ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING

Occurs at Industrial and Boy Receives the Bullet in His Arm—Taken to City Hospital.

Julien Caussain, aged 17 years, who was shot and seriously injured Friday at the Industrial Window Glass factory by a man named Jones, is in the City hospital, where the ball was located by the use of the X-Ray and removed. It is hoped that the left arm, which received the bullet may be saved. He is resting well. Jones was fooling with a revolver, when it was accidentally discharged, the ball entering Caussain's arm, just below the elbow, mangling the tissues of the wrist.

ENTERTAINMENT AT WEST MILFORD

The Epworth League and Methodist Episcopal Sunday school at West Milford will give an entertainment in the town hall there the evening of Saturday, May 28. There will be good music and refreshments will be served. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church. Admission 10 cents.

SMALL POX ABOUT ALL GONE.

The small pox situation at Salem is improving and it is believed in a few days the place will be entirely rid of it. Only two places are under quarantine now. One of them, Rev. Cox's, is outside of the town. The other is within the corporate limits.

MEETING PLACE CHANGED BY MODERN MACABEES

The Modern Macabees will hold their regular meeting Tuesday nights of each week hereafter in the Knights of Pythias building in Glen Elk, instead of Thursday nights at the Smith hall. The next regular meeting will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock in the new quarters.

DEATH OF YOUNG ITALIAN LABORER

John Ranzelli, an Italian laborer, died at the Harrison county hospital Saturday night. Typhoid-pneumonia caused his death. He was twenty-two years of age and single. The funeral was held from the undertaking parlors of the Clifford Osborn Company Sunday afternoon at four o'clock and burial was made in the Holy Cross cemetery.

FROST SUNDAY NIGHT.

The weather took one of its sudden changes Sunday and in the evening it was exceptionally cold for the middle of May. It caused a light frost Sunday night but it was not heavy enough to cause any damage to the fruit or vegetation. Monday opened up bright and fair and this touch of cold weather is expected to be the last we will experience this season.
