SODA FOUNTAINS TO BE OVERHAULED BY STATE FOOD COMMISSION.

Soda fountains of the insanitary kind are likely to be overhauled by the State Food Commission. The legislature will be asked to clothe the Commissioner with authority to condemn all fountains not possessing sanitary syrup receptacles and other parts hidden from the public gaze.

It is the decided opinion of many druggists and other soda fountain operators that the ice chamber should be entirely separated from syrups, which should be stored "IN GLASS BOTTLES IN PLAIN VIEW OF CUSTOMERS."

FANCY HORSES

BURNED TO DEATH

By Associated Press.
Butler, Pa., Aug. 23—Fifteen stables and five blooded horses were burned at Butler fair grounds today. The horses were the property of Trainer Demarest, of Kingston, Ky. They were all fancy trick animals and very valuable.

Dancing at the Park

The dance at the park last night given by the Opera House orchestra was another big success, thirty couples participating. The floor was in excellent condition and the music unusually good. The next big ball will be Thursday night and will be designated as Spanish night. It will do doubt prove as popular as the French and German nights have done. Prof. Emil Walters is already coaching a large class in how to walk Spanish.

Many Racers For Fair

Frank R. Moore, chairman of the speed committee for the fair returned Wednesday morning from the Belington fair. He arranged there for a big bunch of racers to come here for the Clarksburg fair, and announces that there will be plenty of fine races this year, the entries thus far having exceeded his most sanguine expectations.

Funeral of Miss Kerrigan

The remains of Miss Gertrude Kerrigan, of Camden, W. Va., who died yesterday in a local hospital of acute nephritis, were sent yesterday to her late home. The body was accompanied by brothers and sisters and near relatives. The funeral will take place tomorrow in the Leading Creek cemetery five miles from Camden.

Examination

The third and last examination for teachers, under the uniform system this year, will be held at Clarksburg, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 15 and 16, 1905, beginning promptly at 7 o'clock a. m. on dates mentioned.
