

OFFICIAL CANVASS

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—With the continuing of the official canvass today and the securing of late returns from remote districts, indications are that the Lincoln-Roosevelt league, the champion of insurgency in California, elected its entire ticket at Tuesday's primary election.

The offices still in doubt are those of lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state printer and clerk of the supreme court.

J. Wallace declared last night that from returns secured by telegraph from county clerks he has secured the nomination for lieutenant governor by 2,000 votes, over Francis V. Keeling. It was also for Wallace by league leaders that its candidate, Florence J. O'Brien, has defeated Frank C. Jordan for the nomination for secretary of state, that Friend Richardson has led by 1,500 votes over "Billy" Shannon, the regular candidate for state printer, and that B. Grant Taylor, insurgent, has defeated William H. Bemis for clerk of the supreme court.

Keeling claims the victory, and Wallace says he will accept only the figures of the official count before admitting defeat.

In the contest on the advisory vote, by legislative districts, Wallace still leads by a plurality of 100,000. Wallace's plurality of 100,000 in the legislative vote for him, regardless of Wallace's plurality of votes.

Lincoln-Roosevelt control of the state legislature is feared by leaders of the regular wing of the party, who already are planning a new attack by a proposal to put up an independent candidate in each of the districts where the Lincoln-Roosevelt nominee was successful. This decision was reached yesterday at a conference of party leaders.

Republican leaders throughout the state are making determined efforts to prevent a desertion to the ranks of Bell, the Democratic candidate for governor, and campaign managers for Curry and Elbery and Stanton have mobilized themselves in Johnson's cause. A. J. Wallace declared last night that the party would be drawn closely together on the ground that Johnson does not stand for insurgency on national issues, having broken away from the regulars only on state issues.

"The tariff and other matters that the insurgents of the east have taken account, were not issues in the Johnson campaign," he said. "The state fight was confined to a state matter and did not extend to national affairs. The members of the Lincoln-Roosevelt league have been referred to as 'insurgents,' but they are not insurgents of the eastern type."

Stocks move irregularly during the week, leaving prices little changed. Politics came in for much discussion and as a deterrent. The victory of the insurgents in California caused some pressure upon the Harriman issues.

Crop news was generally favorable, with rains in various sections where nature had been lacking. Texas advices indicate a very heavy cotton yield and there were moderately large exports of cereals.

Monetary conditions are working toward a satisfactory adjustment as western and southwestern points and little apprehension of a financial stringency now exists. The foreign trade balance continues adverse and stagnation is reported from Asia, with an improved outlook in textiles.

Bank clearings decreased 25 per cent, confirming the prevailing restriction in financial and speculative quarters.

New Elgin course to be opened. Chicago, Aug. 20.—With a number of the country's leading drivers on hand, the new Elgin course, the scene of the National stock chassis events next week, will be thrown open for the first time today for the trials which will take place daily hereafter up to the time of the race. The final touches were made on the eight-mile circuit yesterday, and last night the workmen rounded up their long toil with the surface in fine shape. All the ruts and treacherous spots have been worked over until entirely eliminated, and when the speeders get under way they will find the course in perfect condition.

Well-known painter dies of heart failure. New Canaan, Conn., Aug. 20.—Frank Fowler, a well-known portrait painter, is dead at his summer home here of heart disease. He was 58 years old. Mr. Fowler established himself in New York City in 1880, and painted the portrait of many well-known men, including Samuel J. Tilden, Charles A. Dana, John Bigelow, William Dean Howells, Arthur T. Hadley, Archibald Corrihan and many officers of the United States army.

Guides and maps for aviators newest out. New York, Aug. 20.—Guides and maps for aviators are the newest thing on publishers' row. The maps are quite different from ordinary maps. Elevations and depressions in the land are scarcely indicated, as they are not of use to the aviator. All cities, railroad lines and water courses are carefully plotted, for these are the marks by which the flying men find their way.

