The Celebrated "Forest Mills"
Hand-Finished Underwear

This is "Forest Mills" Week. We are now exploiting, by window and department displays, the merits of this make of Underwear—one of the most widely known makes, because among those proved best by the infallible test of time and service. The sales of "Forest Mills" are increasing rapidly from year to year, as more and more persons become habitual wearers of this underwear.

Forest Mills Garments are all made from the choicest materials, the best selected cotton—the purest and softest wool, the finest lisle thread. This underwear is produced by the most skilled labor, and the best modern machinery—the garments knitted to fit the figure exactly, and in such a manner that laundering does not destroy their shapeliness even in the course of the longest wear. All the garments are carefully finished by hand, and so appeal to the most refined taste.

Forest Mills Underwear is made for men, women and children, and this is the only store in Clarksburg where it can be obtained.

Pigott Reunion.
At the beautiful country home of George L. Pigott, on last Sunday, was one of the happiest events of the season. Mr. Pigott, who is in his eighty-seventh year, had his only surviving sister, Mrs. Onne Robinson, and all her children invited in to spend the day. At 12:30 o'clock a sumptuous dinner was served with all the delicacies of the season. Those present were Mr. Seymour Pigott, of Wilsonburg; Mr. Fred Pigott and daughter, Maude, of Dola; Mrs. M. J. Cunningham, of Clarksburg; Mrs. F. M. Griffin, of Parkersburg; Mrs. J. A. Fortney and daughter, Pauline, of Fairmont; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harbert, of Lumberport; and the Misses Mary, Columbia and Ada Pigott, who still reside at home. Other guests were Mr. Ray Robinson, of Brown; Mr. Clyde Martin, of Brown; Mr. Sylvester Carson, of Dola; and Master Philip Rittenhouse.

Party.
A party was given at the home of Miss Emma Starkey, corner of Fifth and Mechanic streets, to a number of her young friends Friday evening. Games were indulged in, refreshments were served, and music by several of the guests assisted in making the evening delightful and enjoyable to all. Among the guests were the following: Misses Hattie Norman, Augusta Jacob, Mineva Grable, Marie Taylor, Mabel Dean, Freda Kennedy, Lola Swiger, Bertha Mulligan, Ethel Francis, Nina Batson, Margaret Starkey, Nellie Merrill, Guy Bartlett, and Messrs. Wolfe, Arthur Paquet, Cecil Owens, Ira Starkey, Vance Somerville, Orle Law, H. D. Barnard, Carl Somerville, J. G. Copeman, John Bailey, R. M. Adley, E. R. Moore, and C. W. Worcester.

To Be Repeated.
The all day quilting party and dinner held Thursday in the basement of the Duff Street United Brethren church at Stealey Heights by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church was so enjoyable and successful that the society has decided, upon request, to repeat it in the near future. Forty-two attended the meeting and all had a fine time. The date of the next all day meeting will be announced in a short time. Next Thursday an afternoon meeting will be held in the basement of the church and attention will be given to quilting.

Box Supper.
Under the direction of the principal, Junius K. Musser, a box supper was given at the Grussell school house Friday night for the benefit of the school library. The following program was rendered:
Music—Bridgeport Band.
Recitation—Mrs. Albert Sauborn.
Recitation—Miss Leo Bent.
Music—Bridgeport Band.
Recitation—Junius K. Musser.
The selling of the boxes was superintended by James Criss and the neat sum of $60 was realized, which will be expended in increasing the library equipment.

In Honor of Guests.
A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Roman on Jackson street, Friday night, complimentary to their out-of-town guests, Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow Jewett, of Baltimore.

$2000.00 IN PRIZES for an Epigram

We are authorized by Keller Manufacturing Co. to offer $5 prizes amounting to $2000.00 for an Epigram of only six words to be used as a permanent feature in advertising the famous, quiet running

Santo Vacuum Cleaner

There are 73 cash prizes ranging from $500 for the first prize, $250.00 for the second, and so on—the smallest being $5.00. Two Santo Electric Cleaners and 10 Santo Hand Power Cleaners will also be awarded—and

We will have a voice in deciding the winners.

You know what we mean by an "Epigram." Some people call them slogans or catch phrases. "The Cleaner Without a Fault," "The Ware That Wears," "There's A Reason" and "The Smile That Went Come off" are good examples of well known advertising epigrams.

Instead of paying some professional writer $500 to write an epigram for us we want to encourage the best thought of a larger number of people. Some bright man or woman, or boy or girl is going to write the strongest epigram ever seen in an advertisement and we are willing to spend $2000 to get it.

This fascinating contest will close promptly on December 1st and the prize will be awarded and paid
