We are of the opinion that our employees will derive more benefit from a half-holiday on Wednesdays than from a two-hour holiday on Saturdays. The difference is just three hours in our employees' favor. Our clerks work the Wednesday afternoons off instead of the two hours off on Saturdays.

We keep our store open Saturday night until 9 p. m., for the benefit of the workingman who's only chance to make purchases is Saturday night.

We would like to have some one prove to us that there is a store in any cosmopolitan or metropolitan city in these United States where men's clothing stores close at 7 p. m.

GRAVES OF THE DEAD DECORATED

Grand Army Veterans Are Conveyed to the Cemeteries in Automobiles—A Flower on Every Grave—Endless Stream of People Entering the City of the Dead.

For the first time in the history of Ogden, the Grand Army veterans are today being taken to the cemetery in automobiles. The feeling that a few bouquets should be thrown to the living while the graves of the dead are being properly decorated has become universal and in every part of the country the veterans are being conveyed to the cemetery. Many of the surviving heroes are not strong enough to march on foot in a parade of many blocks, and so they have been the guests of others in automobiles.

At the city hall grounds this morning at 10 o'clock were assembled the Grand Army men, Spanish-American war veterans, Ladies of the G. A. R., and citizens at which time the march to the city cemetery was begun, the line of march being as follows:
