The March Winds Doth Blow and the Showers May Come, But It Does Not Check Spring Garment Buying in CLARKSBURG'S GREATEST CLOTHING STORE

What's going on—a Big Sale? is a frequent inquiry; Not at all, just regular trade; But, how busy! Yes, folks getting their "Spring Togs," they like our styles and prices, giving us the preference. That's all.

We do things differently in this department. Women feel comfortable in their trading, a visit doesn't mean buy, buy, buy, and then, too, we are extreme in our care for details in fitting and altering; no garment leaves the house "wrong" you can count on that. A sale is not a completed sale until garment is really worn out. Parsons-Souders is an "ultimately" satisfactory store.

Long Top Coats for Spring $16.75

Included are Plain Serges in Tans, Navy and Black. Also novelty tan diagonal Coverts and Scotch Mixes. Many smart "Bishop" models among them. Sizes for young women, 14, 16, and 18 years. Plenty larger sizes too.

Fine Serge Coats, Special, $12.50

"Style Craft" Coats of exceptional merit; full length model made over the straight lines; unlined body with yoke of the cloth. Man tailored in excellent manner. Sizes to 40 only.

Suits for Young Women, $25.00

SOCIAL

Fete in Flowerland.
The children's operetta, "A Fete in Flowerland," which was given recently at the Baptist church under the direction of Misses Nannie Lowe and Jessie Renshaw, was repeated before a good sized audience in the Sunday school room of the First Methodist church Thursday night. In addition to the regular program Misses Kitmiller and Roberts played a piano duet, Mrs. Omar Talkington a piano solo, and a reading, "The Burial of Moses," was given by Miss Ora Varner. The proceeds were for the benefit of the New Church Workers' Society.

The following children took part in the operetta: Elizabeth Morrow, Elizabeth Bassell, Genevieve Allen, Mary Reynolds, Florence Renshaw, Catherine Prinn, Eugene Kennedy, James Lee, Adelaide Coleman, Helen Stelle, Elizabeth Rogers, Ruth Rogers, Virginia Reynolds, Irene Stout, Virginia Rapp, Raymond Rapp, Margaret Renshaw, Weston Steele, Carl McDermott and Edmund Hugill.

Surprise Mrs. Flowers.

A surprise party was given last night to Mrs. Mary J. Flowers, of Wilsonburg, in honor of her sixty-eighth birthday. It certainly was a surprise for she knew nothing of until the house was filled with guests. Then she realized what had happened, and said: "Why, this is my birthday!" Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brooks, Mrs. Lloyd Wright, Mrs. M. M. Bradford, Mrs. William Quinn, Robert Powell and Marshall Brooks, of Clarksburg; Mrs. Ed. Fittro, Mrs. Alice Plant, Walter Plant, Mrs. Lina Gain, Mrs. Lillie Heckard, Jacob Fittro, Mrs. Dr. Dawson, Mrs. Joe Mallory and Mrs. Frank Plant and family, of Wilsonburg. Mrs. Flowers received many useful presents. At 9 o'clock a dainty lunch was served and all enjoyed a delightful time. All present wished her many returns of the happy day.

Young People's Branch.

The Young People's Branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. J. D. McReynolds on Mulberry street Thursday night, there being thirty present. A program was rendered and light refreshments were served.

The following was the program: Reading—Miss Lillian Lepley. Violin solo—Albert Haubrich, Miss Mary Wand, accompanist. Reading—Miss Lena Ruttencutter. Address—Mrs. Amos Payne. Reading—Mrs. W. H. Chevrout.

Successful Chicken Supper.

More than two hundred persons were served at the chicken supper given Thursday evening in the basement of the United Brethren church at Staley Heights by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of that suburb. Everything was sold. The affair was as big a success especially as it was financially and the members of the union received many thanks for a delightful time. The proceeds were placed in the treasury of the union.

Successful Sale.

A very successful cake sale was held by the Ladies' Aid Society in the First Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, and the many tempting articles were greatly in demand and well disposed of. Quite a nice sum was received.

tee would be prepared to pilot such through the perils of the great metropolitan.

The ladies then opened up their plans for the furnishing of the tables upon the night of the banquet and gave fore-glimpses of an epicurean repast which almost brought tears to the eyes of their masculine-conspirators.

Dr. Lerrigo, the executive secretary, reported that an unusually large response had been received to the letters of invitation and that a record crowd might be expected to the dinner.

FAIRMONT IS VICTORIOUS

In Ten Pin Battle with Clarksburg—Carson Gains on Rittenhouse.

The Fairmont Ten Pin team was returned an easy winner over the Clarksburg team Thursday evening at the Gore alleys, the visitors winning out by 126 pins, and also capturing all three games. Robertson's bunch, as the Fairmont team is known, rolled well throughout the entire series of three games while the Clarksburg team was away off getting split after split, and blow-fleming. 162 182 145 489 night off in every sense of the word. The combination would not work. The score:
