SOCIETY VIEWS

Christ Protestant Episcopal church was the scene Tuesday evening of a beautifully appointed wedding. Miss Nina Margaret Wallis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Townsend Wallis, and Mr. Allen Gilmer Patton, of Parkersburg, W. Va., were united in marriage before a large and fashionable audience. Rev. James F. Plummer officiated.

Long before the time set for the ceremony the church was filled and a delightful organ recital was rendered by the organist in charge. The church decorations, though not elaborate, were very artistic. The stone pillars marking the entrance to the chancel were wrapped with ropes of asparagus vines, finished with bows of white satin ribbon. The stained glass Trinity window was heavily hung with greenery and the altar rail with its festoons of green formed a pleasing picture in the soft shaded lights of the altar candles and high brass cross which stood on the reared. Large potted plants and palms were gracefully grouped in the chancel. Promptly at the appointed hour the vested choir entered the church porch chanting Lohengrin's wedding chorus and took their places in the western transept of the church.

The ushers, Messrs. Albert Stiles, William Peterkin and Charles Smith, of brother of the bride, led the way to the brother of the bride, led the way to the altar, followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. Sprigg Despard Camden, of Parkersburg. The bride came in with her father and met the groom and his best man, Mr. Allen Murdoch, of Parkersburg, at the chancel steps. After the reading of the impressive marriage service the bridal party left the church to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white lace over tulle and chiffon, with high corsage. The full tulle veil was held in place by a butterfly of diamonds, pearls and sapphires, the gift of the groom and she carried an ivory prayer book. The matron of honor wore a beautiful gown of pale blue, embroidered chiffon over tulle, de collette corsage, with Bertha effect and carried a bouquet of La France roses. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Patton drove directly to the bride's home and left on the 9:45 express for a honeymoon trip in the East. The brides' going-away gown was a black tailor-made one, and she wore a black velvet toque. At ten o'clock the Parkersburg guests were entertained by Mrs. Benjamin R. Blackford at the home of her parents Colonel and Mrs. Henry Haymond.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were Mrs. Clifton Comly, of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. John Holloway, of Wheeling; Mr. and Mrs. Sprigg D. Camden, Mr. and Mrs. William Mowris, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Stiles, Mrs. Robert Morrison, Miss Laura Despard, Mrs. Walter Cash; Messrs. Albert Stiles, William Peterkin, Monroe Shevraury, Doremus Paden, C. B. Smith, all of Parkersburg.

A beautiful luncheon was given by Mrs. Edward Steele Wallis on Tuesday at one o'clock in honor of Miss Nina Wallis and her wedding party. The table had a large bowl of white carnations for the attractive centerpiece, with a wedding bell of carnations suspended from the chandelier. A training vine of asparagus was gracefully arranged on the table and the name cards were fastened with a white carnation and maiden hair fern. Covers were laid for eight guests among whom were Miss Wallis, Miss Laura Despard, Mrs. Sprigg Despard Camden, Mr. Benjamin R. Blackford, Mrs. Samuel B. Stiles, Mrs. James

M. Jackson, Mrs. Robert L. Morrison. When the guests went to the table the loving cup was passed around and each one drank to the health of the bride and groom. The ices were attractively served in the shape of white roses and water lilies.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was the Valentine party given by Miss Anna Payne at the home of her aunts, the Misses Leachman, Monday evening. The decorations were hearts and cupid's arrows. The evening was delightfully spent in the matching of hearts, games of Finch and music. The refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cake, coffee and hand-made candy were all heart shape. A large heart-shaped cake, containing a ring, a piece of money and a button was the center decoration of the table. Miss Gay Lynch received the ring and Mr. Edward Stout the piece of money, and on one was so fortunate as to get the button. Those present were Misses Flora Long, Gay Lynch, Alma Swiger, Minnie Huggill, Fannie Long, Anna Rittenhouse, Anna Huggill; Messrs. William Cable, C. D. Sturm, Arthur Thompson, E. D. Peck, Ed. Stout and Thora.

Now that the Lenten season was ushered in on Wednesday, all the card clubs assemblies and large parties have discontinued until Eastertide, at which time many social events have been planned.

The second assembly of the season given by the Clarksburg Assembly Club, on Monday evening, was a great social event and was attended by many out of town guests. The patronesses were Mrs. Henry Haymond, Mrs. John Koblegard, Mrs. John Ruhl, Mrs. Richard Tasker Lowndes, Jr., Mrs. John Estill who received the guests in the main corridor. Dancing began promptly at ten o'clock in the large ball room and the music was well rendered by the Clarksburg orchestra. There were over 200 guests in attendance. A delicious salad supper was served at 12 o'clock. There were many out of town guests in attendance.

