SACRED HEART COMMENCEMENT

Beautiful indeed was the scene presented at Sacred Heart academy, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, when six young ladies took their final leave of friends, teachers and companions and started on life's voyage. The assembly hall of the academy was filled with appreciative friends who viewed with delight a flower-decked stage, whose prevailing colors were the gold and white of the class of 1910. Festoons of ferns and daisies made a bower of loveliness in which the following program was rendered:

Class of nineteen hundred and ten, academic course: Miss Loretta M. Clause, Ely, Nevada; Miss Edna M. Hamilton, Evanston, Wyo.; Miss Susie E. Jackman, Ogden, Utah; Miss Agnes E. Kennedy, Rawlins, Wyo.; Miss Marguerite E. McNulty, Ogden, Utah.

Program.

"Drift, My Bark" (Kucken)—Senior chorus class. Soloists: Misses Ragan and Thorpe.

Class poem, "Youth's Daisy Chain"—Miss Jackman.

Fast (Alardi)—Violin, Miss Keckler; piano, Miss Rich.

Essay, "The Genius and Character of the Celt"—Miss Kennedy.

Bercesse from "Jocelyn" (Godard)—Miss McNulty; piano, Miss Krauss; violin obligato, Miss Keckler.

Essay, "The Mission of Culture"—Miss Hamilton.

Andante, Symphonie No. 5 (Beethoven)—Misses Krauss and Jackman.

Essay, "The Humbler Poets"—Miss McNulty.

Scene and Aria "Judith" (Concone)—Miss Hamilton; piano, Miss Krauss.

Essay, "Uncrowned Queens"—Miss Clause.

Zapateado (Sarasate)—Violin, Miss G. Malone; piano, Miss Rich.

Ave Maria (Brahms)—Misses McNulty, Hamilton, Jackman, Keckler, Thorpe, Tyler, Ragan, McClure, Musgrave, and McNulty.

Conferring of diplomas and gold medals in the academic course.

Valedictory, "Life's Melodies"—Miss Krauss.

Class song—Miss McNulty and class of 1910.

Address to the graduates—Rev. P. M. Cushman.

Art exhibit in library on second floor. Needle work display on third floor.

Sacred Heart alumnae reception, academy parlors, 8 to 11 p. m.

The opening chorus struck the keynote of the program. It was well rendered, phrased with an harmonious blending that showed excellent training. Miss McNulty's singing of the Bercesse from Jocelyn indicated sympathetic interpretation and a voice of unusual quality, while Miss Hamilton's vocal number was in marked contrast and displayed a dramatic power of rare promise. Brahms' Ave Maria was indeed a prayer of song, verifying the line of Sidney Lanier "Music is love in search of a word."

The instrumental numbers, violin and piano, were artistically rendered. Miss Keckler played Faust with skill and spirit, handling her instrument with graceful ease. Miss G. Malone gave an unusual interpretation for one of her years, of the Sarasate number, while Misses Krauss and Jackman's playing of the Beethoven Symphonie might take rank with many concert performances.

The essays of the graduates were the special feature of the day's program. Many are wont to believe that the productions read by young ladies on such occasions, lack originality. The papers of the class of 1910 were present for inspection, in their uncorrected state, to whomsoever wished to peruse them, in each case they were productions of merit.

The class poem, read by Miss Jackman, and the verse effort of the same young lady held a touch of poetry. The clear, impressive reading added much to the production. Strong and embodying a touch of the national pride was Miss Kennedy's paper, in which she proved the genius and character of her ancestors, and showed a sympathetic spirit with everything Celtic. Miss Hamilton's paper was a plea for true culture, the performance of duty, and the rights of our fellowmen. Her theme was strong and well delivered. With a gentle touch Miss McNulty voiced the mission of life's humble slingers and convinced her hearers that their songs have power. "Uncrowned Queens," the theme of Miss Clause, was a subject dear to all—the love and devotion of the mother; the young lady was imbued with the sentiments to which she gave utterance.

The conferring of diplomas and gold medals fell to the lot of one who has known the members of this class for many years—some, indeed, from babyhood—Rev. P. M. Cushman. As each graduate stood to hear her average read, then on bended knee, received the long-coveted medal, a thrill filled the hearts of many in the audience as they thought of future years when life's cares might press heavily and only the dear memories of school days would cheer them on support.