Earthquake shock. Albigers, Aug. 20.—A shock of earthquake today was felt at Aumale, 55 miles east of here. Several houses were damaged.

MINISTER JOINS A MUSICAL COMEDY CO.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Rev. Dudley C. Fosher, for the last three years pastor of the Ryder Memorial University church, has resigned and has accepted a position with a musical comedy company.

He gave as his reason for quitting the pulpit, that his salary of $1,200 per annum was too low.

When Mr. Fosher appears tomorrow on the stage at Racine, Wis., he will act in the role of a college professor and will sing to the dancing accompaniment of rows of chorus girls. It was his vocal ability that obtained for him the favorable attention of the comedy company.

Sad story in court. Cincinnati, O., Aug. 20.—A pathetic story was revealed by Mrs. Beta Kolling, in her suit for a writ of replevin before Judge Meyers here yesterday.

Her husband, who had not been supporting her compelled her to go to work in a shoe factory, and sold the entire household furniture of their little flat, including the baby's go-cart and a cot to a bartender for $2 to pay a bar bill.

The bartender refused to allow Mrs. Kolling to enter the flat when she returned from work and the woman was obliged to sleep on a bench in the street.

Save infants says council. Salt Lake, Aug. 20.—Salt Lake City stands in a fair way of obtaining a "dope" ordinance now that should go a long way towards lessening the wholesale use of objectionable drugs, poisonous to the mind and the body and reducing the number of "dope fiends."

After a lengthy discussion the city council, sitting as a committee of the whole, decided Thursday evening to recommend an ordinance prohibiting the sale or disposal of cocaine, morphine, heroin or opium or any of the derivatives of opium or any preparations wherein either is an ingredient except upon the prescription of a reputable licensed practicing physician and such prescription shall not be refilled.

The restrictions do not apply, of course, to preparations recognized by the United States pharmacopoeia or to standard proprietary medicines that are not narcotic, neither do they apply to the wholesale sale by jobbers, wholesalers and manufacturers to retailers nor to sales at retail by druggists to regular practitioners of medicine, dentistry or veterinary medicine, nor sales made to manufacturers of proprietary pharmaceutical preparations for use in the manufacture of such preparations, nor to sales to hospitals, colleges, scientific or public institutions.

The ordinance is a violation of the measure in line of $299 or imprisonment in the city jail for six months or both such fine and imprisonment, or to the wholesale sale by jobbers, wholesalers and manufacturers to retailers nor to sales at retail by druggists to regular practitioners of medicine, dentistry or veterinary medicine, nor sales made to manufacturers of proprietary pharmaceutical preparations for use in the manufacture of such preparations, nor to sales to hospitals, colleges, scientific or public institutions.

Nothing syrup stunts the child's growth and his mentality," was one of Dr. Fisher's strong statements. Little or no complaint was made against cough medicines containing drugs.

Charles Van Dyke of the Van Dyke drug store classed Dr. Fisher's statements as to soothing syrup as purely theoretical and said that he has no knowledge of the development of a single "dope" fiend from the use of soothing syrups.

Chief of Police Barlow said that from eight to ten "dope" cases reach the police station every ten or twelve days. The habit starts with smoking, then the victim drifts to cocaine on account of the time and cost caused by smoking. The victims range in age from 18 to 20 years. The victims obtain the "dope" through agents or "bootleggers," Chief Barlow said, but the users ordinarily zealously protect the distributors of it.

FORGONE IN OLD RAGS

Newark, N. J., August 20.—Herbert Steubie finds the job of rag-sorter at a paper mill at Whippany, N. J., a hours from his native position. His wages are only $6 a week, but during the past week he has cleared $1,800 from valuable things he found concealed among the old rags and waste which daily passes under his rake.

Five days ago he picked up an old stocking which contained two diamonds worth $500 each. Yesterday he came upon a large sapphire and a ruby tied up in a handkerchief.

