PRETTY WEDDING AT PARSONAGE

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, the happy contracting parties being Mr. John Marlen Riggs, of this city, and Miss Ma May Anderson, formerly of Morgantown. Rev. R. B. McDanel, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated in an impressive and very pleasing manner in the presence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Bell, and Mr. M. White, a friend of the contracting parties. The wedding comes as a complete and happy surprise to the many friends of the young couple, only a few having been aware of their intention. The bride was charmingly attired in a white creation and the groom wore a dark suit. Mr. Riggs is a son of Mrs. Mollie Riggs and a machinist at Hart Brothers' machine shop. He is skilled in his trade and enjoys the highest respect of his employers because of his proficiency and trustworthiness. He is popular among many friends and a very worthy young man. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, of Morgantown, but has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bell, here the past two months. She is a beautiful, attractive young lady, whose charms and lovely disposition surround her with a host of warm friends. The Telegram joins with their many friends in wishing them unbounded connubial bliss and a long and prosperous life.

HIGH STEPPER WAS A VICTIM

Bernie McClure's fake foot race joke that worked so successfully at the Wheeling fair recently got a "butt in" victim here Thursday night, notwithstanding the fact that the experience Deputy Sheriff Currendall had along the same line in Wheeling had been herald far and wide. A number of gentlemen in animated conversation attracted a professional man in Glen Elk Thursday night and he bit readily, and thus crowned with success and effort of theirs all the early part of the night to get a victim. He stepped within the five yards and stepped still better and higher the distance beyond until he was lost to sight, and suddenly he turned around to discover himself alone. A feeling came over him that made him go in quest of those who had played the prank, but he never did find some of them, and the others were so exhausted from laughter that he took compassion on them and joined them in the laugh.

OLD HOMESTEAD VERY FINE ENTERTAINMENT

A representative audience of Clarksburg's best people were drawn to the Goff Methodist Episcopal church last night to be entertained by S. J. Bennett's famous Old Homestead Male Quartette. This attraction was the first of a series of three extraordinary features that make up the Goff Epworth League Fall Entertainment Course. The artists making up the quartette were "all stars" and acquitted themselves with rare proficiency and earned and received the generous applause of the large audience time and again during the rendition of their excellent program. The personnel of the quartette is Mr. S. J. Bennett, manager and first tenor; Mr. J. A. Spouse, second tenor; Mr. H. A. Eddy, baritone and Mr. A. J. Lawson, basso.

The opening number, "Sunset," by Van de Water, at once created a most favorable impression by the chaste selection and the beautiful manner in which it was sung by the quartette. The audience showed its pleasure by vigorous applause which was only appeased by an encore. Mr. A. F. Lawson feec the trying ordeal of appearing as the first soloist. His deeply cultivated, rich voice was given full range in his selection "The Salt of the Sea," a bass solo by Penn, which seemed to have been almost written especially for Mr. Lawson, so admirably did it fit into the style, manner and expression of the singer.

"The Old Kentucky Home," a universal favorite was sung by the quartette with a new beauty and pathos that endeared it more than ever to the hearers. The first tenor, Mr. S. J. Bennett, showed a remarkable ability in his ease with which he reached the high bird-like notes in his solo written by Carl Bohm entitled "Still Wie Die Nacht." Mr. Bennett's interpretation of expression certainly if of the highest order.

"Annie Laurie," as arranged by Dudley Buck, was enthusiastically received and the quartette was called back before the pleased audience for an encore. Mr. H. A. Eddy proved not only to be an excellent baritone singer, but a skilled violinist. All enjoyed his performance upon the violin of the "Gipsy Dance," by Henri Ernst. Once more the quartette sang a selection arranged by Dudley Buck, "When the Corn is Waving," with great acceptability and Mr. J. A. Spouse, the second tenor, quite captivated the audience by his artistic and pleasing manner in which he sang a humorous selection, "Lucky Jim." Mr. Spouse is a young singer of great promise and will be heard from in high places in the musical world.

By special request the quartette sang the song that made them famous "The Old Oaken Bucket," and J. A. Vogel's "Waltz Song" also by the quartette, brought this highly appreciated entertainment to a close. All who attended were delighted with this excellent entertainment.

BRITISH GOODS ARE BOYCOTTED

By Associated Press. Calcutta, Sept. 29.—As a protest against the partition of the Province of Bengal, fully fifty thousand Bengalis assembled at Kalighat Temple, have sworn to boycott British goods. According to the home and Indian governments' administrative work, the province had grown to such unwieldy proportions as to necessitate a division, hence a partition of the province into two lieutenant governorships. The Bengalis characterize this as an attempt to split the population and impair the Bengal nationality. Foreign firms already feel the effect of the boycott.

OIL QUOTED AT $1.51 A BARREL

The oil market opened today with the price of Pennsylvania and West Virginia grades at $1.51 a barrel. The entire market is up and it is the first general advance in quite a time. While the larger companies seem to regard the advance as a more or less matter of course there is quite a little interest among the small operators. However, there does not seem to be any tendencies towards a spectacular rush to the field and the beginning of extensive wildcatting operations. The advance has not affected the pipe line companies and is not expected to make any marked change for the present. However, the prediction of oil operators is to the effect that the advance will continue till spring and at the time there will be quite a demand for oil well machinery and supplies.
