LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Santa Claus has appointed the editors of the Daily Telegram special agents for him from now till Christmas to receive all letters sent to him by girls and boys. The letters will be printed in the Daily Telegram and then put in a special mail bag and sent to Santa every night at midnight. There are so many letters that all can not be printed in one issue of the Telegram but they will appear in their turn. Address the letters to

SANTA CLAUS.

127 Iceland Avenue, Land of the Midnight Sun Care Telegram, Clarksburg, W. Va.

The following are some of the letters that have been received and sent on to Santa Claus:

Mr. Santa Claus:
Dear Sir—I have been a very good boy this winter and do lots of work and I understand you bring Christmas presents to good boys, so please send me the following. 3 lb. of chocolate candy, maybe I want a little more of some other kind; some torpedoes, 3 great big oranges, a handkerchief, 1 pair suspenders and anything else you may have on hand for I am a very good boy. Mr. Santa, oh, yes, I am worth my weight in gold. I will put a shoe box on the table for you to put the things in.
Yours respectfully,
John W. Harris.
Lost Creek, W. Va.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy 5 years old and I want you to bring me a pair of skates, red wagon, a horn, candy and nuts. Do not forget, if you cannot find me leave them at Theodore Reichart's barber shop.
From little Herman Lahaye.

P. S.—Bring my little friend, Clarence Jewett, a doll baby.

Dear Santa Claus:
I thought I would write you a few lines to tell you how I am getting along. I am in the third reader and I like to go to school. I want a air gun, a sword and a pair of skates and a drum, a train of cars. We are going to have turkey and cake and pie for dinner.
Yours truly,
Joseph Manoney.

Dear Santa:
Please Santa bring me a sled, skates, mittens, animals, cars and soldiers. That is all. Please don't forget me, Santa.
George William Albright.

Dear Santa Claus:
I will try and write you a few lines to let you know what we want for Christmas. Santa, I don't want very much so you won't be bothered in bringing them. I would like to have the Waldo hotel, an automobile, a diamond ring, a gold watch, the Mississippi river if it isn't too much trouble, full of water, and any thing else you want to bring. My little brother, Herbert, wants a wagon and a sled, any thing else you want to bring. George wants an overcoat, a pair of leggins, a pair of gloves. Harry wants a little pony and cart. My sister wants a pair of skates, nickel plated. Please bring papa a vacation of a week or more. Bring my little sister, Annie, a cry baby. Well Santa, I don't want to overload you so this is all I will write for. Oh, yes, and we want some fruit and candy and nuts, as you never fail to bring them. Well I will close hoping you will not fail to come to our house.
Tommie Jenkins.
128 Slaughter street, Broad Oaks.

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me a ring, a game, some handkerchiefs, a pair skates, some candy and fruit
Nellie Hursey.

Dear Santa Claus:
I would like to have a doll baby, a little coffee mill, pair mittens, doll carriage, pair shoes, hair ribbons, 2 picture books, pencil box, little slate and candy and lots of nuts. Goodbye Santa.
Eva Alma Higa.

Dear Santa Claus:
I want for Christmas a doll baby, and a doll bed, pair shoes, fur and a coat, pencil box, story book, a slate and candy and nuts. I am a little girl six years old.
Beulah Madge High.

Dear Santa:
I want a new coat and a cap and a new doll baby and a pair of over shoes No. 8 and a pair of skates and bring my little brother, Margon, a pair of shoes and some nuts and candy and send me a little water to wash my hands Christmas morning.
Your friend,
Is Reager.
1000 West Pike street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I want you to bring me a bad chest full o' ftools, a express wagon, a box of fire crackers, a knife, a little gun and some caps and a whole lots of candy. I will go to bed early and shut my eyes tight and not look. Now be sure and come.
Your truly,
Holly Blake Bartlett.
Quiet Dell, W. Va.

Dear Santa Claus,
I will tell you what I want this

Christmas. I want a doll that will lay down and go to sleep, and a carriage for my doll; some candy and nuts.
Lena Maxwell,
R. F. D. No. 1, Wilsonburg, W. Va.

Dear Santa Claus:
I think it is now time for me to tell you what I want Christmas. I want a drum and a horn and a fire wagon and plenty of candies and nuts. Age 8.
Eldridge Gentry.
468 Ben street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I saw in the Telegram where you wanted all the boys and girls to write and tell you what they wanted for Christmas. I would like to have a dot carriage and a story book if it is not asking too much.
From your little girl,
Bertha Mitchell.

P. S.—Please don't forget to come. I live in East Clarksburg at the tin plate mill.

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me a doll baby and a little stove and some candy and nuts. I will be a good girl. A kiss x.
Mary Drake.

P. S.—I live at the tin plate mill.

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me a doll baby and some nuts and candy.
Lovie Drake.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little 4 years old and would like for you to bring me something for Christmas. I would like to have a little drum and some candy and nuts. A kiss x.
Your little boy,
Tommy Drake.

Dear Old Santa Claus:
I am a little boy about 7 years old and I want you to bring me a sled, drum, horn, wagon, elephant, book, game, candies, nuts, oranges and all kind of fruits.
Madison Miles.
648 Mechanic street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I heard of you in the Telegram. I want you to bring me a dress, toboggan, doll, game, book, skates, gold watch, candies, nuts, oranges.
Marie Miles.

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me a tin horn, rattle, hobby horse, stick of chewing gum. Now please bring this, Santa, it is not much so don't forget.
Isaac Kelley.

Dear Santa:
I have a Xmas tree and heaps of pretty trimming on it. You must come and see it, and please bring me a pair of skates, double runner, horse, cow, elephant, stable and nigger baby. I won't ask for more, cause what my 2 year old brother wants will cost a lot.
Your boy,
Dick Doman.
124 Pike street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I will write you a few lines to let you know what I want. I want you to bring me a ring, doll bed, story and speech book, some candy, nuts and an orange and any thing else you have to bring me.
Your loving girl,
Rosalie Hall.

Dear Santa Claus:
I thought I would write you a letter to tell you what I want. I want a ring and a bed and a story book and a speech book and some candy and some nuts and an orange and any thing you have to bring me. I am going to bed at 7 o'clock.
Your little friend,
Ruth Hall.
Weston, W. Va.

Dear Santa Claus:
If you will bring me a sweetheart, that is all I want.
Yours truly,
Ira Alexander.

Dear Santa Claus:
I thought I would write to tell you what I want. First of all I want a Bible and doll carriage and a nice story book and a set of dishes and some candy and nuts. That is all I will ask for this time as there are so many other little girls and boys.
Gertrude Foreman.

Dear Santa Claus:
Will you please bring me a dolly, a set of little dishes, a little tin kitchen, a doll carriage and a pretty bright rattle, candy and nuts.
Yours truly,
Vira Wells.
West Main street.

P. S.—Dear Santa don't forget as I am only 16 years old and want some playthings. By by, dear Santa.

Dear Santa Claus:
I want you to bring me a pound of paint to paint the Captain's nose. And a gutter to sail my boat in and some oranges and nuts and stuff.
Yours truly,
Hans Katsjammer.
250 East Main street.

My Dear Santa Claus:
I want you to bring me a ball that when I throw it it won't break the looking glass and a whistle that when I blow it it won't make any noise and