As a result of the recent publication of the finding of precious stones in waste rags and paper the superintendent of the factory has ordered several letters from persons who say they have lost precious stones. A woman, writing from New York said that she lost diamonds valued at $2,000, which were tied in a wrapping tissue paper.

Crushed to pulp. New York, Aug. 20.—The discovery a few hours before the time set for the sailing today of the Russian line steamship Lithuania, of a can of plant gunpowder in the coal that was being loaded into the ship's bunker, is believed to have forestalled a scheme for the destruction of the vessel at sea.

The Lithuania carries more than 100 passengers and a large cargo. Had the powder escaped notice, it would probably have found its way with the coal into the furnaces and disaster would have followed.

The can, containing one and a half pounds of gunpowder, was almost scooped up by the great shovel when a workman saw it. It was taken to the captain, who had it soaked in water and the cover pried off.

Fiendish scheme. Rome, Aug. 20.—Lieut. Vivaldi of the Italian army was killed this morning by a fall from his aeroplane. He made a trip in the early morning from the military aviation field at Centocelle to Civitavecchia on the Mediterranean sea, 37 miles from Rome, and was returning to Rome when the accident happened. A few miles outside of Rome, for some unexplained reason, the machine dashed to earth.

At the time of the accident the aeroplane was at the height of 1000 feet and the body of Vivaldi was crushed to an unrecognizable mass.

Lieut. Vivaldi recently returned from Chalon sur Marne, France, where he had taken up aviation. He used a Farman Biplane.

Epideemic continues. Bari, Italy, Aug. 20.—Five new cases of cholera and three deaths are reported from Trani, where the epidemic continues to cause serious apprehension. The disease manifests itself in its deadliest form, many of the victims being attacked without the usual preliminary symptoms and dying after a few hours.

In other parts of Apulia the situation is more hopeful, the population now being more willing to assist the authorities to enforce hygienic rules. Under the strict measures adopted, the march of the cholera to new localities has been checked.

Martin Harkness is laid to rest. Salt Lake, Aug. 20.—Martin Harkness is at rest. Services over the body of this pioneer of Salt Lake valley were held in the Masonic temple on Thursday afternoon, after which the body was laid away in the Masonic cemetery in Mt. Olivet.

At the temple the exercises were in charge of Arceus J. Garfield, who the deceased was a charter, as well as a life member. Grand Master C. B. Jack delivered a brief oration, while the ritualistic exercises were carried out both at the temple and at the grave.

The choir, under the direction of Fred Graham, sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Nearer My God to Thee."

State medical board is going after "quacks." Salt Lake, Aug. 20.—The discharge of "Dr. J. Maxwell by Police Judge Whitaker on Wednesday, as heretofore announced, was not to the liking of the members of the state board of medical examiners, as it was thought that the prosecution had a good case of practicing medicine without a license against Maxwell, who was charged with obtaining a prescription for cocaine to J. H. Duncan.

Dr. J. C. Smullyan, a member of the board, stated Thursday that he did not intend to let the matter rest. The board has another case against Maxwell, and the county attorney had the matter of issuing another complaint against Maxwell under consideration and in fact had agreed to issue one.

Dr. Smullyan declares that the state board will wage an active campaign against all who are attempting to practice medicine without a license and it is the intention to take criminal action against several so-called "quacks" in the near future.

Hired Sluggo Collects Money

Chicago, Aug. 20.—While union chauffeurs, selected to be "slugged" were telling in Municipal Judge Torison's court yesterday, how Harry Hunt, "hired sluggo," had spared them and at the same time had collected his $7 a day, a reporter reached the courtroom that Arthur Bennett, a union chauffeur, had just been "slugged" as another victim of "hired thugs."

Charles Frederick testified that Hunt strode up to him one day and that the witness had been selected for a "slug." "I'm not going to slug," he quoted Hunt as saying, "but I have to go through the motions to get my $7. You report to the union officials that I have slugged you and I'll get my money."

