SOCIAL

Exquisite Card Party.
Exquisite in every detail was the afternoon card party given yesterday by Mrs. Peter Koblegard in her home on East Main street. The event was in honor of her sister, Mrs. William Post, of Buckhannon. Eight tables were arranged for bridge—whist and 500, and at the close of the playing beautiful corsage bouquets of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums tied with bows of crystal dotted maffine in rain bow shades, were presented by the hostess to Mrs. Norval B. McCarty, Mrs. John Rühl, Mrs. William T. Wallis, Mrs. L. U. Wingate Mrs. Robert Sellers, Mrs. Charles Smiley, Mrs. Clarence Parr and Mrs. Homer Jackson for having made the highest score at the tables to which they were assigned. During the afternoon fruit, ices, confections and fancy cakes were served in the dining room from a perfectly appointed table which had for its centerpiece an artistic mound of yellow and white chrysanthemums augmented with gold satin ribbon. Mrs. Post presided and coffee was poured by Mrs. Koblegard.

The guest list included Mrs. Anson Deering Parr, Miss Lillie Koblegard, Miss Garrard, Mrs. Norval B. McCarty, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Herbert Brooks, Mrs. William Wallis, Mrs. Maybury Harrison, Miss Agnes Smith, of New York; Mrs. John Ruhl, Mrs. George Stone, Mrs. William Lewis, Mrs. George Leatherbury, Mrs. Lewis Smith, Mrs. Frederick Stathers, Mrs. William Newlon, Mrs. Burton Bailey, Mrs. H. E. Travis, Mrs. Robert Sellers, Mrs. Samuel Harrison, Mrs. L. U. Wingate, Miss Jennie Wilson, Mrs. C. S. Smiley, Mrs. Frank Dennison, Mrs. Arthur K. Thorn, Mrs. Homer Jackson, Mrs. Charles Coffman, Mrs. Benjamin Shuttlesworth, Miss Minnie Freeman, Mrs. Harry Cumlin, Mrs. Lee Maxwell and Mrs. Clarence Parr.

Entertain at Cards.

Mrs. George Shuttlesworth and Mrs. Wilma Redman entertained a number of their friends at a large card party this afternoon. The house was most brilliant with decorations of autumn foliage and Halloween accessories. The mantels, windows and doors were banked and festooned with autumn leaves, clusters of chrysanthemums and greenery, and under weird lights of jack o' lanterns they formed a pleasing background for the card players in their charming afternoon frocks and reception gowns. Ten tables were scattered throughout the rooms at which progressive euchre was enthusiastically enjoyed by the guests. Attractive souvenirs were presented to those who were fortunate enough to make the highest scores. The score cards were dainty creations in jack o' lantern design.

At the conclusion of the game a delicious salad supper was served at small tables. The ices were served in cases of chrysanthemum design, and the autumn colors were carried out in all the decorations and appointments. About forty guests enjoyed the afternoon's diversions and joyed the afternoon's entertainment. The out of town guests were Mrs. Felix C. Pifer, and Mrs. William Post, of Buckhannon; and Mrs. Charles Harrison, of New York.

Jackson-Neely.

The Weston Republican gives the following account of a recent wedding at Jane Lew:

J. G. Jackson and Miss Annie, eldest daughter of Howard Neely, were married at the home of the bride in Jane Lew Wednesday evening, October 19, at 4:30 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Holden performing the ceremony.

Many guests were present, among the number being Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dunnington, Miss McArdle, W. P. Hall and Mason Linger, of this city.

After the ceremony was performed a wedding dinner was served which was replete in its sumptuousness in every detail.

The bridal party left on the evening train to visit eastern cities, after which they will visit relatives in Virginia, returning to their home early in November.

Moonlight Dances.

The advanced class of the Hoffman Hall Dancing Academy held their weekly meeting in their hall on Fourth street Thursday evening. The attendance was exceedingly large, showing the popularity of this enterprising school.

The special features of the evening were four moonlight dances. Mr. Gardner had made and installed two three-hundred-candle-power moons, which made a beautiful appearance and were highly appreciated by the dancers.

It is the intention of the managers of this school to add some new feature each week to their weekly advertising.

NEW METHODS FOR STOREKEEPERS

Storekeepers should adopt the new method of making their clerks most valuable in increasing their business by giving them prizes. Clerks will work hard to win the honor of a prize. National Cash Registers are the only quick way of giving prizes to your clerks who make the greatest number of sales and to those who sell the largest amount in dollars and cents. We will be glad to explain to any merchant the many ways a National Cash Register will increase trade, stop losses, and increase his profits. P. B. VENTURI, Sales Agent, the Waldo Hotel, Clarksburg, W. Va.

SPECIAL NOTICE

To the Gentlemen of Clarksburg:—
Get your overcoat lined, cleaned and pressed without delay by a practical tailor who thoroughly understands his business. All I ask is a trial to prove my ability as I have had many years' experience in some of the leading New York establishments. If my work is not entirely satisfactory I will charge you nothing for my labor. I am sure that I can make you the finest suit of clothes to order that you have ever worn.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE LADIES
I am also an expert at remodeling Ladies' Garments and will take pleasure in showing you my work. I will soon move to the handsome new Gore building, corner Main and Pike streets.