The banquet given by the society of the Sons of the Revolution of West Virginia will take place at the Waldo on Monday evening at nine o'clock.

Mrs. Waldo Percy Goff gave a very pleasant little supper at the Waldo on Tuesday night to a few friends, complimentary to Mrs. Robert L. Morrison, of Parkersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin R. Blackford entertained the Parkersburg guests attending the Patton-Wallis wedding on Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Col. and Mrs. Henry Haymond.

Mrs. Robert S. Gardner entertained at a very pleasant little card party on Tuesday evening. There were three tables of progressive euchre. The prizes were won by Mrs. Edward Steele Wallis, Mr. William H. Lewis and Mrs. Peter Koblegard. At 11 o'clock a salad supper was served. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Koblegard, Mr. and Mrs. William Hay Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wallis and Messrs. Stringer, Boggess and McNulty.

Master George Denham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Denham, celebrated the sixth anniversary of his birthday last Tuesday evening. A number of the little fellows friends were present and enjoyed a good supper.

The social and supper by the Ladies of the Macebees in their lodge rooms on Main street Tuesday evening was a very enjoyable affair. A large number were present and enjoyed chocolate in various forms, which constituted the menu of the attractive supper.

Colonel and Mrs. Henry Haymond, Miss Garrard and Mrs. Clifton Comly, of Indianapolis, were the invited guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Lowndes at a prettily appointed dinner at the Waldo on Sunday, complimentary to Mrs. Comly.

RICH
Are J. C. Gawthrop's Gold Mining Claims in Idaho, Says the "Statesman," of That State.

The Boise City, Idaho, "Statesman," speaks of the gold claims of J. C. Gawthrop, of this county, as follows:
"J. C. Gawthrop has some interesting claims on the east side of the Payette about three miles north of Horse Shoe Bend, which he is preparing to develop. The claims are called the Eastern Gold Bar No. 1, and the Eastern Gold Bar, No. 2.

"There are two veins, both being true fissures in granite. One of the veins is six feet wide where opened and shows much copper pyrite, also iron pyrite, and carries fair values in silver with a little gold. The other vein is small. It was eight inches thick where opened but has opened out to 18 inches with a little work.

"There has yet been no work done on the claims beyond the assessment, but the veins are easily traced and give promise of being very valuable.

John Braden, of West Virginia, has four claims, some three miles east of Mr. Gawthrop's property, which show a very strong vein carrying good values. He has planned to put in a tunnel in the spring. It will be driven at least 300 feet and probably 500."

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION
Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken.

The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established itself in public favor, and it is now recognized as the strongest publication of its kind in the United States. Advertisers and publishers seeking clubbing combinations—and they know best—universally testify to this. It is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and even in remote South Africa and on the gold fields in the deserts of Australia. These are the things that tell.

Next year we have the Presidential campaign, in which all Americans are deeply interested. Already the issues are being discussed and the two great parties are preparing for the first moves. You will not want to miss any details, and if you subscribe now your year's subscription will cover the campaign from beginning to end.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in its political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to affect its news columns, the Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political contests.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 136 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Clarksburg Weekly Telegram, together one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00. d-w-tf.

CHRONIC DIARRHŒA
Death Stared Victim in the Face, But Blood Wine Saved him.

Chronic Diarrhœa is a disease caused by germs which infect the bowels. Blood Wine does two things—it first ever destroys these germs, and it tones up and invigorates the whole system, restoring lost strength.

Read the experience of Wm. S. Bowie of Charlestown, Mass.:
"For a number of years I suffered with chronic diarrhœa. It sapped my strength and changed me from a strong, healthy man to a frail, puny fellow. I would gladly have given $500.00 for a cure. Physicians doctored me until I was almost sick of seeing them come. They did me no good. I grew worse and worse, until death stared me in the face. I was absolutely hopeless. With a great deal of prejudice I was one day talked into trying 'Blood Wine.' To my great surprise I found it helped me. I stuck to it regularly, following directions, and in time it cured me entirely. I cannot express my gratitude in the limits of a letter, but will say that I know it saved my life, and that I think it the greatest medicine in the world."

It is important that you read this letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Marsh, 22 Isabella St., Boston:
"I have been a horrible sufferer from dyspepsia for fifteen years. A lady told me of the wonderful cures of Blood Wine, and I decided to try it for better or worse. It is certainly a sure cure for dyspepsia, for I know no one ever suffered more than I. I cannot say enough in its favor. Through long suffering with dyspepsia I was greatly run down. I took my meals with difficulty, and nothing would digest without causing me pain. 'Blood Wine' was recommended to me, and I took four bottles. It cured me, and I am now entirely well."
