Triangle Club Dance.
One of the most brilliant affairs of the holiday season was the Triangle Club dance given Wednesday night in the Hoffman Hall, which was gaily dressed for the occasion with a large number of pennants from all the principal schools and colleges throughout the country, and the customary greenery. More than sixty couples assembled for the occasion and promptly at 9 o'clock Hall's Cadets orchestra played the opening number, which was followed by one of the best arranged programs of music which has been heard in Clarksburg for a long time.

The out of town guests were Miss Paula Chase, of Washington, D. C.; Misses Mary and Isabelle Maxwell, of West Union; Miss Mary Seger, of Fairmont; Miss Mary Reeves, of Fairmont; John Post, of Buckhannon; Campbell Conaway, of Shinnston; Robert Chidester, of Weston; Wilson Barlow, of Burnsville, and Stanley Allen, of Pittsburg.

The patronesses were Mrs. William A. Gaylord, Mrs. Charles S. Smiley, Mrs. Peter H. Koblegard, Mrs. Frank A. Dennison, Mrs. Virgil L. Highland, Mrs. Samuel R. Harrison and Mrs. Benjamin F. Shuttleworth.

The committee giving the dance was composed of James P. Tierney, Jesse Harrison and Carlton Wood.

Pretty Home Wedding.
A pretty home wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hardesty near Shinnston, when their daughter, Miss Ekke, was united in marriage to the Rev. Harry W. Flanagan. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul L. Flanagan, pastor of the Ash Chapel Methodist Episcopal church, of this city, brother of the bridegroom, assisted by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. John W. Flanagan, of Adamston.

The parlor was beautifully decorated with Rhododendron for the occasion. At 3 o'clock the wedding party entered to the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Osa Johnson.

Many relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. Those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Rowan and daughter, Margaret, of Cayceville, O., and Mr. Paul Weekley, of Grafton.

The bride is one of Harrison county's efficient school teachers, and had been, until recently, employed in the Lumberport schools. The bridegroom is a minister in the Methodist Episcopal church and is now pastor of the church of that denomination at Glendale, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Late Entertain.
BRIDGEPORT, Dec. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Late entertained the Bridgeport teachers and a few other friends Christmas evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock in honor of Prof. L. A. Jett and their guests, Mrs. Kittie Nelson and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Marietta, O.

Games were the pleasant diversion, after which cake, coffee, nuts and bonbons were served in the dining room by the hostess and Mrs. Nelson from a beautifully appointed table which had for its attractive centerpiece a miniature Christmas tree brilliant with trimmings and lighted candles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sourborne and Misses Laura and Alice Winter entertained a few friends Christmas Day at an elaborate 12 o'clock dinner.

The decorations were greenery and carnations and covers were laid for seventeen.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sourborne, Alden Winter, Arden Winter, Rupert Water, Dr. John Folk, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Winter.

Entertains Class.
Mrs. P. L. Bent, of West Milford, entertained at her home her Sunday

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, a constitutional treatment is essential. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have offered One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, etc.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.
A prominent New York physician says: "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is indicated especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

We've Got To Clean Up Before Taking Stock
Nothing Is Exempt--Prices Radically Reduced
In Every Department To Force a Through Clean-Up.

In short—we are going to take stock—and we've simply got to reduce our stocks before we attempt it. No merchant cuts prices so sweepingly without a good reason—it's a stern necessity that forces us to do so—and our necessity is your opportunity to affect VERY UNUSUAL savings on any article in our store—prices have been deeply cut to force a quick clearance. The advantage works both ways, for while you are offered a chance to save, we are afforded a chance to clean out all our broken lots, remnants, short lengths, all of the odds and ends that naturally accumulate during a busy year.

The importance of this great clean-up before stock taking cannot be too strongly urged upon you—we feel we cannot be too enthusiastic about it. Come in tomorrow and you will be fully convinced when you examine the new prices.

Here's a brief list of the hundreds of special reductions. Every item printed here deserves careful reading.

Programs Observed.
BRIDGEPORT, Dec. 26.—The different churches here rendered programs and gave Christmas trees.

At the Baptist church a cantata was given that made one of the most beautiful Christmas entertainments ever given here. The church orchestra furnished music.

At the Methodist Episcopal church a miscellaneous program was rendered which consisted of songs, recitations and drills with a vocal solo, "The City of Our King," by Miss Daie Stout, as a special feature.

Cut flowers were distributed to the sick and aged.

At the Smith church, near here, a beautiful program was executed under the direction of Miss Effie Kidd, and a Christmas tree was given for the public. Miss Pearl Smith and Mrs. Albert Sourborne gave special readings.

Married at Adamston.
Announcement is made of the marriage of Mr. George W. Brittingham and Miss Ethel V. Davis Monday evening at Adamston by the Rev. A. M. Hammond of the Adamston Methodist Episcopal church.
