WIFE OF THE NEW FRENCH PRESIDENT

Mme. Raymond Poincare. Raymond Poincare having been elected president of France, Mme. Poincare now becomes "first lady of the land" in the republic across the seas. Mme. Poincare is a charming hostess and will doubtless discharge her many new social duties in a way that will be entirely satisfactory to the very fashionable society of the French capital.

NEW BILL

Starts Off the Pearl Stock Company's Fifth Week at the Victoria.

"The Girl from Out Yonder," at the Victoria theater tonight, will start the fifth week of the Pearl Stock Company's successful engagement in this city, and if all the advance notices are to be believed, this famous Adelaide Thurston triumph will prove the banner production of the season. Those who have seen the sea-coast comedy-drama at high prices say it has few equals as an absorbing piece of dramatic literature, but as it is a very different play to present, few stock companies undertake it, but Manager Webster always uses it as a feature production.

TARIFF

facturers, growers, importers, clothiers and independent manufacturers. John P. Wood, president of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, told the committee that he had accepted in good faith the assurance that the contemplated tariff revision would injure no legitimate business. He said that while the rates on some articles exceed protection requirements, domestic competition regulated the profits within narrow limits.
