NO ABATEMENT IN INTEREST

In the Services Being Conducted at Goff Methodist Episcopal Church, Notwithstanding the Bad Weather.

The services at Goff M. E. church were all characterized by the genuine revival spirit. The very inclement weather of the morning in a measure prevented the congregation of the morning was somewhat diminished in numbers the interest was great. The Sunday school assembled in the auditorium and enjoyed a special service and then at the close of the sermon they gathered around the altar and front pews in a solemn consecration which was most impressive to all present.

Mr. M. F. Snider conducted the Epworth League devotional service, which was held in the auditorium. The meeting was an excellent one and many will long remember the excellent address of Mr. Snider. At 7.35 the church was crowded so that late comers could not be accommodated. At the close of the sermon five persons manifested their interest and good intentions by raising for the prayers of God's people. Six united with the church. The indications for a glorious revival are excellent.

To-night the subject of the sermon will be "Large Asking and Great Joy." All are invited to come at 7.30 p.m.

ENTERTAINED

The Teachers at Dinner in Honor of Their Work—Truant Officer McClung Proves a Very Genial Host.

Truant Officer Marcellus McClung entertained the teachers at the Northview school at dinner at his home at Northview Monday noon. The occasion was very pleasant, indeed, and there was a very bounteous and delectable repast, the home of Mr. McClung proving a very gracious one. The guests were Miss Catherine Shinn, Miss Myrtle Tate, Miss Vera Bartlett and John W. Flanigan.
This honor was shown the teachers by the truant officer on account of the very pleasant manner and efficient way in which the teachers discharge their duties and work in conjunction with him in his official duties.