Utah ends the list. Washington, Aug. 20.—Every state and territory in the Union, with the single exception of Nevada, which is without a militia, gets a portion of the federal appropriation for the purchase of supplies and ammunition for the organized militia during the present fiscal year, in the first allotment of the $1,000,000 war fund. The department has reserved about $40,000 of the fund for emergencies.

According to the enlisted strength of the organized militia in the various states, five states get more than $50,000 each. Of these New York leads with $206,000; Pennsylvania follows with $140,000; the states with $84,000 are Massachusetts with $78,000, Ohio with $73,000 and New Jersey with $54,000.

Of the others, Alabama, California, Connecticut, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and Wisconsin get each more than $25,000.

Utah ends the list with only $4,778, while Delaware, Hawaii, Idaho, North Dakota and Wyoming are the only others to get less than $10,000.

The department has also allotted $1,000,000 to the states, on a basis of representation in congress, for arms, equipment, camp purposes and promotion of rifle practice in the militia organizations.

Rat Britain solves problem. Washington, Aug. 20.—Great Britain has solved, in a measure, the question of cheap transportation of its mails. Automobile trucks are being used in conveying the mail matter between London and Birmingham, especially the highest class of mail, according to Albert Halstead, United States consul at Birmingham.

The distance between the two cities is 113 miles, and the automobile mail wagons connect with the regular mail type along the route, which will carry the mails to smaller towns. In this manner, says Consul Halstead, a wide territory is covered and better service is assured.

"It is believed this service will materially improve the postal service," says Mr. Halstead. It will naturally reduce the amount of carriage by rail and will probably be more economical.

The report has aroused much interest in the postoffice department here because of the rapid growth of the rural free delivery systems in the United States.

Handsome Harry goes to an almshouse. New York, Aug. 20.—Harry Mylette, an oldtime clown, who was once known to circus goers from the Atlantic to the Pacific as Handsome Harry, has been committed to the New York almshouse for insanity. He has been crippled for many years, and when his slender savings gave out, he became a public charge.

Mylette received his injuries at a performance some time ago at Garfield. The clown tried to excel himself, and in one of his feats, a leap over three elephants, misjudged the distance and fell between two of them. He recovered sufficiently to re- turn to the ring, but was never so clever again. At one time he received a salary of $1,000 a week.

Moissant on last leg of his flight. Chatham, England, Aug. 20.—Chas. F. Moissant, the aviator, who was forced to descend at Rainham, four miles from here, by an accident to his aeroplane Thursday, ascended at 6:20 this morning on the last leg of his flight to London.

A strong wind was blowing. Moissant described a circle of three miles to the westward, and then was compelled to descend. He announced after his descent that he found the wind too strong and would not be able to make a new start for several hours.

Starving to Death

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 20.—Lying on pallets, too weak to move, detectives found in an Arroyo Seco hangar last night four members of a queer new sect, whose members were deliberately starving themselves to death in anticipation of the end of the world.

There were two men, a woman and a girl 15 years old. They had not touched a morsel of food for six weeks, and for the last ten days had not stirred from their couches on the floor of a room that had not been aired since the long fast began.

Last night the officers forced them to take their first nourishment—a pint of milk divided among the four. John Irving O'Neill, one of the four, said he was the leader of the sect which he called Disciples of the Holy Ghost with the Gift of Tongues, and invited the curses of heaven down upon those who compelled him to break the fast.

The appearance of the comet was the sign of the end of the world," he said. "We were starving because fasting will gain us heaven, and there is no better way of getting to heaven than starving to death."

The police believe that they were victims of hoodlum men who, after rifling their victims' pockets, dragged them to the elevated platform with the intention of placing their supposedly dead bodies on the tracks.

