THE DEMONSTRATION.

Patriotism and good cheer were everywhere to be seen here Wednesday night except at a few places where the political disappointment caused darkness and gloom. There were only a few such instances, we are glad to say, and the people generally enjoyed the big occasion, which is evidence of the fact that the people are satisfied with the results of the election and are glad of the opportunity to continue to live in a period of prosperity and plenty.

The very large turnout was evidence of the approval of the people of the county generally of the ballot box results and shows that the people are largely Republicans. It is a convincing evidence that far surpassing element which made pretensions of being of some magnitude has dwindled to nothing and is without influence or standing with the people. Treachery and party perfidy have been eradicated from the party and those who are guilty have been told to go to their own Democratic party, in view of what has happened, there is such a party today.

The demonstration participated in so universally and so enthusiastically, like the result at the polls, was an eye opener to all those who, for political effect, have indulged themselves in trades and slanders against the Republican organization. It proves beyond a doubt that the people give no credence to these slanders and have been awakened to the fact that there had been a well-laid plan to dupe them.

The parade was one long brilliant pageant, conducted in a most orderly way and was without a distressing or embarrassing incident. All seemed to greatly enjoy themselves, and the throngs who witnessed the marchers were highly elated with the spectacle and gave vent to their enthusiasm and patriotism in long loud outbursts of approval.

It was an occasion successful in every way and those who witnessed the Wheeling demonstration and ours say there is no comparison, the Clarksburg affair vastly outshining the Wheeling demonstration in every particular, and it was the sentiment of all that the demonstration did great credit to the city and county.

THE MAN WHO PAYS

In every newspaper we pick up we're sure to find a lot of goss about the man behind the counter and the man behind the gun; the man behind the buzz saw the man behind his son; the man behind the times and the man behind his pants; the man behind the plowshare and the man behind the fence; and the man behind the whisk and the man behind the bars; the man behind the kodak and the man behind the ears; the man behind his whiskers and the man behind his fists; and every thing behind has entered on his list. But they've skipped another fellow, of whom nothing has been said—the fellow who is even, or a little way ahead, who always pays for what he gets, whose bills are always squared—his a blame sight more important than the man who is behind. All we editors and merchants, and the whole commercial class are indebted for existence to this honest fellowman. He keeps us all in business, and his town is never dead and so we take our hat off to the man that is ahead.

CLEAN THE OPERA HOUSE

Ladies who attended the John Temple Graves lecture in the opera house are complaining of the filthy condition of the house and its dingy appearance. They were surprised to see such deep coats of dust and other evidences of indifference shown from the standpoint of cleanliness. There is positively no excuse for these complaints. Water is free, although so scarce, and plenty of persons can be gotten to give the opera house a good scrubbing and dusting. Some white paint would not be amiss and other minor things could be done to make the place neat, at least, whether inviting or not. The attention of those in charge of it is here respectfully called to the matter with the hope that speedy corrections will be made.

WE WILL HELP YOU.

The Democratic papers beg that the dead past bury its dead. Certainly there is no objection, but those papers should be consistent and set the example. Ever since the election they have kept up a tirade of abuse against the Republican party and some of the successful candidates especially as to the judgment of this county. They said all manner of things against the Republican candidates before the election and have made slurring and slanderous remarks since about the judge-elect. Practice now what you preach about the dead past burying its dead, and we assure you we will assist. Cheerfully will we help you and the public to forget the bitterness of your own making.

The ovation given United States Senator Scott on his visit here Wednesday night was in keeping with the high esteem in which he is held not only in Harrison county but also the state. Our people appreciate Senator Scott and no man in the state is in closer touch with the people than he is. It was a pleasure to come among those who had rolled up such a magnificent majority at the polls for the Republican party and Clarksburg felt honored by the presence of one of her leading statesmen.

It's all over now and the shouting it through with. Let us all get down to business and shoulder to shoulder push Clarksburg and Harrison county further to the front. Look now to the onward march and make the next five busiest we have ever experienced.

Editorial Sparks

Easily Figured.

The "anti-ring" element down at Clarksburg had the opportunity of its life to show its hand this time, and it did it. For instance, it was for Dawson, but against Lynch. Dawson had a majority of 1,200 in the county, while Lynch had 1,216. From these figures you may or may not be able to figure out the numerical strength of the "ants" in that county.—Weston Independent.

But He Will Return.

There is a suspicion that the Parkersburg firm, who has been quiet of late, has migrated to that coast town in Maine where an eighty-foot whale was blown ashore by the force of the gale Sunday night.—Wheeling Register.

Big Success at That.

Bryan may be trying to form a new party, though his most conspicuous success to date has been in wrecking an old one.—Pittsburg Gazette.

Where's the Money?

Cushman, the Democratic New York World's correspondent, says that Candidat Davis put 100,000 into the West Virginia campaign alone. Others also made contributions.—Weston Independent.

Assuredly.

One of the main troubles with the Democracy this year was a lack of issues.—Morgantown New Dominion.

What's the Use?

The Parker Democrats in Pennsylvania should hold a mass meeting in some school house centrally located and make a minority report.—Dayton Press.

But Not Always.

A soft answer often turneth away creditors for another week.—Youngstown Telegram.

The Bitter End.

Russia declares her purpose to pursue the Japanese war to the bitter end. If the end it any more bitter than the beginning Russia is entitled to the world's commiseration right now.—Pittsburg Times.

Case Already Covered.

At a recent meeting of the cabinet it was suggested jokingly to Secretary Hay that he make a reply to the charges of corruption made by Judge Parker in the closing hours of the campaign. The secretary in reply said that the case had already been covered by Solomon, and referred to Proverbs xxvii, 22. In order to save his colleagues the trouble of looking up their Bibles, Secretary Hay repeated the verse: "Though thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him."—Youngstown Telegram.

Worse Than a Puzzle.

One of the impending puzzles is to find out just what "Jeffersonian Democracy" is.—Pittsburg Times.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," writes Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains, no other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Stone & Mercer.

Help the Orphans.

All who desire to contribute to the box the King's Daughters will send to the Davis Saelter, at Charleston, a home for orphan children, will please leave the same with Mrs. S. K. Arbutnot at Goff parsonage. The box will be sent to the Saelter next Monday, 1:30.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to everyone that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old-fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25c bottle of them. For sale by Stone & Mercer.
