SOCIAL

Golden Wedding.

On April 7 in their commodious and picturesque home at "Shady Wood Farm," near Lumberport, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brook celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary with a golden wedding. More than one hundred and fifty guests had been invited, most of whom responded in person, while those so unfortunately as to be unavoidably detained from this joyous event, remembered them with beautiful presents and letters of congratulation. The parlor, reception room and dining room were artistically decorated with festoonings of gold tinsel and orange ribbon, held in place by numerous white bells, while the delicate fragrance and Tic perfume of white carnations, lilies and yellow orchids lavishly displayed in suitable and harmonious plates, greatly enhanced the beauty and attractiveness of the home.

The receiving line was composed of the following persons: The Hon. A. M. Brooke and his gentle, smiling wife of fifty years, Mr. and Mrs. Alvy Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mitton, Postmaster G. C. Brooke and wife, and Miss Zona Brooke, all sons and daughters, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law of the happy old couple, who hold the remarkable record of fifty years of wedded life without a death in the family. All of their five children reside near them, and were present at their parents' fiftieth anniversary, as was also all of their grandchildren excepting four. A sumptuous repast was served. The color scheme, yellow and white being carried throughout the entire service, which was gracefully presided over by Mrs. Henry Mitton, Mrs. Alvy Brooke, Mrs. C. G. Brooke, Mrs. Lee Bogess, the Rev. T. J. Lewis and Misses Nina Brooke and Hazel Mitton.

Several well chosen vocal solos were delightfully rendered by Mrs. Lee Bogess, who has a voice of rare sweetness and culture, her little daughter, Miss Beulah, accompanist. Miss Zona Brooke presided at the registry.

This much beloved and revered couple were the recipients of many handsome, useful and beautiful presents, such as golden candelabras, gold-headed umbrellas, ladies' salvers, spoons, gold embossed china and various other gifts too numerous to mention, many of them coming from Florida, Texas, New York, Ohio, Missouri and Virginia.

Among the guests from other cities were Mrs. R. T. Parker and sister, Miss Jennie Talkington, of Fairmont, who have recently returned from Florida; Miss Ica Lee, Misses Mina and Nora Talkington, also of Fairmont, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Speer, of Clarksburg.

The delightful manner in which this venerable couple entertained, showed forth the true, pure, sincere nature that has dominated and controlled the hearts and lives of the occupants of this happy home for fifty years, giving them social prestige and making them a power for good in the community in which they have so long resided.

Their hosts of friends heartily join in wishing them many happy returns of the day, trusting they may be spared to continue to dispense joy, sunshine and gladness about them for many years hence, and permitted to celebrate their diamond wedding anniversary, ere they go forth to celebrate their final reunion in their eternal heavenly home.

Pretty Wedding.

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 18.—A. Lee McKibben, of Salem, W. Va., and Miss Edna Iola Wilson, daughter of Mr. Harvey Wilson, of 91 North Mechanic street, were the principals in a beautifully appointed home wedding at 7 o'clock last night. The ceremony was witnessed by many friends of the popular young couple.

The Rev. J. S. Robinson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Salem, W. Va., and brother of Judge Ira E. Robinson, of the West Virginia supreme court of appeals was the officiating clergyman. Miss Stella Wilson, of Salem, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Miss Winifred Footer, daughter of Mr. Harry Footer, was maid of honor. Mr. Norman Ryan, of Salem, was best man.

The bride was charming in white satin trimmed in pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and white sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore white tulle over pink silk and carried pink carnations. Miss Footer, the maid of honor, was gowned in French mousseline over blue silk. She carried white carnations.

A supper of most delicious viands was served after the ceremony at small tables in the dining room, all surrounding the massive bride's cake, which itself completely covered a table. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Among the guests were Mrs. Elizabeth McKibben, Breezwood, Pa., mother of the bridegroom; Miss Georgia Kee, Hambleton, W. Va., and Dr. Kenneth Crooks, Williamsport, Pa. Dr. and Mrs. McKibben left last night over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for their home in Salem, where Dr. McKibben is building up a nice practice in his profession. Mrs. McKibben aside from her social accomplishments was well known as a valuable aid to her brother in the conduct of his business, being a young woman of marked versatility.
