The primary election passed off quietly yesterday and every one seems satisfied with the result. The kickers, if there be any here, must have all stayed at home, for if they were out, they showed but little strength. The ticket as elected, will be supported by every good Republican and should be as it is certainly an exceedingly good one.
P. B. Cost, the hardware man, left Thursday night for Philadelphia on a business trip.
Mrs. Fleming Howell and daughter left Friday morning for Weston.
James N. Knox, of Shinnston, spent the day here circulating among friends.
Ernest L. Pigott, of Eagle district, spent Friday in the city talking politics.
Squire George H. Berry was here Friday from Wyatt.
M. L. Ribblett, of Lumberport, spent Friday in the city.
