WESTERN UNION

T. MCGUINNESS, LOCAL MANAGER, GOES TO THE COAST.

Has Been in the Employ of the Company for Twenty Years Past.

T. McGuinness has resigned his position as manager for the Western Union Telegraph office of this city, the resignation to take effect February 10th. The officials have accepted the resignation with regret, expressing the best wishes of the company.

Mr. McGuinness is among the oldest telegraphers of the country, he having been in the service for 35 years. He began his career as a telegraph operator in England when a mere boy, after which he came to this country, where he has held responsible positions in telegraph offices. He was in the employ of the government of the United States for six years and also operated in the offices of New York, Pittsburg, St. Louis, Omaha, Denver and other large cities.

He has had charge of the Western Union's office in Ogden for 20 years, during which time he and his family have formed strong ties of friendship. He is leaving the service here to accept a position in the San Francisco office of the Western Union company. The western divisions of the service are at Ogden and Denver.

It is not definitely known who will be appointed to succeed Mr. McGuinness as manager in the Ogden office, but it will likely be announced within the next few days.

Mr. McGuinness and family will move to San Francisco to take up their permanent residence immediately after the 15th of this month.

P. G. TAYLOR 83 YEARS OF AGE

OFFSPRING NUMBER 499, INCLUDING GREAT GRANDCHILDREN.

Was Born in Kentucky and Located in Harrisville 60 Years Ago—Enjoys Good Health

P. G. Taylor, a pioneer of Weber county, was 83 years old yesterday and celebrated the day by entertaining 40 or 50 of his descendants at his home in Harrisville.

Mr. Taylor was born in 1827 in Green county, Kentucky. He moved to Utah in 1850, where he has reared a family of 22 living sons and daughters. He is the head of a family of 499, made up of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The old gentleman is vigorous and on his birthday offered to outrun his oldest son, who is 60 years old.

The boys say there is only one thing wrong with "father," and that is his persistent clinging to Democracy. Though a Jackson Democrat, he has produced a large family of Republicans, which is a redeeming feature to his political perversity.

CHANGES IN BUSINESS HOUSES

It is anticipated that business changes of considerable importance will be made during the next thirty days on Washington avenue between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets. The "Togger" clothing store will be removed from its present quarters on Washington avenue into the store building formerly occupied by Lamoni Grix on Twenty-fifth street, and unless other arrangements are decided upon at a later date, J. S. Lewis will move his jewelry store to the building vacated by the "Togger."

It is further anticipated by Mr. Browne of the Togger that he will put in a stock of goods in the building now occupied by Mr. Lewis.

The statement by the Majestic company that their vaudeville show will be installed in the building now occupied by the Togger is not confirmed by either Mr. Lewis or Mr. Browne, who state that they know of no such arrangements. J. H. Lewis owns the building in question, and he says emphatically that it has not been leased to the Majestic Amusement company to be used as a vaudeville house nor to any other show company.

The Hemenway & Moser Cigar company, now occupying a store room on the ground floor of the Eccles building facing Washington avenue, have leased the store room recently occupied by C. D. Ives, with the intention of installing a large stock of cigars and tobacco. It is said that they anticipate making the new store one of the most modern cigar and tobacco stores in the western country and that they will expend about $15,000 for fixtures alone. Definite information on these changes can be given within the next few weeks.

TARIFF IS THE CAUSE

So Says Senator Stone, in His Speech on High Prices

Washington, Feb. 9.—Apropos of the consideration of the composite Elkins-Lodge-Mcumber food prices investigation reported to the senate yesterday from the committee on finance and contingent expenses, Senator Stone of Missouri today addressed the senate on the general question of food prices. He undertook to show that the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill is largely responsible for the enhanced price of many necessities of life.

Contrasting the delay in reporting the Elkins resolution with the dispatch in bringing in the lodge measure, Mr. Stone declared that there had been a vast amount of "monkey business" in connection with the consideration of the subject.

Saying he had been greatly puzzled to know the meaning of the method of procedure, he declared it had the complexion of a purpose to conceal rather than to discover.

If not, why, he asked, did Republican members of the finance committee, come rushing headlong into this business and exhibit an overwhelming anxiety to take charge of the proposed inquiry? If the remarkable things done here have given to this business the sinister aspect of a scheme on the part of certain senators to organize a committee that would start in primarily to hold the Payne-Aldrich tariff law blameless for the evils the country complains of, then the senator from Massachusetts and his Republican associates on the finance committee have only themselves to blame.

"Is it the purpose of the great senators who have thrown themselves into this breach, to put the proposed investigation under the control of the senators who were chiefly instrumental in framing the new law and most concerned in exempting it from all responsibility for the higher prices that have followed its enactment? A deep laid apprehension to that effect has been expressed by many newspapers and by many people in different parts of the country."

He said he knew of nothing which stood in such great need of a coating of whitewash as the tariff laws. Asserting that there had been a rapid enhancement of prices since the passage of the law, he declared that neither an increase in the demand for food nor an increase in the gold supply could explain these advances in so short a time.

In all probability, Mr. Stone continued, Mr. Lodge would head the committee of investigation and Mr. Stone expressed apprehension that the senator would hesitate to follow out any line of inquiry which might substantiate Secretary Wilson's contention that American food products are sold here more cheaply abroad than in the United States.

Mr. Stone quoted from letters and newspapers to show a general increase in the necessities of life since the enactment of the Payne-Aldrich bill. Among the letters was one from a St. Louis merchant, saying that cotton goods had increased in price from 12 1/2 to 23 per cent; linens 7 1/2 to 10 per cent, and hosiery 10 per cent.

"Every man of common sense," he said, "ought to know that the enormous profit accruing to investors in these industries are the result of artificial conditions created by law."

Cincinnati, Feb. 9.—Coroner Coe, who held an inquest in the case of Mrs. Alice VanZandt, whose body was found lying across a gas stove at her home on January 25th, returned a verdict today in which he declared that the woman was murdered.

He said that while there was no direct evidence to show "by whom the crime was committed, all circumstances point strongly toward Jesse VanZandt, the husband of the woman, as the guilty party."

VanZandt is held at the county jail.

Riblet denied that he had committed a statutory fraud.

The proceedings were before American Consul Chapman Coleman, and E. C. Hughes of Seattle was present as attorney for the coal claimants.

YOU MAY GET SHORT WEIGHT ON YOUR LARD

Up in Boise when you buy a five-pound bucket of lard you get one weighing four pounds two ounces, and when you purchase a three-pound bucket you get two pounds eight ounces, according to reports from the Idaho capital. They evidently practice the short weight business there, and when the state dairy and food commissioner saw this report he made an investigation in Salt Lake. The result of his inquiries shows that consumers here, when they make a purchase of lard, receive five pounds including the package, and three pounds, including the package. In Utah there is no law compelling dealers to give the exact weight of hardly anything but butter. The department follows the state law in most cases.
