Frances Hollender.

When Frances Hollender, a fashionably dressed young woman who had been living high in one of New York's best hotels, appeared in a New York court a few days ago to answer to a charge of shoplifting a score of representatives of department and millinery stores identified her as the person who had obtained goods worth hundreds of dollars and had disappeared without paying. The girl admitted taking the goods. The storage place of her booty was found later. In her trunks were fifty silk and satin gowns which she had stolen or secured by false pretenses.

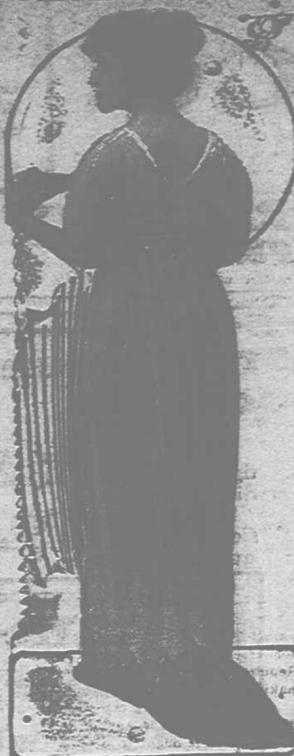

W. J. S. Harmer, of Shinnston, was a business visitor in the city Friday.

SOUTHERN

Candidate for Prosecuting Attorney is Splendidly Qualified for Place.

The Salem Herald in this week's issue comments on the candidacy of John C. Southern for the office of prosecuting attorney of this county as follows:

The election of a prosecuting attorney is one of the most important duties the voters of Harrison county will perform November 5.

The office requires a lawyer of ability and a man of absolute integrity.

This paper is a partisan publication; but it prides itself that its judgment about such important things as prosecuting attorney should and does stand the test of calm deliberation as well as partisanship.

In our deliberate judgment John C. Southern, whose nomination is certified on both the Republican and Progressive tickets, appears to be the very sort of man to fill the office to the entire satisfaction of the people.

Southern's ability as a lawyer is not questioned by his most active opponents. His experience in the preparation and trial of law cases and his extensive practice in all branches of law peculiarly fit him to represent the people as his client in any case, civil or criminal, that they may wish to bring in any court. He is one of the highest and best of the younger lawyers at the Clarksburg bar.

His personal fitness is equal to his professional qualifications.

With an absolutely clean record, Southern is a man of high morals, without cant;—honest, without hypocrisy;—highminded, without bigotry.

His acquaintances from boyhood know him to be an upright young man.

His quiet and unassuming manner and dignified method of campaigning also count in his favor.

He is entirely worthy of election as prosecuting attorney.

He will make an officer of whom the people will be proud.

HOME FROM WEDDING TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Devine are home from their wedding trip to New York, Philadelphia, Washington and other eastern cities and they are receiving congratulations from friends. They have gone to housekeeping at 408 Clay street.

Abraham Cottrill, of Boothsville, was here talking Republican politics Friday.

F. L. Channel, of Elkins, is a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, W. O. Triplett, on College street.

Andrew Edmiston, of Weston, came here Friday for the Wilson meeting.

FLETCHER

Wait for our Big Fur Opening. One of the largest manufacturers of Detroit will be here next week. Exact date later.

GOLD DUST not only cleans, but sterilizes

Gold Dust does more than wash the surface—it digs deep after germs and hidden particles of dirt and decay. It purifies and makes everything sanitarly safe. Neither dirt nor germs can live where Gold Dust has made its appearance.

Gold Dust needs little help from you; it does most of the work alone. It is a vegetable-oil soap in powdered form, to which are added cleansing and purifying ingredients which get busy the moment they touch the water.

Use Gold Dust for all cleansing purposes. It saves time, saves labor, saves backs, and saves money.

The Mop is Mightier than the Board

Let the GOLD DUST TWINS do your work.

SCROFULOUS TROUBLES

No truth is more forcibly manifested in physical life than the old saying "like begets like," for just as the offspring of healthy ancestry are blessed with pure, rich blood insuring good health, so the children of blood-tainted parentage inherit a polluted circulation which fosters a chain of scrofulous troubles. The usual sign of a scrofulous inheritance are swollen glands about the neck, weak eyes, pale, waxy complexions, sores and ulcers early in life, though sometimes maturity is reached before the trouble breaks out. Treatment should be commenced at the first indication of scrofula for it may get beyond control if allowed to run unchecked. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for scrofula. It renovates the circulation and drives out all scrofulous matter and deposits. S. S. S. goes to the bottom of the trouble and removes the cause and cures the disease. Then it supplies the weak, blood with healthful properties. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. Book on the blood and medical advice free.
