Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Surprised.

Manifesting love and esteem for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bentley, neighbors, members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Mothers' Club, remembered them most kindly and paid them well merited honor with a big surprise party in their home at 637 Dale avenue from 8 to 11 o'clock Wednesday night on the forty-eighth anniversary of their wedding day. The aged couple knew nothing of the intentions of those who gave them the party until the guests arrived in goodly numbers and they were made extremely happy over expressions of appreciation, tokens of friendship and esteem and tender tributes to their worth in life's activities and society's best and highest endeavors.

The receiving rooms were beautifully decorated with carnations and chrysanthemums and they presented a most inviting scene. The other appointments were perfect for such an occasion and nothing was left undone to make the affair as happy a one in the pathway of life, which they Bentley, when they first joined hands in the pathway of life, which they have walked agreeably and pleasantly almost half a century.

The felicitations of the evening were in the happiest and merriest vein, and it was truly a most joyous occasion for those honored and those honoring. While there was no set program, one was carried out in an informal way that proved most pleasing and it brought delight to all. A special orchestra furnished appropriate music, a beautiful Bible was presented Mrs. Bentley by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and a full China dinner set was given Mr. and Mrs. Bentley by neighbors. In addition individual members of the surprise party remembered Mr. and Mrs. Bentley by presenting them with beautiful and useful articles.

In a very eloquent manner the Rev. L. E. Peters made the presentation speech and he certainly did it to the queen's taste, if the expression be allowed in connection with such a splendid occasion.

And with the feast of music, eloquence and pleasant conversation, there were appetizing refreshments of the most delicious kinds, a feature of the celebration all appreciated with the keenest satisfaction.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cather, Mrs. W. S. Masonheimer, Mrs. Daniel M. Ogden, Mrs. William Garrett, Mrs. N. J. Hayman, Mrs. Rachel Langford, Miss Marla Gaston, Mrs. Tensie Watkins, Mrs. Charles L. Hickman, Mrs. Jacob M. Swarts, Mrs. Charles H. Harding, Mrs. C. A. Fairmont Couple Married Here.

Mr. J. Norman Steele and Miss Nellie Arnett, both of Fairmont, were married Wednesday night in the parsonage of the Central Christian church by the Rev. W. M. Long, pastor of the church. Following dinner at the Waldo hotel the couple and Fairmont friends, who accompanied them here, returned to Fairmont on a special car over the traction line. They went to their new home at Edgemont, where they were greeted by numerous friends with a serenade.

Accompanying the couple to Clarksburg were Mrs. Eber Arnett, mother of the bride; Miss Elizabeth McNeely, maid of honor; Mr. Albert Cook, best man; and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Watson. Immediately following the ceremony the party together with the Rev. and Mrs. Long, repaired to the Waldo where a wedding dinner was served.

Both young people are well known in Fairmont. The bride is a very popular young lady with a host of friends. The bridegroom, who is a chauffeur for Mr. J. O. Watson, is a hustling young man who has made himself one of the best automobile experts in the city. Friends of the popular couple are showering them with congratulations.

Judge Holt Married.

GRAPTON, Nov. 2.—Judge John Homer Holt, of the Taylor and Preston county circuit courts, and Mrs. Nannie E. Brown, widow of the late T. P. R. Brown, of Beverly, were married at Elkins yesterday afternoon. He missed the morning train to Elkins and was compelled to engage a special train to take him to Elkins for the wedding. Judge and Mrs. Holt returned yesterday evening and enjoyed a wedding feast at the judge's home on the West Side. After midnight they boarded a train for the Pacific coast, the Yellow Stone Park and other points in the West on their wedding tour.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Hubbard, in the Randolph capital. The wedding was a quiet home affair and was attended by only the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

Judge and Mrs. Holt will be at home after December 1, at their home on the West Side.

The bride is one of the most prominent and popular ladies of her section of the state.

Celebrate Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil C. Swearingen, of Pt. Comfort, delightfully entertained Wednesday evening in honor of the seventh anniversary of their marriage, the guests being limited to the immediate relatives. Delicious refreshments were served and a very delightful time was enjoyed.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hursley, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Norton Longabaugh, Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Kessler, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thorn, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Peck, Mrs. Gertrude Jackson, Misses Hursley, Swearingen and Mr. John C. Owens.

Third Social Affair.

A most attractive afternoon at cards was given today by Mrs. W. Brent Maxwell, which is the third social affair of a series of entertainments the hostesses will give this fall, with no special honor guests. Progressive euchre was played at ten tables and at 5 o'clock a delicious supper was served at small tables scattered through the rooms. Covers were laid for forty guests.

Col. and Mrs. Henry Haymond and Miss Emily Garrard left this morning for Parkersburg to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin R. Blackford. Mrs. Susan Haymond accompanied by Major and Mrs. Melville S. Jarvis, of New York, returned home this morning.
