SET YOUR ALARM CLOCK

FOR THE BIG CIRCUS IS COMING TO THE CITY AT AN EARLY HOUR TOMORROW MORNING.

FOREPAUGH SELLS BIG SHOW IS ON THE BILL, AND WILL EXHIBIT TWO TIMES.

Mammoth Aggregation of New Features, Positively Never Seen Before, Will Be Presented—Big and Best Circus Ever Seen Here.

Set the alarm clock for 4 a. m. tomorrow, and be sure to get up when the bell rings. If you turn over for a few more winks you are likely to miss the arrival of the circus and the interesting unloading scene. Circuses have a peculiar habit of arriving in town at unseemly hours. The one that comes tomorrow is probably no exception to the general rule. It is the big Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers show. It has not been in this city for several years, but is well remembered for the excellence of its performances then.

This year's advance announcements call it the "All Feature Show," and a series of preliminary proclamations and a glance at the pictorial posters bears out the statement. The majority of the big acts to be presented are novelties that will give the lie to the statement so often heard that "if you see one circus you see them all." A great many of the acts and performances have never before been seen in this country.