To Miss Mabel Krauss fell the honor of reading her beautiful poetic effort, "Life's Melodies," a valedictory that in thought and execution did credit to the young lady. At its conclusion, there were few dry eyes in the vast assembly, and she retired to give place to Miss McNulty, who sang the solo parts of the class song, set to the tender air of "The Last Rose of Summer." All the members of 1910 joined in the concluding strains, which proved "music, the mover of hearts."

The address to the graduates was delivered by Rev. P. M. Cushman. It was full of paternal advice, and the result of an inspiration prompted by solicitude and devotion. Other clergymen present were Rev. T. Landry, Rev. J. B. Thompson, Rev. L. Moran, Montana; Rev. R. Kayser, Boise, Ida.; and Rev. Sheehan of Ely, Nevada; Rev. Timothy Brennan and Dean Harris, Salt Lake; Father Galligan, Park City.

The art exhibit and needlework display attracted many visitors, who admired the excellent specimens of China painting, oil and water color, as well as the essential drawing, while a pillow show, displaying inviting downy headrests with appropriate mottoes was novel and unique.

In the evening the Sacred Heart alumnae took possession of the house and, in honor of the class of 1910, tendered a most cordial reception, which was accepted by Ogden's representative citizens and many visiting guests. The decorations were unique in design—streamers of electric lights making brilliant halls and stairways. The parlors where refreshments were served, was a veritable Japanese tea garden, while the colors of the class of 1910 were predominant in the reception rooms. The music was stirring and entrancing, and many old pupils lived again "the daisy days of youth," with the class of 1910. Friends of the institution pronounced the closing exercises of this year at Sacred Heart academy brilliant, indeed.

WEDDING RECEPTION.

A very pretty wedding reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Tribe, 524 24th street, assisted by Mrs. Lenora Horrocks Ragan of Salt Lake City, in honor of their son Harold and Beatrice L. Horrocks, who were married June 22nd, 1910, in the Salt Lake Temple. The attendance was large and included some of the most prominent people of the city. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of liberty satin overdraped with silk chiffon and Irish point lace, and carried bridal roses. The decorations were very pretty, consisting of carnations and roses, displayed in great profusion and with much taste. The presents were many and beautiful and spoke of the high esteem in which the young couple were held by their many friends. Dainty refreshments were served by Miss Mabel Bramwell, Miss Beatrice Farr, Miss Azalia Godard, Miss Prudence Quirk and Miss Belva Tribe. A jolly good time was enjoyed by all until a late hour, when the company separated, all joining in wishing the young couple a long, prosperous and happy life.

BISHOP BOYLE.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Verna Bishop and Ray McLaren Boyle, solemnized at 8:30 o'clock, Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, 2750 Washington avenue. The impressive ceremony was performed by Judge H. H. Rolapp in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the young couple. The home was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns, white and pink predominating in the dining room. Following the wedding ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle have many friends in Ogden who join in wishing them long life, happiness and prosperity.

LAWN PARTY.

Mrs. A. S. Condon and Mrs. W. A. Turner entertained about eighty guests at a lawn party at the home of Mrs. Condon, 2416 Madison avenue, the guests arriving at 4 o'clock. Refreshments were served at 6:30 p. m. Prizes for the successful contestants in the games of archery, guessing and chance were won by Mrs. O. M. Runyan, S. T. Corn and Miss Irene Patne. An ideal day in June helped to make the afternoon spent in the open air a most enjoyable one.

MISS ELENE COUCH ENTERTAINS

Seven jolly girls, members of the "Busy Bee Club," were royally entertained Thursday afternoon by Miss Elene Couch, a member of the club, at her home No. 2947 Jefferson avenue.

The program as planned by Miss Couch, was entered into by the girls with much enthusiasm, each responding with a song, instrumental music or comic reading.

