dent, while in the musical part of the program will appear some of the very best musical talent of the counties. The contestants in this class are all holders of silver medals, and are therefore above the average in oratorical ability for their ages in their respective communities. The admission of 25 cents is small, indeed, when one takes into consideration what the quality of the program promises to be. It is hoped the public in general will respond graciously. The program in full will appear later.

Delightful Party.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McMillan gave a delightful party Friday evening in honor of their daughter, Blanche's twelfth birthday. Various games were indulged in until a late hour, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Among those present were Ethel Reider, Alice Saas, Nellie Nutter, Blanche Patton, Gladys Patton, Gladys Ritter, Bloomie Henderson, Elizabeth Ashley, Lillian Hamilt, Virginia Shackelford, Virginia Vandergrift, Magiena Warner, Vera Reitz, Leona Myers, Percy White, Alfred Ashley, Paul Dawson, Bryan and John Carter, Alta and Densil Parson, Clarence Reider, Lawrence Walters, Russel Patton, Bruce Smallwood, Romie Ritter, James Vandergrift, Dorsey McMillan and Harvey Browning. All enjoyed themselves immensely, and left wishing Miss Blanche many more such happy birthdays.

No Rehearsal.

Owing to the absence from the city of Mrs. Amos Payne and Miss Cora Atchison, director and accompanist of the Chorus Club of the Marcato Music Club, there will be no rehearsal of the oratorio of "The Redemption" this evening in the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Payne and Miss Atchison are attending the convention of the national federation of musical clubs, which is being held in Philadelphia this week. The next rehearsal of the chorus club will be Monday evening of next week and it is requested that all members be present.

For Miss Baker.

Miss Alvin Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Baker, was a guest of honor at a social affair given in Morgantown Saturday night by a girl friend. Miss Baker will attend the "Madame Sherry" show at the Fairmont opera house tonight and then return home.

Mothers' Meeting.

The Mothers' Club will meet at the home of Mrs. S. Q. Hess, of 685 Chestnut street, tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, subject, "Duty of Parents to Their Children." All mothers of the city are cordially invited.

Sewing Class to Meet.

The Lenten sewing class of Christ Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. John Carl Vance Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and all members of the church are asked to go and make garments for the charity ward in St. Mary's hospital.

Hill Club to Meet.

Tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock Mrs. William T. Wallis will entertain the Hill Card Club in her home on Carr avenue.

HAND DYNAMITED.

PAIKERSBURG, March 27.—While it is supposed he was dynamiting fish, Halley Gallagher, a local fisherman, had his right hand blown off and was injured about the face by the discharge of the explosive. He may lose his eyesight as a result of the accident.

VETERAN DROPS DEAD.

WESTON, Mar. 27.—After leaving his home and walking rapidly to the top of a hill to assist in some surveying, N. F. Linger dropped dead just as he had reached the point where the work was to begin. He was 70 years of age, and served as a teamster for the Confederates in the Civil war.

TO FACE TRIAL.

FAIRMONT, Mar. 27.—Charged with robbing George Parker, of Morgantown, of $120, George Heinerman, who was arrested some time ago in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., has been brought here by Deputy Sheriff Furbee. Heinerman was indicted by the last grand jury and will be tried in a few days.

a view to preventing falls or roof, the best methods of preventing and extinguishing mine fires, and the best methods of rescue and first aid work.

Emphasis is placed by Dr. Holmes upon the importance of active, determined co-operation between miners, mine management and mine inspectors in the enforce of mine rules and regulations and he urges the punishment of every person, whether mine worker or mine manager, who disobeys these rules and regulations.

The continuance of government investigations as to causes of mine accidents and methods for preventing them, and the prompt dissemination of all information along these lines among miners and mine operators and officials are also urged by Dr. Holmes as important matters in connection with reducing the number and extent of accidents in the coal mines of the country.

MISS KENNEDY'S SCHOOL

If there is sufficient demand, Miss Kennedy will add next year a primary department for girls and boys, separate from the higher work and regularly graded. She requests that all interested will communicate with her this week, 414 West Main street, Bell phone 217-W.

Charles E. Batson, of Cairo, was a Sunday visitor here.
