A Newspaper Worth Reading.
The Pittsburg Times is a conservative careful newspaper for particular people. Its statements of fact and comments on them are concise and correct. Its departments are in charge of experts, and its authority in all matters pertaining to the events of the world at large and of the community it represents more particularly is recognized. It has no Sunday edition, and its position in that regard in Pittsburg is as unique as its thorough reliability in every way. Staunchly Republican in political policy it yet gives all the news of all parties, its moral tone is high, and churchmen of every creed find in its columns more news of their interests and work than in all its cotemporaries combined. Sports are given the prominence they deserve and no more. The news concerning them is bright, timely and adequate, for the work is done by a master. Theaters in The Times as in no other paper have the truth told about them and the plays they offer. No business considerations ever interfere with the publication of criticisms that really criticize in this department, too, the work is done by a master. Society and the affairs of women find careful and complete exposition on the page devoted to them. Industrial matters are accorded the prominence they merit in a Pittsburg paper, while the stock market is given the attention that has brought the Times into the front rank of financial authorities. Above all The Times is a model not only of brevity of statement but of dignified simplicity in its typographical appearance. It offends neither the eye nor the sensibilities. Those things that are of importance are treated accordingly. Those that are unimportant are handled in keeping with their value. Each issue of The Times is a day's history of events the wide world round. Its price is one cent daily or $3.00 a year.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION.
At Rules held in the Circuit Clerk's office of Harrison County, West Virginia, on the first Monday of April, 1904.

The Glen Elk Hotel Company, a corporation, vs. Thomas C. Linger, in assumpsit.

The object of this suit is to recover of the said defendant, Thomas C. Linger, the sum of $119.80, with lawful interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum, from the 1st day of November, 1903, until paid, for a debt due from him to the said plaintiff, The Glen Elk Hotel Company for board, lodging, services, etc., rendered to Florence Whann.

And an affidavit having been made that the said defendant, Thomas C. Linger, is a non-resident of this State, the said defendant is required to appear, within one month after due publication of this order, in the Clerk's office of our said court, at rules, to be held therefor, and do what is necessary to protect his interests. And it is ordered that a copy of this order be forthwith published in some newspaper in the City of Clarksburg, Harrison County and State of West Virginia, for four successive weeks, and be posted at the front door of the court house of said county for a like period of time.

A copy. Teste:
H. W. WILLIAMS, Clerk.
J. E. Law, Council for Plaintiff.

MISS AGNES MULLEN.

The Only Woman Advertising Manager For a Railway.

Miss Agnes Mullen of Chicago, young and pretty, is the only woman advertising manager for a railway in the world. Miss Mullen knows how to advertise. She knows exactly what pleases her when she reads an advertisement, and she thinks other people will like the same things. She adopted that system when she became the only woman official of a big American railway, the Monon route. Miss Mullen says little. She isn't a talking woman. She is manager of the advertising department; that's all.

"Women with the postscript habit can't succeed in business, especially this business," says Miss Mullen. "I never wrote a postscript to a letter in my life. I say what I have to say and let it go at that. That applies to advertising. Cut out the postscripts. Let the printer do the rest. Then place the ads, right, and advertising pays—pays big."

Miss Mullen was born in Topeka, Kan., although she has lived in Chicago most of her life. She is petite and fair. In appearance she does not resemble an advertising expert, who can tell you just what returns she will get from the placing of an ad. In New Jersey or Michigan or the circulation of a score of papers. But she has a sturdy, businesslike way about her that makes one feel more respect for the business woman.

Miss Mullen's office is in the general office building of the Monon route in Custom House place. She reaches her desk early in the morning and dispatches her rapidly accumulating work with neatness and precision.

Miss Mullen lives with her parents. She has three sisters and two brothers. Her father is a retired railroad man.—Chicago American.

Barred Out.

"Could you not, if you tried, grant me a place in that icy heart of yours?"
"My heart may be of ice, as you say, Mr. Sophieigh, but, all the same, I am not in the cold storage business."

Makes a Clean Sweep.
There's nothing like doing a thin thoroughly. Of all the salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures burns, sores, bruises, cuts, boils, ulcers, skin eruptions and piles. It's only 25 cent and guaranteed to give satisfaction by F. G. Bland and Stone & Mercer, druggists.

All boots, shoes, rubbers, etc., must be sold at cost or less than cost at D. Hardman's shoe store. Call and get the benefit of this great sale. feb9-tf
