"SLAVES OF THE MINE"

Domestic Story of the Anthracite Coal Regions Will Be Presented at Grand Opera House.

"Slaves of the Mine" has entered upon its fourth successful season. Probably no venture has been received more enthusiastically by the press. It is a domestic story of the anthracite regions by C. E. Callahan who wrote "Foggy's Ferry," "Coon Hollow," etc., and Daniel

A DOMESTIC COMEDY

Of the Highest Rank is What "The Missouri Girl," Which Comes to the Traders Grand Opera House, Is Claimed To Be.

Dramatic critics unanimously agree that "The Missouri Girl" stands first among domestic comedies. The New York Telegraph pronounced it "one of the best written comedies ever seen in New York." The New York World calls

L. Hart, author of "The Parish Priest." The papers in Pittsburg, Providence, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago and other cities were a unit in its praise, and there was the same unanimity in the New York press when the play was produced at the Star theatre in that city. To quote all the good things were impossible. The Herald called it "as good as anything appearing here this season." The Times, "Two big audiences gave it the endorsement of unqualified enthusiasm." Journal (Alan Dale) (A strong play, interestingly worked out." World, "Admits of much fine scenery, which was taken full advantage of by the management."

It is a "good play," and adds that the production includes "an unusually clever lot of people." The Chicago Chronicle, as well as the News, Record-Herald and Tribune, strongly endorse the production. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat pronounced the company "exceedingly clever," the Times-Star of the same city says "play and company made a decided hit." The Toledo News was quite enthusiastic in its praise and says it is "a clean, wholesome, mirror-reflecting play, with a most Commercial Tribune pronounced the company "thoroughly competent. In Pittsburg, the Dispatch, Post and Times do not hesitate to endorse it. It is the same in smaller cities.

If newspaper praise is a criterion by which an attraction "The Missouri Girl" will surely be the comedy treat of the season. It comes to the Traders Grand Opera House soon.

A Natural Result.
It is very reasonable to suppose if the foundation of a structure was removed that the building itself is bound to come down. This same principle can be applied to disease. Take medicine into the system that will remove the cause of sickness, and illness will leave of itself. Dyspepsia, indigestion, sickness and biliousness have their foundation in stomach disorders. Remove this weakness and the other symptoms are no more. There is one cure for this that all druggists sell for 25c. It is the best and best candies made are Fenway's Chocolates. C. D. Sturm & Co.

"A Devil's Lane."

"A Devil's Lane" is what is known in common parlance as a "Good Show," of a high order. It sparkles with wit and humor. The comedy element predominates to such an extent as to call forth continuous laughter. Every person in the cast has been selected with particular care, and all artists are of recognized ability.
