will preach on Sunday morning and even-

Meetings were held at the Pinnickin

LIKE SWEET BELLS

Jangled Out of Tune, Are Republican Editors and West Virginia Branch of National Editorial Association Will Be Formed.

A West Virginia branch of the National Republican Editorial Association is to be started as the result of the meeting of that body which was held last Thursday and Friday in Washington, D.
C. Hon. S. G. Smith, a member of the national executive committee of the association, says the outlook for such a branch organization is bright. With respect to this branch association Mr.
Smith says that the idea was to have harmony among the Republican editor-of the state, who at present are a little like "sweet bells jangled out of tune." When this is done the party will be in much better shape to march to victory wherever it fights.

ORTAION

Will Be Rendered at Wilsonburg School House By Marcellus McClung—Will Talk on Tax Reform Question.

Tribune Officer Marcellus McClung, who has lately sprung into prominence as an orator and public speaker of no mean ability, has been booked for an address at the Wilsonburg public school house Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. The pupils of the school got up a petition all of the enrolled pupils signing it, beseeching Mr. McClung to make an address. In the face of that he could not very well refuse and he is preparing to make the speech. Although Mr. McClung has not given out the subject of his address as yet, it is generally understood by his friends that he will take up the tax reform question and dwell upon it at length.

NOTHING DOING IN POLICE COURT.

From the size of things at police court Tuesday morning it was very evident that the city was not bothered to any great extent by maudlin drunks the day or night before. The coppers failed to scoop up anything in their drag net and as a result Mayor Orle could not hold the regular session of court at the regular scheduled time. There was not even a put up fine.
