MOVING AND STORAGE
ARE DONE ON A MODERN PLAN AND WITH MODERN FACILITIES BY THE MOUNTAIN STATE TRANSFER & STORAGE CO.

The Service is Such That the Patronage is Rapidly Growing—New Incorporation, John Sopher Being General Manager and E. H. Saph the Superintendent.

A successful and rapidly increasing business is being transacted by the Mountain State Transfer & Storage Co. under its new management. The company's offices and ware rooms are located on East Pike street, near Oak street. A representative of the Telegram dropped into the offices of the concern while on his rounds to-day and was impressed with the methods used by the company in its transportation and storage and with the excellent facilities at hand.

The Mountain State Transfer & Storage Company is an incorporated company. The president is Mr. W. J. Walker, a prominent man of South Bend, Ind. Mr. John Sopher is the secretary treasurer and general manager of the company, an experienced and efficient gentleman in his line of business. He came to Clarksburg recently with his family from Washington, Pa. Mr. E. H. Saph, formerly one of the owners of the company when it was conducted under the firm name of Vigor & Saph, and later the West Virginia Storage & Transfer Company, is the superintendent of the storage department and of the transportation. He is able and efficient in that particular line of work as is demonstrated in the excellent manner in which the business under his supervision is executed. Many difficult moving contracts have been fulfilled by him with unusual promptness and carefulness. Mr. Saph's old patrons will be glad to learn that he has engaged himself in this line of work again in Clarksburg.

The transportation facilities of the company are ample and modern. With the large moving vans and the various specially built wagons and trucks now used by the company almost everything movable can be transported to any distance without fear of damage or breakage. The finest and most elegant household furniture as well as weighty and bulky articles can be moved without the slightest difficulty. The company makes a specialty of moving.

The commodious ware rooms are well arranged and finished. There are special floors and arrangements for the storage of freight and furniture. The utmost care is taken with stored goods as is evidenced by the many outspoken testimonials given by patrons of the establishment.

Under its present very efficient management the Mountain State Storage & Transfer Company is meeting with much success and the patronage is growing. 11.