It is the opinion of the police that the assailants were frightened away before accomplishing their purpose. The hospital surgeons have been unable to revive either of the victims sufficiently to get a coherent story as to where they had been or what had happened.

New Orleans, Aug. 20.—Chief Raoul Perez of the Paris department, who is investigating fire-fighting methods in this country, awoke this morning from a strenuous night spent in the house of engine company No. 18 on West Tenth street. He went with the firemen on several calls and had every move explained to him in detail by an engineer who speaks French fluently.

The Paris chief has been in New York several days. He will leave tomorrow for Pittsburg and will visit the principal cities in the country before returning to France.

Father of Salt Laker dies in Kansas City. Salt Lake, Aug. 20.—John M. Wilfley, owner of the Wilfley apartments and also of the new Hollywood apartments, was called to Kansas City Thursday, his father having died there Wednesday afternoon. His father, Redman Wilfley, was 85 years old at the time of his death, was a veteran of the Mexican war and had been a resident of Kansas City for nearly fifty years.

Besides being a veteran of the Mexican war, Mr. Wilfley was a lieutenant colonel on the confederate side in the civil war. Among the surviving sons are C. B. Wilfley, residing in Twin Falls, Ida.; another A. R. Wilfley, living in Denver, and John M. Wilfley, having his home in this city.

Fined ten dollars for striking woman. Salt Lake, Aug. 20.—An echo of one of the disgraceful rumpuses which are common occurrences on the Saltair trains was heard in the criminal division of the city court Thursday morning, when the case of E. McDonald, charged with assaulting Miss May Corbett as she stepped off a Saltair train at a late hour several nights ago, was tried. McDonald was found guilty of having battered the woman and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve ten days in the city jail.

Boys Dying as Result of Burns

Newark, N. J., August 20.—Harold Kosa, a 18-year-old schoolboy, is dying at his home here, and two of his young companions are under the care of hospital surgeons as the result of burns received last night when one of them threw a lighted paper into a sewer basin, in which a quantity of oil had been dropped by board of health inspectors to check the breeding of mosquitoes.

The lads were enveloped in flames and a moment later, Kosa's clothing was burned from his body.

Last night the officers forced them to take their first nourishment—a pint of milk divided among the four. Aeroplane for Navy

Paris, Aug. 20.—Admiral De La Peyserre, the French minister of marine, has become an enthusiastic convert to the possibilities of the aeroplane in naval warfare in view of the results attained in the Paris-London flight of Moissant, the great cross-country course just completed by French aviators and other recent achievements in the air.

In a statement today he expressed the wish that the French fleet should take first rank in the world in aerial navigation as it does now in submarine feats and proposed the establishment of a fleet of aeroplanes at the French naval bases of Cherbourg, Brest, Toulon and Bizerte, Africa, to protect the ports and to locate the mines and submarines of a possible enemy.

"For the price of a single cruiser," said the minister, "we may have thousands of aeroplanes. They will be our scouts."

It is understood that Moissant, the American aviator now on his way to London, will compete with Latham, Paulhan and Farman for the special Michelin prize of $20,000 for a non-stop flight from Paris to Clermont-Ferrand with a passenger.

In many respects this flight is considered far more difficult than previous aeroplane feats, not merely because of the passenger and non-stop stipulations but because the flight must end on the summit of Pevle Dome, a mountain 4,800 feet high, where the strong and erratic air currents will make a landing extremely difficult.

CHAUFFEUR GETS RATING OF ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. Albany, N. Y., August 20.—The state of New York has given Thomas J. Langton of Irvington-on-the-Hudson, a rating of one hundred per cent in his examination for a chauffeur's license under the Callan automobile law. He is the first chauffeur to achieve this honor.

Langton is chauffeur for Miss Helen Gould and swears that he has driven automobiles more than five hundred thousand miles, the distance record, as far as chauffeurs examined in this state are concerned. Langton has been in the employ of Miss Gould eleven years and has covered 250,000 miles in this state during that time.
