The term ended Saturday.

WAR VETERAN

Dies in the Weston Asylum Without Ever Receiving a Pension.

WESTON, W. Va., March 20—Henry B. McMaster, a veteran of the Civil war, died Sunday at the hospital for the insane. His record was that of a deserter, and he was never able to get a pension. At various times congressmen from this district tried to get special bills through for his relief, but having volunteered and served with a Pennsylvania company, witnesses were wanting. On account of sickness he was permitted to go home on a furlough just at the close of the war. He overstay his time by acquiescence of his captain, but the latter having died he could not show the facts and as a result died without having his war record cleared.

BODY

Of Miner Killed by Train Will Likely be Buried Tomorrow.

Efforts at communication with John Baker, at Piggon's run, near West Union, brother of Ira Baker, the crippled miner who was killed by a freight train have so far proved fruitless. The body is at present at the Warne Undertaking Company's morgue, awaiting disposition, and if the dead man's relatives are not heard from, burial will likely be made Tuesday.

The deceased man was a cripple, having suffered the loss of his right leg just above the knee, and hence when he and a friend were crossing the railroad bridge at Erie, and a freight train came up behind them, he was unable to get out of the way and was run down by the train. He was badly mangled about the head and shoulders, the head being cut off. Dr. S. M. Maron, coroner, decided an inquest unnecessary.

BOOKER WASHINGTON IS UNABLE TO APPEAR

SOUVENIR WILL BE WORK OF ART

Will Be Issued Under the Title, "Industrial and Picturesque Clarksburg"

The souvenir of Clarksburg under the title, "Industrial and Picturesque Clarksburg," now being compiled by H. R. Fish, will be somewhat unique as compared to other publications of similar nature.

It will be thoroughly representative, containing half-tone illustrations of all wholesale houses and financial institutions, the leading retail stores, public buildings and other interesting and picturesque views.

There is no charge for representation in this souvenir, the revenue being derived from the sale of the booklet only.

To make a work of this kind a success incurs the expenditure of a large amount of money and time, to secure suitable photos and half-tone plates. It is expected that the business men of Clarksburg will subscribe for several thousand booklets, as by so doing they are not only getting direct benefit themselves but adding in setting before the world the true greatness and the advantages that Clarksburg offers to industries.

The fact that the booklet will be printed on the presses of the Telegram job department insures to the public a typographical work of art.
