David Cassia was fined $5 and costs and in default of payment sent to jail for five days. Ed Thomas for being drunk and disorderly was assessed $8 and costs and in default sent to prison for a week and a day. J. B. Chorpensing paid a fine of $3 and costs for drunkenness and was released.

SCORES AT CLAY PIGEON SHOOT

The scores made at the clay pigeon shoot held beyond Union park late Friday afternoon by Dr. Hill, C. L. Hickman and Barlow W. H. Cole were as follows: Dr. Hill, 21 out of a possible 25; Hickman, 17 out of 25, and Cole, 14 out of 25. A southeastern wind of some considerable velocity was blowing thus seriously handicapping the shooting but considering the impediment the scores were declared to be good. Another shoot will be held next week for practice.

AMUSEMENTS

HOWE'S MOVING PICTURES.
A packed house saw Lyman H. Howe's exhibit of moving pictures at the Grand last night, says this morning's Chronicle, of Morgantown. The pictures were very realistic, and one imagined himself at the places depicted. From the first picture to the last, Good Night, the audience was well entertained. The Henley regatta, ski jumping in Switzerland, India jungle scenes, royal marriage fete at Madrid, were all true to life and instructive. Enough scenes of a funny order were given to keep the small boy and the old one as well in roars of laughter. Too much cannot be said of Howe's exhibition and if you want to spend an instructive, amusing and entertaining evening see them when he returns. Managed Christy brings him back again soon.
Howe's pictures will be at the New Grand in this city tonight.

MRS. TEMPLE'S TELEGRAM.
When a play is capable of provoking an almost constant ripple of laughter, which at frequent and unexpected intervals breaks out into uncontrollable guffaws that make the very rafters ring, there is but one verdict for the reporter on dramatic affairs to render, and that one is self-evident. Such a play in its own peculiar field is great. That is just what "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" will do at the Grand opera house next Wednesday.
"A RAGGED HERO."
The scenic and mechanical effects of "A Ragged Hero," which will be seen here for the first time at the Grand on Oct. 16, are the result of many years of careful study by artists and mechanics.
At the Odeon
"Dislocation" and "The Paymaster" are very fine pictures. "The Paymaster" tells a beautiful story and has a very highly colored moon light effect that will please all. This is the last day for this picture and it should not be missed.
Call for the Clarksburg Star 5c Cigar; union made.
Messrs. Slayton & Bryan take charge of the Clarksburg Steam Laundry Monday and will have it open that morning for business as usual.
Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Groves leave this evening on No. 12 for a visit of several weeks to friends and relatives in Bethlehem, Pa.
SWEET MELODY FLOUR.

Social Glutton Takes a Back Seat

The Marcato Club will hold its first regular meeting the first Saturday in November. The season will open with an interesting miscellaneous program. The officers elected for the year are: Mrs. Percy Goff, president; Miss Acheson, vice president; Miss Cora Smith, secretary; Mrs. Gazley, treasurer. The program committee consists of the following: Mrs. Estill, Mrs. E. S. Wallis and Mrs. Haymaker. It is the intention of the club to give a number of musical entertainments during the season. The first will be "Dr. Syntax," a comic opera, by home talent, which will be given the latter part of November. The leading parts have been assigned and rehearsals will begin at an early date. The fact that this opera is under the direction of Mr. John Saunders, of New York, insures its success. The committee on arrangement are Mrs. Gazley, Miss Frost and Miss Smith.

Before adjourning Saturday afternoon the State Federation of Woman's Clubs elected the following officers: President, Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Parkersburg; secretary, Mrs. Guy R. C. Allen, Wheeling; reading and statistical secretary, Mrs. C. J. Proudfoot, Parkersburg; treasurer, Mrs. A. C. Jackson, Sistersville, and auditor, Mrs. Ida Armstrong. The State Federation came to a close Saturday evening after three days of very interesting sessions. The attendance, unfortunately, was not large, the only cities being represented were Wheeling, Huntington, Parkersburg and Sistersville.

Mrs. R. G. Altizer delightfully entertained a party of a dozen at her hospitable home from 3 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon in honor of her guests, the Misses Altizer, who are here on their way from Virginia to Texas to spend the winter. Light refreshments were served. The occasion was one of real pleasure and enjoyment.

The Tuesday Club desires to call the attention of the public to the article in McClure's Magazine for October on "Ben B. Lindsay, The Just Judge," who established the Juvenile Court in Denver, Colorado. The October number of the Ladies' Home Journal contains an article of interest by Judge Lindsay entitled "My Experience With Boys." All who are interested in the welfare of children will be glad to know that the Tuesday Club has arranged to have Judge Lindsay lecture in Clarksburg on Tuesday, Dec. 4.

Mrs. Rose Rothschild, of 4477 Washington Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Hazel, to Mr. Simie Nusbaum, of Clarksburg. The nuptial pledges will be exchanged in the near future. The announcement is of interest to the innumerable friends of Mr. Nusbaum, who is one of the leading young business men of the city.

Announcements handsomely printed have been issued as follows:
Howard M. Gore
Roxie Bailey
Married
Sunday, September thirtieth
nineteen hundred and six
Simpson, W. Va.
At Home after June first, 1907.
Clarksburg, W. Va.

At the Walker House Friday evening at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Lewis E. Peters spoke the words that united in marriage Miss Amy A. Sprouse and Mr. George L. Small, both of this county.

Fifteen couples were in attendance at the dancing party given in the Elkbridge dancing hall Friday evening by the Young Peoples' Social Club. The occasion was fraught with much pleasure and the guests are looking forward to another similar one. Prof. Walters' orchestra furnished the music for the affair.

Death of a Child
Frank Rahona, nine-days-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rahona, of Ocean Mines, died Friday of cholera infantum and the body was laid to rest in the Holy Cross cemetery in this city Saturday afternoon.

Most people have read about the glutton but there are few who believe it, and yet if the skeptical had been at the Manhattan cafe Friday night at 9 o'clock they would have been fully convinced of the truth of that story as well as the one here told.
A stranger went into the cafe and announced that he was somewhat hungry. Then he ordered steak, bread and butter and coffee, which were duly served him, but this did not satisfy his appetite and after finishing that full course, he proceeded to ravenously get away with twelve fried oysters with the trimmings and another cup of coffee. Still his hunger was not appeased and he proceeded to devour two cans of Boston baked beans and more bread, butter and coffee. Following this he ate two cans of schrimps and then wanted chicken, but there was none on hand.
After having devoured all the store of foodstuffs the genial proprietor had on hand, he walked half-satisfied to the Traders hotel, where he consoled himself in his disappointment over not rounding up his meal with a good-sized spring chicken, by indulging himself in one of Dell Fuller's yard-stock seed stogies, which appeared to bring him full contentment with life.

Laying Walk On Monticello
Superintendent of Streets and Alleys Edward J. Doyle today started a force of men on the work of laying a brick sidewalk along the eastern side of Monticello avenue from Thompson street to Main street, a walk that has been sorely needed for a long time. ## The Time for Buying Furs Women's, Misses' and Children's

THE very best time for discussing Furs, especially Fur Coats, is now, when lines are new and entirely complete. Very few women will buy a fur coat without personal inspection of the different styles. But if there are women who read this paper and who cannot come to this city for the express purpose of buying a fine coat we would be very much pleased to send your size and style on approval.

For the small furs, as Scarfs, Boas and Muffs, you can buy them just as satisfactorily through the mail, or phone, as if you were here in person.

And let us say, we stand back of every fur piece we sell.
