Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by Stone & Mercer.

The English Royal Plate.

The royal plate at Windsor is generally reckoned to be worth about £2,000,000, and it is no unusual thing at a state banquet at the castle to have plate to the value of £500,000 in the room. There are two state dinner services, one of gold and one of silver. The gold service was purchased by George IV, and will dine 120 persons. The plates alone of this service cost over £12,000. On state occasions there are usually placed on the dining table some very beautiful gold flagons captured from the Spanish armada, which are now of course of priceless value, while the great silver wine cooler, made by Rundell & Bridge for George IV, and weighing 7,000 ounces, always adorns one corner of the apartment. As sideboard ornaments there are pretty trifles in the way of a peacock of precious stones, valued at £50,000, and a tiger's head from India, with a solid mount of gold for its tongue and diamond teeth. This wonderful collection of plate is crown property, which practically means that it belongs to the country.

Execution of Louis XVI.

The crowd which surrounded the carriage closed around me, bore me along to the place of execution and placed me, so to speak, in front of the scaffold. I held the appalling spectacle. The crime had been hardly accomplished when a cry of "Vive la nation!" rose from the foot of the guillotine. It was repeated by the bystanders; it passed through the crowd. This cry was followed by silence most wonderful and most profound. Shame, horror and fear already hovered over the wide expanse. I passed over it a second time, carried along by the flood which had brought me hither. Every one walked slowly and scarcely ventured to look in his neighbor's face. The rest of the day was spent in deep stupor. It had spread over the whole city. I was obliged to go out twice and found the streets deserted and silent. The assassins had lost their wonted daring. The public grief made itself felt, and they called before it—Members of Chancellor Pasquier.

Talents and Confidence.

A single talent man, supported by great self confidence, will achieve more than a ten talent man who does not believe in himself. The mind cannot act with vigor in the presence of doubt. A wavering mind makes a wavering execution. There must be certainty, confidence and assurance or there can be no efficiency. An uneducated man who believes in himself and who has faith that he can do the thing he undertakes often puts to shame the average college bred man, whose over-culture and wider outlook have sometimes bred increased sensitiveness and a lessening of self confidence, whose decision has been weakened by constant weighing of conflicting theories and whose prejudices are always open to conviction.—Success.
