STRONG Again

It is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Milton, Ga., said after taking Kodol for Dyspepsia. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol For Dyspepsia

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol relieves indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

Digests What You Eat
Relieves indigestion, sour risings, belching, heartburn, etc. Prepared at the Laboratory of L. D. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

SOLD BY STONE & MERCER.

Drawing a Tooth.
An elephant had a painful toothache the agony of which caused her to nearly destroy her caravan. She was thrown on her side and roped to stakes. Two men held a pair of ice tongs fast "round" the aching tooth, and a couple of dray horses attached to the tongs by a rope did the rest. The tooth was sixteen inches long by three inches across.

His Complaint.
Inkwriter—What became of that queer patient you were telling me about last spring? Dr. Price—Oh, he's got a complaint now that's giving me a great deal of trouble. Inkwriter—Inj deed! What is it? Dr. Price—Why, a complaint about the amount of my bill.

Saving Time.
"You shouldn't treat your boy so harshly. You'll break his spirit!"
"Well, he'll probably get married some time, and he might as well have it broken now!"

The more violent the storm the sooner it is over.—Seneca.

Cocaine, the ideal medicine for the little ones. Contains no opiates. Conforms fully with National Pure Food and Drug Law. Write E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., for the "Baby Book." Sold by Stone & Mercer.

Lavish.
"Let us have some dinner on the veranda," said a nervous young gentleman during the first stage of his honeymoon.
"Certainly, sir," said the waiter politely. "Table d'hotel or a la carte, sir?"
"E—well," said the young Benedict, who was anxious to impress his wife with his lavish expenditure, "bring us some of both, please!"

Metallic Sympathy.
On the death of the Duke of Wellington the bells of Trim, near Dangan castle, his father's seat in Ireland, for which when a young man Wellington had sat in the Irish parliament, rang a muffled peal, when the tenor, a beautifully toned bell, suddenly broke. It was found by a curious coincidence to have been cast in 1769, the year of the duke's birth.

SWEET MELODY FLOUR.
Reprint, News-Herald: "There is at least one effectual, safe, and reliable cough cure—Dr. Shoop's—that we regard suitable, even for the roughest child. For years, Dr. Shoop bitterly opposed the use of opiates or narcotics in medicine, offering $10 per drop to any one finding opium, chloroform, or any other poisonous or narcotic ingredient in Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And the challenge is yet unanswered. Here is one manufacturing physician, who welcomed with much satisfaction the new Government Pure Food and Drug Law. The public can now protect itself at all times, by insisting on having Dr. Shoop's, when a cough remedy is needed." Sold by all dealers.

Wonderful Monastery.
At Solovetsk, in the Russian government of Archangel, is the most remarkable monastery in the world. The monastery of Solovetsk is inclosed on every side by a wall of granite bowlders which measures nearly a mile in circumference. The monastery itself is very strongly fortified, being supported by round and square towers about thirty feet in height, with walls twenty feet in thickness. The monastery consists in reality of six churches, which are completely filled with statues of all kinds and precious stones. Upon the walls and the towers surrounding these churches are mounted huge guns, which in the time of the Crimean war were directed against the British White sea squadron.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills quickly drive the poisons from the system and thus afford relief. A week's treatment for 25c. Sold by Stone & Mercer.

ODD FOUNDATION

A Tavern Built on an Immense Bank of Oyster Shells.
The secondary foundation of Chesapeake Bay, and between the bottom of Crisfield and the bottom of the bay are oyster shells to the number of millions. On this great stratum of oyster shells stand houses, wharfs and business places. A railroad runs along on it. Bridges cross its dividing places, men walk and talk and do business, steamboats and sailboats—yes, hundreds of sailboats—have their landings alongside it; merry boating parties put off from the shore by moonlight and fish and crab and turn in the early morn—no! to this great bank of oyster shells sink in the blue water.
Crisfield lites by oysters and crabs—not by eating them, for Crisfielders rarely eat either, but by catching them, boiling them, packing them, shipping them, selling them. He who would know the crab can best learn it by visiting this wholly and solely crab town on the Chesapeake. Men in boats towed by all barrels with crabs and bring them ashore to the "factories." Here they are counted, sorted, steamed, packed in barrels and shipped until one mountain and myriads of crabs. There are many people in this country. A crab specks for them all once a year in the season "would mean some crabs." At least so one of the crab dealers put it.—Philadelphia Record.

