HORSE KILLED BY CHLOROFORM RESULT OF CAR ACCIDENT.

The draying horse hitched to the delivery wagon of the Finlay Brewing company was struck by a street car on West Main street in front of the local offices of the company Saturday morning and had its leg broken. The horse had been left unhitched in the center of the street. Just as car No. 6 slowed up for the street crossing, the horse turned around suddenly and the front steps of the car struck its fore leg. Dr. Harper, veterinary surgeon, was called. He had the suffering animal removed to his stables, where it was chloroformed and put out of its misery.

A. M. E. CHURCH FAIR AND FESTIVAL.

The ice cream festival and public reception given by the Willing Workers of the Pride Chapel A. M. E. church Friday evening in the church was attended by quite a number, and the affair was very successful from every point of view. A small offering was taken in exchange for the ice creams, fruits and other delicacies, which went towards the church expenses. The society, through its president, C. C. Jones, desires to extend its sincere thanks to those who attended the festival and contributed towards its success.
