

THESE ARE OPENING DAYS

Of the New Autumn and Winter Millinery practicality is one great keynote and becomingness is another.

To prove it just look at certain Tailored Hats whose tags read $5 and $7.50. It is very seldom that you find two of these alike, and certainly not alike in color.

Some strikingly smart Hats are in black and white; small and medium shapes of Silk Plush, Moire and velvet. Flat trimmings, ornaments and fancy feathers are much seen. The new Primrose shades combined with black to be worn with the new blues are good. The Aeroplane (oblong front to back) Hat and the new 3-cornered shapes are liked.

Will Your Automobile Be In It Next Tuesday?

For the Elks' Parade? Well! You say that depends on how nicely she'll look when I put the finishing touches to it. Right to the point; great shipments yesterday, ready today, American and Elks' colors—Flags, Bunting, Streamers, Pennants, Paper Garlands, Stars, Bells, Wreaths and Novelty Designs.

took place near here last evening at the home of Mr. H. J. Garrett, a prominent citizen of this county, when his daughter, Miss Velva Pearl, was married to Mr. Ray R. Colerider, of French creek. The Rev. L. L. Lightner, of the Baptist church officiated. A few relatives and friends were present to witness the happy event.

Supper was served at 5 o'clock, immediately after which at 7 o'clock the ceremony took place.

Just before the bride descended the stairs, the dear, familiar song, "Oh, Promise Me," was exquisitely rendered by Mrs. Frank Garrett of this city. The bride and bridegroom entered the room to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Anna Garrett, a beautiful younger sister of the bride. The ceremony was a very impressive one, after which words of congratulation and good-bys were spoken.

The bride wore a tan traveling suit, and carried a large bouquet of white rose buds and carnations. The groom was dressed in the conventional black.

The happy pair left here on the 9:35 o'clock train last night bound for Atlantic City and other eastern cities, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The bride is a young woman of sterling worth, and she will be greatly missed in the home and by a large and admiring circle of friends.

Mr. Colerider is a well known and popular young business man of Upshur county, and his many friends will be glad to welcome his lovely bride into their midst. They will reside at French Lick.

Minister a Benefactor

On Tuesday morning, September 3, at the Oakland Hotel at Webster Springs, the Rev. A. S. Arnett, district superintendent of the West Virginia Anti-Saloon League, and Mrs. Jennie Shock McLaughlin, state secretary of the Young Peoples' Branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, were united in marriage. The Rev. George Marston of the Methodist Episcopal church was the officiating minister, performing the impressive ceremony in the presence of a few friends. A beautiful wedding ring was in this service and will always be a symbol of the sacred vows then taken.

The marriage was to have taken place at the bride's home, but owing to the temporary illness of the Rev. Mr. Arnett at the hotel it was thought best to be married there.

The Rev. Mr. Arnett has been an honored member of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church for years and a short time since was one of its presiding elders. Mrs. McLaughlin is the widow of the late Dr. McLaughlin, of Webster Springs, and is one of its most refined and accomplished ladies. A host of friends wish for them a happy and prosperous life.

Wednesday morning the happy couple started on a trip to Niagara Falls and other points of interest.—Webster Echo.

Surprise Birthday Party

A very pleasant surprise party was given Mrs. Frank Townsend Thursday night at her home on Harrison street, Broad Oaks, by her neighbors and other friends in honor of an anniversary of her birth.

The floral decorations for the affair were roses and nasturtiums. Many games were played during the evening and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Vandegriff and Mrs. A. J. Marshall.

The guests included Mrs. Emma Townsend, of Morgantown; Mrs. A. J. Marshall, Mrs. Amos Marshall, Mrs. George Nixon and daughter, Nellie; Mrs. Harry Vandegriff and daughters, Virginia and Adda; Mrs. P. J. Vehtus; Mrs. James Grant and daughter, Bessie; Mrs. Frank Carson, Mrs. Edward White, Mrs. Cora McNeemar, Miss Ruth Shain, Mrs. H. T. McMullan and Mrs. T. L. Amos. All departed wishing Mrs. Townsend many more as happy birthdays.

Miss Horton a Guest

"Kanswaha Ranch" the summer home of Prof. and Mrs. A. D. Hopkins of the Little Kanawha, is the scene these days of many delightful affairs at which the hostess is Miss Louise Hopkins, their daughter. This week a house party is being entertained at the lovely place and quite a number from this city are in attendance. Old fashioned dances, picnics and other amusements are the pastimes. In the party are: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Roberts, of Elizabethtown; Mr. M. Gaylow, of Morgantown; Misses Rebecca Dils, Bernice and Jane Carle, of this city; Miss Ira Shomo, of Richwood; Miss Mary Hornor, of Lumberport; Messrs. Fial Stewart, of Seattle, Washington; Paul Hornor, of Clarksburg; Birch Hatcher and Louis Helmick of Fairmont.—Parkersburg Dispatch-News.

Guests at Parkersburg

Miss Roma Starling entertained Thursday evening at her home on Lulu street with a watermelon party. The lawn of the pretty home was dotted with Japanese lanterns and golden rods were used for decorating the porch and the apartments. Games and music furnished the diversions of the evening, a refreshment course was partaken of. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Starling, Miss Grace Winton, of Marietta; Miss Goldie Howell, of Coolville; Miss Nell Hurst, of Clarksburg; Misses Lulu McHenry, Hazel Watterson, Audra Flanagan, Freda Price, Flossie Quick, Naomi Marquis, Marie Adams, Messrs. For West Virginians

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jarrett of 130 Rubidoux Drive, entertained at dinner on Sunday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Knox, of Shinnston, W. Va. Covers were laid for twelve and after dinner the evening was passed with music and conversation. Mr. and Mrs. Knox were also the guests of honor at a happily planned picnic this afternoon given by Mrs. Eugene Randall, of Magnolia avenue. The scene of festivities was at Chemawa park and the invited company was comprised of Messdames, James Knox, Ralph Jarrett, Oscar Wilson, M. G. Jarrett and Charles Knox; Messrs. James Knox, Ralph Jarrett, Oscar Wilson, Glen and Stanley Knox and Miss Thelma Jarrett—Riverside, (Cal.) Daily Press, Tuesday, September 3.