MUSKRAT BUILDERS.

The House in the Meadow and How It is Constructed.
I have always been told that muskrat houses were a cover for winter. Instead of a sign of cold weather, the muskrat house means simply that one or more muskrats have chosen to live in the low meadow or at the shallow head of the pond, where there is no chance to burrow underground and have a bedroom that cannot be flooded by the high tides of winter.
These same muskrats, along the steep banks of a river, would tunnel into the earth and there dig a bedroom out of mud at the highest flood. They do not always succeed, however, as they are often washed out of their winter beds by spring freshets.
The house in the meadow is usually built over a tall, stout tussock, whose grassy top forms the bed. This is domed over, making a large room big enough for one or for half a dozen, according to the number of muskrats sharing the work. At least two openings diverge from the bed into open water at the foot of the tussock. And this water never freezes. When ice forms outside, the warmth of the muskrats' bodies is sufficient to keep the doors free, through which the dwellers shoot at instant alarm, for these passages lead into winding burrows and waterways that run far out through the rich, rosy meadow.—Country Life in America.

Parliament.
The name "parliament" is derived from the French word "parler," to speak. The word was originally written "parlement," as in French, and, although the spelling has gradually changed, the pronunciation remains the same. The earliest mention of the word "parliament" in the English statutes is in the preamble to the statute of Westminster in 1272. For the origin of the institution itself we must go back to Anglo-Saxon times, when it flourished as the witenagemot. In the reign of Henry III, parliament was formally separated into the two houses of lords and commons, and the deliberations were conducted in separate chambers.

Hindoo Moon Lore.
According to the Hindoos, a lunar eclipse is the contact between the moon and another planet called Raboo, but the masses believe that, owing to the will of God, Raboo, or the serpent-like planet, catches hold of the moon by its hideous mouth and releases it after a short time. At first contact the Hindoos bathe in the sea and anxiously await the release. After the contact they take another bath. During the interval they are not allowed even to drink a cup of water, as their belief is that all things in the world get polluted during the contact.—Singapore Times.

Bells and the Koran.
It is said in the Koran that beautiful bells are hung upon the trees of paradise in such a way as to be stirred by wind from the golden throne of God whenever the blessed ones in his presence wish for music. It is to this that the author of "Ballal Book" refers in the lines:
Bells as music!
As those that on the golden shafted tree,
Of Eden, shook by the eternal breeze.

Matches.
"Who are those young people in that box?" asked the man in the parquet.
"There's Elsie Hingore and her fiancé, and Maudie Rich and hers, and Belle Browne and hers. They're all to be married next month."
"Indeed! Quite a box of matches, eh?"—Philadelphia Press.

A Vegetable Feast.
Boy—Ma, I thought you said the Specks were vegetarians. Ma—So I did; they are. Boy—Well, I heard Mr. Specks tell pop that when he got home late the other night Mrs. Specks had a roast waiting for him.
Not in His Line.
Lawyer—You should learn shorthand and typewriting, Billy.
"The office boy—'Aw g'wan! I never cared for flowers an' candy!"—Puck.

If you like coffee but dare not drink it, try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. It is true that real coffee does disturb the stomach, heart and kidneys. But Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee has not a grain of true coffee in it. Being made from parched grains, malt, etc., it forms a wholesome, food-like drink, yet having the true flavor of Old Java and Mocha coffee. "Made in a minute." Call at our store for a free sample. ## Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.