Games were the next in order. Miss Melba Brookshire won first prize in the peanut carnival, while Miss Pearl Lund captured the booty. The first prize in the "Peanut" contest was won by Miss Pearl Lund, and the booty by Miss Edith Sharp.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those present were: Edith Sharp, Ovidia Holther, Melba Brookshire, Ardell Stratford, Charlotte Skeen, Myrtle Huss, Pearl Lund, Elene Couch.

ATTENTION, VETERAN FIREMEN.

A special meeting of the Veteran Firemen will be held Monday, June 27th, at 8 p. m. All members are earnestly requested to attend.

W. H. WRIGHT, President.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

On Wednesday, June 22, William Moyes and Robina Gowans Moyes celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, which was solemnized in their native town of Paisley, Scotland, June 22, 1850. The large family of Mr. and Mrs. Moyes, with six of the Moyes brothers who were present at the wedding in bonny Scotland half a century ago, many cousins, including David Eccles, Stuart Eccles and Mrs. Nettie Eccles and a host of friends, twenty-eight of whom were from their native town in Scotland, composed the company of one hundred who sat down to the grand wedding banquet at the Moyes home, 218 Twenty-sixth street. Toasts to the silver haired bride and groom, who have braved the storms of half a century in the company of each other, and halcyon scenes greeted the beloved members of their family and their many esteemed friends, were offered. Pleasant and interesting reminiscences, loving greetings and beautiful messages from distant friends made the occasion replete with joy to the aged couple. Many beautiful and costly remembrances bore testimony of the love and esteem of relatives and friends.

OUTING AT LAGOON.

The Swedish people gave an excursion to Lagoon Thursday and Friday, June 23 and 24, which was enjoyed by all present.

After the noon lunch the committee, erected the May pole, decorated with flowers and bunting. The Swedish dancers, about twenty in number, gathered around, dancing their native dance and dressed in their native costumes, the music being furnished by one playing the accordion.

The program consisted of various selections rendered by the Swedish male choir of Salt Lake, which is considered one of the best in the state.

The speakers were delighted with the large crowds present and spoke of the immigration to this country, leaving behind their beloved native land, Sweden, celebrating this day as a reminder of the land of the midnight sun, that on the night of midsummer eve shines all night.

Other amusements were boat riding, dancing, the skating rink and racing. The program will long be remembered by the Swedish people and others that were there.

Miss Zayda Heltarhends of Chicago is the guest of Miss Lou Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gosling will leave on Tuesday, June 28, for Wyoming where they will spend about two months in the mountains.

Mr. C. H. Gosling will entertain Mr. and Mrs. James Chrisman, of Opal, Wyoming, at dinner tomorrow.

The Relief Societies of the South Weber stake will hold their annual outing at Lagoon, Thursday, June 30. There will be a program in the afternoon and amusements furnished by the various associations. A good time is assured all who attend.

Utah Camp No. 990, is moving right along in spite of the hot weather. New applications for membership are coming in at every meeting and, while the attendance at the meetings is not as good as it ought to be, it is as good as the attendance at other lodge meetings this time of the year. Neighbor's why don't you turn out and help the good work along. The heat ought not to stop you. You can come in summer suits while the boys can get in on duty in their woolen suits, lightly buttoned. If they can stand a little warm weather, you ought to be able to do so. Come out to meetings, and get acquainted with our new members and see the beautiful work of our new ritual.

Our camp has in hand the matter of a Modern Woodmen day at Lagoon in the near future, when the neighbors can all get together and have a good time.

Neighbor L. R. Heffner is reported very low at the S. P. hospital in San Francisco. All of our other sick members are reported as improving.

Now neighbors, get busy and keep on boosting as we have been so far this year. Get as many applications as you can and we will get the state prize banner back from Salt Lake and keep it in Ogden where it ought to be.

Just a word by way of a gentle reminder: Pay your assessments and dues promptly, as omitting to pay them on time suspends a member, according to the laws of the order, and while you may not suffer by being suspended, think of those loved ones at home who would suffer should the Grim Reaper gather you in while you were suspended for not paying promptly. Let us all remember our obligations and live up to them and by so doing we will be made better men.

A slight draft for $3.00 has just been received and delivered to Mrs. Chas. H. Maxwell, same being payment of policy held in Utah Camp No. 990, by Neighbor Maxwell.—Press Committee.
