MISERLY OR STINGY.

Saving money does not mean that you are either miserly or stingy. It is your privilege to lay aside a reasonable portion of your income. But better results are obtained by adopting a system of regularity in your saving. The safest and surest way is to open and run a savings account with this bank. We pay 4 per cent interest on all such accounts.

Obituary of E. R. Price.

Died, July 23rd, 1904, at his residence in West Milford, W. Va., E. R. Price, in his 66th year, of acute Bright's disease. Mr. Price was born and reared near Worthington, Marion county, and more than thirty years ago he located in Greenville, Pa., where he was for many years in the mercantile business, in which he acquired considerable money, retiring from business several years ago, and returned to West Virginia, living for a time at Harrisville and at Belpre, Ohio, but his health failing last year, he removed to West Milford some months ago, and for some time he appeared to get better, but for a short time only, then rapidly sank, suffering greatly for six weeks.

He leaves a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Geo. W. Sturm, and two grandsons, Blaine and Harry Sturm, and numerous other relatives to mourn his departure.

He was buried by the Odd Fellows' Lodge, of which he was a member, in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at West Milford, Sunday evening, July 24.

Those attending from a distance were Mr. Judson Snodgrass, of Harrisville, Rev. Hall Snodgrass, of Parkersburg; Mrs. Thomas G. Meredith, of Grafton, and Mrs. Rebecca Bell, of Allegheny, City, Pa.

FILIPINOS CELEBRATE

At the World's Fair With Distinguished United States Army Officers Participating in Ceremonies.

By Associated Press.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 13—At the World's Fair today the full Manila representation celebrated. Among the distinguished persons present were: Secretary of War Taft, General Chaffee, General Merritt, Generals Funston, Charles King, Bell, Humphreys, Bates, Wheaton, Summers Smith and Metcalf.

Secretary of War Taft made an address on "The Needs of the Philippines." He said the present Philippine exhibit was worth many times its cost in making Americans and Filipinos acquainted with each other.

MARKSMEN SELECTED

From Campy K to Go to Camp Scott and Compete For the Gold Medal Offered By Senator Elkins.

The target practice held in Goodwin's Hollow Friday afternoon by Company K to select the best six men to go to Camp Scott at Huntington and contest in the competitive target shooting for the Elkins gold medal to be given to the best marksman in the West Virginia National Guards resulted in the selection of the following who made the scores set down by their names out of a possible fifty, each having (48 shots):

Alynn Bush, 38; Will Cross, 38; John Keller, 36; John Yates, 35; Henry Gannon, 34; Cleveland Arnold, 33.

The six men in command of Captain R. L. Osborn will leave on train No. 55 tonight for Camp Scott.

A Bride Next Time.

Patrick Peacock has returned from his annual visit to his old home in Leesburg, Va. Close friends say his next visit will be attended by an important event and that he will bring a bride home with him. It is expected that it will be of less than a semi-annual nature and not later than next Christmas.

Attended Sunday School Convention.

Rev. L. E. Peters returned Friday evening from Cedarville, Gilmer county, where he attended the Mt. Pisgah Baptist Sunday school convention and was one of the speakers. He was the guest of Captain Jack while there.