Reception to Pastor

A very delightful reception was given to the Rev. W. L. Heuser, the pastor of the Lutheran church and his family, by the members and friends of his congregation Thursday evening. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent in social intercourse and music. When the guests departed the larder was found to be well stocked with gifts which they left.

Special Meeting

All members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at Broad Oaks are urged to be present at a special meeting to be held in Ash Chapel Methodist Episcopal church this evening at 7:30 o'clock as business of importance connected with the union is to be planned and transacted.

Attend Dance

Quite a number of guests attended the dance given by the Cadenza orchestra last evening in Hoffman hall and a well selected program of dance music was played by the orchestra.

Circle is Entertained

Miss Ella Quinn entertained most pleasantly the East End Sewing Circle in her home on East Pike street Thursday evening. At 9 o'clock refreshments were served.

Club Tea

A reunion and club tea will be given by the members of the Civic Club Wednesday afternoon, October 11, in the home of Mrs. Harvey W. Haznes.

"HOWDY PAP!" Let's "start something" in the way of a fight for first place among fraternal orders in Clarksburg. Why not? Let's see your smiling face at the meeting tonight.

These Dresses Are the Embodiment of Loveliness!

Our Stock Embraces the Cream of the New Fall Dress Fashions.

"Never in all my life have I seen such exquisite fashions combined with such desirable materials. I really don't see how you ever bought them to sell for such reasonable prices!" This was the remark made by one of the most smartly-dressed women of this town, who happened to be in our store when these dresses were unpacked from their cases.

The same thought will most likely occur to your mind when you see these dresses and note their exclusive, authoritative fashions, their high character materials and their careful, skillful workmanship.

The quiet and unobtrusive models are represented as well as the most elaborate designs. Scores of these dresses are suitable for wear upon any occasion, and they are real boons to the woman who must limit her wardrobe. We can't attempt to tell you all about them here. Come see them for yourself.

TAG DAY POSTS ARE ANNOUNCED

For Campaign by the Women Tomorrow for Citadel Fund Here.

At a mass meeting yesterday afternoon headquarters were chosen, working posts selected and ladies assigned to each. Success of the venture is assured.

Mrs. Amos Payne, chairman of the ladies' tag day—the first tag day that Clarksburg has ever known—and who presided at the mass meeting at the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, says that the prospects for tag day could not be more propitious.

The readiness and response with which the large number of ladies present responded as the assignments were given out showed conclusively that the ladies of Clarksburg will readily assume their share in the betterment of the city and contribute their effort along with the men to make this the red-letter day for the women of Clarksburg.

The headquarters for Saturday will be established at 130 South Fourth street, where the executive committee, consisting of the five presidents of the ladies' organization participating will secure tags, information, assignments, etc.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon, the following assignments were readily accepted as follows:

Post No. 1—Depot and wholesale district—Mrs. L. P. Souders, Mrs. M. Wright.
Post No. 2—Elk bridge north—Miss Nadine Lowe, Mrs. F. Reynolds.
Post No. 3—Elk bridge south—Mrs. H. E. Curtin, Mrs. A. L. Roberts.
Post No. 4—Waldo corner—Mrs. O. West, Mrs. Chevrement.
Post No. 5—Pike and Fourth streets—Mrs. Michaels, Mrs. C. A. Louch.
Post No. 6—Pike and Third streets—Mrs. Clarence Waldeck, Mrs. S. E. White.
Post No. 7—Pike and Third, post office—Mrs. J. B. Stewart, Mrs. B. V.

Robinson.
Post No. 8—Third and Main streets—Mrs. Paxton, Mrs. Terry.
Post No. 9—Main and Third, corner house—Mrs. Earl Travis, Mrs. R. C. Sellers.

Post No. 10—Main and Fourth streets—Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Stappert.
Post No. 11—Empire building—Miss Page, Miss McKeehan.
Post No. 12—Goff building—Mrs. M. Smith, Miss Mamie Cook.

Post No. 13—Outlying manufacturing offices—Mrs. G. C. Clark and three others.
Post No. 14—Pike street bridge—Mrs. Amos Payne.
Post No. 15—Main street bridge—Mrs. George Stone and companions.

To Mrs. L. P. Souders belongs the honor of being the first lady in the city to volunteer for the tag ladies' tag day ever held in Clarksburg. In the sure years tag day will be an established institution in Clarksburg and the benefits to be derived therefrom are immeasurable and incalculable.

The chairman of the ladies' tag day committee, Mrs. Amos Payne, says she understood that any lady of the city whether a club member or not, might come to join the movement and support at headquarters at the beginning at any of the four turns which are respectively, 9 a. m., 12 m., 3 p. m. and 6 p. m.

During Friday the members of the various clubs, who were unable to be present at the mass meeting, will be telephoned to and their responses received so that the committee may have assurance for the remaining shifts in the day as the foregoing assignments, which include members of all the five organizations during the forenoon. The rest of the members of the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Civic Club, who are working during the three morning hours are assigned to that period.

From 12 o'clock to 3 p. m. the members of the King's Daughters will substitute the morning crew, from 3 p. m. to 6 p. m. the members of the White.
