Holiday goods gathered here are honeycombed with price reduction made insure a certain clearance during this final week of Christmas shopping

As a season wanes season lines are practically forced out—very frequently at a great sacrifice, hence the reduction on holiday goods—in the magnanimity of instances not detailed in our newspaper advertising.

At your service, the Fuel City's Christmas store with Christmas business throbbing through every corner of our store pushing its machinery to its topmost speed—testing critically every individual part of its intricate workings. Isn't it wonderful that everything goes so smoothly? Isn't it astonishing that you can't hear the rattle and clatter, the pushing and hauling here, there and around that are sure breeders of mistakes, and an-noyances and dissatisfaction—the heritage generally of those who let their Christmas shopping go until the eleventh hour.

Just two days now and these last days before Christmas go faster than any. You'll shop as early in the day as you can if you are wise.
