

The Great Busy Rush Days Are On

The Vital Questions of All Shoppers Now Are

- First--Where is the safest, cleanest, most convenient, roomiest, most refined store?
- Second--Where is the store in which one is not embarrassed by the expectations of selling something to those who are looking?
- Third--Where are the best assorted, most extensive and freshest stocks of desirable goods.
- Fourth--Where were the systems of exchange and return of goods for refund of money established as a rule for every transaction.

The Answer to these Questions Are

Parsons-Souders Store--the store of attentiveness, civility, courtliness.

If the Parsons-Souders store has served best in the past, it is logical to assume that it will serve best NOW.

Enjoyable Children's Party.
A most enjoyable children's party was given this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock by Mrs. J. Robert Pollard in her home at Colonial Heights to celebrate the seventh birthday anniversary of her attractive little daughter, Alma Virginia. Various games with a jolly peanut hunt were the pleasant diversions of the afternoon, and the successful ones were presented by the hostess with a doll and a horn.

At 5 o'clock ice cream, cake, fruit punch and candy were served in the dining room to the young guest of honor and her many young friends. Among those present were Vera Parrish, Katherine Reese, Virginia Potts, Mary Ogden, Mildred Pinnell, Virginia Ogden, Irene Conaway, Mona Van Horn, Selma Bates, Gene Day, Robert Parrill, Charlotte Long, Ralph Holden, Virginia Long, Elizabeth Stealey, Janet Lamby, Elizabeth Carter, Frederick Elliott and Master Wilham H. Geppert.

Entertainers for Daughter.
INDUSTRIAL, Dec. 14.--Mrs. Jules Jamant entertained in a pleasing manner at her home in Industrial in honor of her daughter's birthday anniversary. Games and music were indulged in and at a seasonable hour refreshments were served consisting of ices, cakes and fruit. A nice time was had by all present. Miss Jamant received quite a number of pretty and useful presents.

Those present were Misses Bessie Kinch, Edna Nutter, Fern Lewis, Gladys Queen, Garnet Addington, Pearl Deem, Carrie Swager, Marion Whitney, Candace Queen, Bertha Nutter, Addie Nutter, Edith Jamant, Henrietta Nutter and Messrs. Edward Mine Hart, Ira Collett, George Baulenger, Albert Boulenger, Creed Conley, Samuel Chaney, Ernest Raikes, Herbert Hopkins, Bradley Arnett, Roy Arnett, Charles Oldaker, General Burrows; Mrs. Elmer Addington and Mrs. Jules Jamant.

Pleasantly Entertained.
BRIDGEPORT, Dec. 14.--The Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Stevens, of the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, were very pleasantly surprised Thursday evening, when a large number of their friends came in with a generous donation of good things to eat. The party received a cordial welcome and a very pleasant evening was spent by all. Miss Kathleen Warner played a number of piano selections that were highly appreciated. Later fruit was served by Mrs. Gordon B. Late, Mrs. N. L. Fitzhugh and Mrs. C. H. Warner.

Legion Meets.
Friday afternoon a regular meeting of the Loyal Temperance Legion was held with the vice president, Mrs. Benjamin F. Robinson, presiding. The demonstration of alcohol by Mr. Hayman was most interesting and was given great attention by those present. A most excellent report was handed in by the finance and flower mission superintendents. Miss Wolfe is most successful in her work of conducting the games in the junior department. About eighty-four were present including fourteen teachers.

December Meeting.
In the social room of the First Methodist Episcopal church last evening the members of the Brotherhood held their December meeting. Several interesting talks were made followed by instrumental music rendered by Mr. Guy Rumbaugh. The membership was divided into two companies with L. K. Richards and C. C. McCarty as captains for a whirlwind campaign, the winning side to be banqueted by the losers about January 10. Later refreshments were served.

For Poor Children.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Late, of Bridgeport, will throw open their home to the poor children of Bridgeport and their mothers from 3 until 5 o'clock Christmas afternoon and a Christmas tree entertainment will be given for them.

Christmas Sale.
The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church will have a Christmas sale of home-made cakes, bread and the like next Saturday at the Bowden Mercantile Company's store on Main street.

Guild to Meet.
Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock the members of the Westminster Guild will meet with Mrs. Henry T. McClelland in her home at 111 Lee street. All are asked to be present.

The Little-Loekers

EVERY LITTLE GIRL (And Every Big Girl Too) Should see this Assemblage of Dolls

"Lives there a girl with soul so dead, who never to herself has said: 'If I don't get a dolly for Christmas, it won't really seem like Christmas at all!'"

This great gathering of dolls at our store is planned to prevent the disappointment of any little girl in this city on Christmas morning. There are scores and scores of dollies here--some costing but a few pennies, others quite expensive creatures; some without a stitch of clothes to their back, just asking for the motherly care of some little girl; while others are gowned from head to toe in the most elaborate manner.

Most of these beautiful dollies come all the way from Germany and Austria. Now that they're here, don't you think you should do them the honor of paying them a visit? And don't forget to bring the younger girls with you, for it will be a great treat for them!

10 PER CENT DISCOUNT

This week on all Chiffoniers and Chifforobes.

Can the gentlemen members of your household lay their hands on their buttons, collars, shirts, and handkerchiefs at any moment? Can the children dress themselves in the morning without running to mamma for their clothes? Does the tired housewife have a place for everything and everything in its place?

If not, you need a storage place for these things. We suggest a Chiffonier or Chiffonrobe. We carry a fine line of every wood, design and finish. Let us put one away for Christmas delivery while the sale is on. Chiffoniers without mirrors $5.85 up Chiffoniers with mirrors $9.50 up
