

Are You In Line?

Are you getting the benefit of the values we are able to bring to you through our system of buying our cigars together with 2,000 other druggists? As an example of the power of these advanced methods we call your attention to the

Black and White

CIGAR—5c

It's precisely the type of cigar that pleases nine-tenths of the American smokers. It is by long odds our largest seller.

This mild, mellow, popular blend of high-grade, imported Havana filler and prime Sumatra wrapper could not possibly be delivered to you by the ordinary cigar dealer, buying individually, at less than 8 for 25c. It's a representative 10c-cigar everywhere but in National Cigar Stands.

The best cigars are now sold in the 2,000 Drug Stores having the National Cigar Stands Emblem in the window.

How to Enjoy the Circus.
There ain't much pleasure in this life for men as old as me—that is, a feller thinks they ain't when he is sixty-three. O' course, he likes to smoke his pipe an' set around an' gas an' argue with the boys to git his leisure time to pass. A man who's gettin' long in years—too weak to hoe or plow, or pleasure of the good old kind—has small chance anyhow. But there's one thing I like to do—one thing I sure enjoy—it's goin' to a circus with some big-eyed small boy. I always like to have it be the first show he's been to. I like to watch those big eyes snap. Oh, snap they always do. I like to see him smile an' clap an' crane his neck around an' see him eat in' peanuts, throwin' shells down on the ground. It don't seem very long ago that I was eight or nine, nor long since the first show I saw seemed simply grand—d'you see. I member how I set up there jest in a fit of joy. You see, I know the feelin' that comes to the big-eyed boy. I don't care much for circuses like once I used to care. But, friend, I get my pleasure takin' little fellers there. An' while I set enjoyin' it—I mean that kid's real joy—I almost cry to think that I can't be once more a boy.—Denver Post.

A Ready Helper.
"Maria is a well-meaning soul, now, isn't she?" said one of Maria's much tried relatives to another. "She has a real helpful spirit."
"That she has," returned the other sufferer heartily. "I suppose Maria has done more to get tickets for people who didn't want them to go to places they couldn't abide, sold more articles to people who couldn't use them, assisted more people over crossings who were boiling with rage because they preferred to go alone or with the policeman, helped more kinswomen to make up their minds in the exactly opposite way from the one they wished and told more strangers in the city things they already knew than any other woman in Christendom."
"But if you told her the braid was ripped off the bottom of her skirt she wouldn't really like it," said the first speaker.

"No; I've noticed that these ready helpers never get suggestions themselves. Curious, isn't it?"
Maria's luckless relatives sighed in concert.—Youth's Companion.

SWEET MELODY FLOUR.

Ristori's Too Grateful Soldier.
During Ristori's first engagement at Madrid an elderly woman one night gained access to her dressing room and tearfully begged her intervention on behalf of her son, a young soldier condemned to death for a serious breach of discipline. At the close of the performance Ristori was presented to Queen Isabella, made the required appeal and obtained the young man's free pardon, perhaps because it gave to the queen the opportunity of a note—that she was certain the actress had never before played in a tragedy with such a happy ending. Some years later Ristori again visited Madrid. During the first performance a soldier among the audience made a disturbance, was ejected only after severely damaging a number of policemen and was subsequently sentenced to a long term of imprisonment. He proved to be Ristori's former protegee, who, hearing of her return, had come to the theater in order to renew his expression of gratitude. Unfortunately he had drunk her health too enthusiastically beforehand, with the result that he finally owed her not only his life, but free board and lodging for several years into the bargain.—London Truth.

SWEET MELODY FLOUR. COMMISSIONER'S SALE.
By virtue of the authority vested in the undersigned special commissioner by a decree of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, made on the 26th day of September, 1906, and entered in Chancery Order Book 28 at page 206, in the chancery cause of the Brown-Forman Company vs. John T. Dulin, I will on Saturday, December 15, 1906, at one o'clock p. m., at the front door of the court house on said county, sell at public outcry to the highest and best bidder a certain lot or parcel of land situate in Northview said county and state, and being Lot No. 19 in Section No. 19 as laid down and described on a plat of said addition, which plat is of record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of said county, in Deed Book No. 99 at page 86, being the same lot which was conveyed to the said John T. Dulin by Ottilie L. G. Henderson and husband by deed dated February 4, 1899, and of record in Deed Book 106 at page 358.
TERMS OF SALE—Cash in hand.
CLARENCE B. SPERRY, Special Commissioner, State of West Virginia, County of Harrison, to-wit: I, Homer W. Williams, Clerk of the Circuit Court of said County, do certify that Clarence B. Sperry, the above named special commissioner, has given bond before me as required by the decree in said cause, conditioned according to law.
Given under my hand this the 19th day of November, 1906.

ONE OF THE MOST ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS OF SUCCESS

THRIFT

Is one of the most essential elements of success—yet most wretchedly disregarded. The old adage—"Wifful waste makes woeful want."—never was more fully exemplified than in these days, when much of the want that prevails would not exist had care been taken in time of prosperity, to lay up something for a 'rainy day.'

NOTICE OF JUDICIAL SALE.

Pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, made and entered on the 18th day of October, 1906, in the Chancery cause of the State of West Virginia, plaintiff, against Albert Miles and others, defendants, I will on SATURDAY, DEC. 8, 1906, at the front door of the Court House of Harrison County, West Virginia, at one o'clock P. M., of that day offer for sale to the highest and best bidder, the following real estate:

All that certain lot of land and large two-story frame dwelling house thereon, which said lot is situate in what is known as the Hoff and Boughner Addition to the City of Clarksburg, and being Lot No. 16 of the plat of said addition as recorded in Deed Book No. 63 at page 290, lying and being in Harrison County, West Virginia, in Clark District, situate at 367 West Mechanic street, Clarksburg, and being the same lot which was conveyed to Albert Miles by Daniel Boughner by deed dated April 6, 1901, and of record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, in Deed Book No. 122, at page 65; and which said lot fronts 50 feet on the south side of said West Mechanic street, running back from said street about 75 feet.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash in hand on day of sale, and the residue upon a credit of six and twelve months from the date of sale, taking from the purchaser interest-bearing notes with approved security, and retaining a vendor's lien on the property as further security for the deferred payments.

WILL E. MORRIS, Special Commissioner, I, Homer W. Williams, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, hereby certify that bond with security approved by me as sufficient and in the penalty provided by said decree has been given by said special commissioner.
