Holiday Clearance Sale

We are determined to clear every woman's suit, coat, skirt, waist, in fact every article ready to wear for men, women and children. It has been our custom to defer this sale until the holidays are over, but this year we desire to give our patrons the benefit of these great price concessions earlier. Don't delay. Come this week and buy what you need. We have added in this sale a number of useful articles for Xmas presents.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl six years old and I want a big go. cart, a little doll that wears a green dress and jacket and a story book and some candy and nuts.
Grace Patton,
329 Wilson St.

Dear Santa Claus—Bring me a train on a track, a sled and a ball and bring Ruth a doll for a broke hers, but I didn't mean to. From your little boy,
Sam Gordon, Jr.,
118 Bridge St.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy seven years old and I go to school and like my teacher very much. I would like for you to bring me a pencil and tablet and a postal card album, a nice story book and some candy and nuts and any thing that would be nice for a little boy. I will thank you many times.
From your little boy,
Dennis Bates.

Dear Santa Claus—I am in Keyser at my Grandma Karskadon's, but I will be in Clarksburg for Christmas at my mama Glancy's, 150 West Pike street. I will not ask for very much for my little brother Thomas wants to be a pig and wants too much, a hushel of taffy, a big auto to ride in and a telephone, a T. bear and a B. goat, ball and high rubber boots and ice cream toys. Now I want a big doll and doll bed and a pair of kid gloves and a muff, a doll trunk, stove, dishes and furniture and gandy and nuts, a book and I know you can read my letter for I tried to write it plain. Your friend,
Kathryn Karskadon,
Willow Ave.,
Keyser.

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring me a new pair of shoes and a suit of clothes and a brown hat and a pair of kid gloves, a drum, horn and story book, and some candy, nuts and oranges, and don't forget my mama and papa. Your little friend,
Whitis Moody,
724 W. Pike St.

Dear Santa Claus—I thought I would write and tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a little dresser and a cupboard to keep my dishes in and I want a piano and some music, then I want some dishes and a table, and I want a leather carriage and a doll and I want a top on the carriage that you can take up and a trunk full of doll clothes.
Irene Pigott,
Shinnston.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy seven years old and I want you to bring me an eight dollar railroad train and a cannon and some soldiers that can fight and candy and nuts. Your little friend,
Frank Achison.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy three years old and I want you to bring me a train that runs on a track and set of blocks and a horn and a pair of new shoes and a foot ball and a monkey and some fancy books and candy and nuts and oranges. I am a good little boy please do not forget my brother Ralph.
Master Carl McDermott,
931 W. Pike St.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little girl and want you to bring me a doll and a set of dishes and some candy and a sled; I am five years old and a good girl, and my name is Ruth Alexander,
670 Mulberry St.

Dear Santa Claus—It is with the greatest of pleasure that I write and tell you what I want for Christmas. I want you to bring me a red sweater and some candy, nuts and oranges.
Sallie Mikea,
20 Baltimore St.

Dear Santa Claus—I want a banjo and a moving picture lantern and candy and nuts. Your friend,
Holloway Wilson,
306 S. Chestnut St.

Dear Santa Claus—You were so good to me last Christmas that I am not going to ask you for much this time. Please bring me a doll big enough for my doll carriage and a set of china dishes with red flowers on them and a table and a little dresser, and anything else you can spare. Please don't forget my cousin Lacie, bring her a ring and a box of nice handkerchiefs, and candy and nuts for us both. Your little girl,
Elizabeth L. Fultz.

Dear Santa Claus—You were so good to me last year that I will not ask you for much this Christmas. Please bring me a muffler, a tool box, full of tools, and a little trolley car. Your friend,
Lyle Swiger,
Adamston.

Dear Santa Claus—I want a doll buggy and a gum ball and a little set of dishes and a jumping jack and a set of furs, and oranges, nuts and candy.
Bessie Harris,
201 Jarvis St.

Dear Santa Claus—Please bring my some pictures for magic lantern and a top and leggings and I want some candy and nuts; I want a knife and a basket of fruit and some fire crackers and if you have anything left just leave it with me and I can handle it. Yours for Xmas,

J. Philip Rittenhouse,
Dola.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy four years old and I want you to bring me a rubber ball, harp, candy, nuts and lots of turkey and don't forget to bring me a house for my dog France. Your little friend,
Fleming Lottig,
118 Bridge St.

Dear Santa Claus—I am a little boy two and a half years old and I want you to put in my stockings a ball, pair of gloves, an overcoat, cap, candy, nuts and a watch. Your little boy,
James Dyson Lottig,
