Their life is a continual worry in their efforts to avoid exposure to damp and malarious atmosphere. SETTING THE CLOCK FAST.

A Pleasant Sort of Deception Common to Many People.
It is a common thing to find the clocks in nine out of ten households either fifteen minutes or half an hour fast, and should you happen to be in a hurry or mention the fact that you have to be going you are at once reassured by the fact that you have no cause to hurry, as the clock is so much ahead of the time.

Has it ever occurred to you why clocks are usually put ahead? Some physicians have said it is due to laziness, for it is such a satisfaction to the lazy man to find when he has to get up at 7 in the morning and strains his half closed eyes to look at the clock that it is half an hour fast and he has so much more time to doze, with the result that he overleaps himself anyhow and misses his train or boat.

Said a watchmaker when asked about the subject:
"Yes, it is a peculiar thing with most people to put their clocks fast, and while there may be some satisfaction in it when it comes to dozing a little longer, there is really no advantage in it, for when you wake up, say, at 6 and glance at the clock and it registers half past 6, the fact remains that it is a half hour fast. While this may make you feel easier, knowing that you still have fifteen minutes to doze, I confess I don't see much advantage in it."

"Why not have the clock right? It is the same thing in the end."
"Suppose railroads were to put this into practice, how many trains do you think people would miss thereby? This putting clocks fast is really only a pleasant form of deception which people like to practice on themselves, but it does more harm than good."—New York Herald.

WEAK HEARTS
are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells, and pulls up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Sold by Stone & Mercer and Frank G. Bland.

CULINARY CONCEITS.
Pies will be soggy if set on top of a hot stove after being baked.
Thin sugar cookies if flavored with bitter almond make a good substitute for macarons.
Raisins for fruit cake are much improved by cooking. Let them soak slowly and then simmer until the skin is tender.
Should your soup be too salty add a sliced raw potato and cook a few moments longer, as the potato will absorb the surplus salt.
Soup is made into a most nourishing broth by adding about a teaspoonful of oatmeal to the pot. Any one of the many oatmeals may be used for this purpose.
The roughest beef or chicken can be made tender and palatable by putting a good spoonful of elder vinegar in the pot in which it is boiling or in the juice with which it is basted if roasting in a pan.
One Lady's Recommendation Sold Fifty Boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.
"I have, I believe, sold fifty boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets on the recommendation of one lady here, who first bought a box of them about a year ago. She never tires of telling her neighbors and friends about the good qualities of these Tablets."—P. M. Shore, Druggist, Rochester, Ind. The pleasant purgative effect of these Tablets makes them a favorite with ladies everywhere. For sale by Stone & Mercer.

His Greatest Sorrow.
Burt—I have no doubt you are sorry about your uncle's death, notwithstanding it brought you into a lot of money.
West—Yes; he was doing a good business, you know, and if he had lived a year or two longer he might have left me a good deal more.—Boston Transcript.

Only on the Outside.
"Why, Ethel, you don't mean to tell me you want to marry that baldheaded Professor Wiseman?"
"It is true he is bald," said Ethel, "but think how many young men of today are bald on the inside of their heads."

To please, one must make up his mind to be taught many things which he already knows, by people who do not know them.—Chamfort.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.
"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well, and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by Stone & Mercer.

Unique Advertising.
Some of the Japanese traditions in the smaller towns of Nippon have a curious way of advertising their business. On their right forearm the shoemaker has his tattoo figure—the shoemaker a shoe, the woodcutter an ax, the butcher a cleaver. Underneath these emblems are such inscriptions as "I do my work modestly and cheaply," or "I am as good as any trader as most of my fellows." When they are hunting work they bare their arms and walk about the streets.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.
The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fog into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c. per box. Sold by Stone & Mercer and Frank G. Bland.

A People Imitator.
Albert Vandam, a French writer gives this description of one of the leading republicans of Gambetta's time: "Bizon had a tendency to imitate the great Napoleon. He who had joined Lamartine in his vigorous protest against the removal of Napoleon's ashes from St. Helena to Paris struck Napoleonic attitudes at the camp of Conlie when reviewing the troops or the undisciplined, woebegone masses, standing knee deep in mud, who were supposed to represent troops. He tramped up and down the lines with his hands behind him, then came to a sudden stop and, nodding his head, whispered (he had no voice), 'Soldiers, I am pleased with you.'"

PILES UPON TOP OF PILES.
Piles upon top of piles of people have the Piles, and DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures them." There are many different kinds of Piles, but if you get the genuine and original Witch Hazel Salve made by C. E. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, a cure is certain. H. A. Tisdale, of Sumner, S. C., says: "I had piles 20 years and DeWitt's Salve cured me after everything else failed. Sold by Stone & Mercer and Frank G. Smith."

The Democratic House of Lords.
To think what time was wasted in arguing about the house of lords. Tories saying it ought to be preserved because it was clever and radicals saying it ought to be destroyed because it was stupid, and all the time no one saw that it was right because it was stupid, because the chance mob of ordinary men thrown there by accident of blood were a great democratic protest against the lower house, against the eternal insistence of the aristocracy of talents.—Chesterton's "Napoleon of Notting Hill."

NO PITY SHOWN.
"For years face was after me continue only," writes F. A. Gullege, Verbeia Ala. "I had a terrible case of Piles causing 24 tumors. When all failed Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. Equal ly good for Burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at Stone & Mercer and Frank G. Bland's Drug Stores."
