

Addressed to Women

Question—

Nervous? Excitable? Irritable? Exhausted? Backache? Pain? Has living become a burden? Do you know what is wrong? If not, do you want to know what is wrong?

Answer—

Such symptoms, as well as many others equally distressing, are commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of a distinctly feminine character.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is recommended as a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine. For overworked housewives and business women it is a blessing. It induces calm, refreshing sleep, and banishes mental worry and despondency.

This tonic, in liquid form, was devised over 40 years ago for the womanly system, by R. V. Pierce, M. D., and has benefited many thousand women. Now it can also be obtained in tablet form from dealers in medicine, or send 50 one-cent stamps for trial box.

Every woman ought to possess Dr. Pierce's great book, the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a magnificent thousand-page illustrated volume. It teaches mothers how to care for their children and themselves. It is the best doctor to have in the house in case of emergency. Over half a million copies were sold at $1.50 each, but one free copy in cloth covers will be sent on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of wrapping and mailing only.

financial depression about that period. He wrote:

"Work on the cathedral has been suspended, owing to the scarcity of funds and we beg you to give an alms."

"The employees of the treasury attended, I believe, to their work well, but there is so little to do that four is too many and two would suffice, viz: the treasurer and the auditor."

"I have inspected the Fortaleza and Morro Castle. They are good forts, but there is need of some artillery."

The Fortaleza is the present residence of the governor of Porto Rico, while Morro Castle was one of the fortifications fired on by Admiral Sampson in 1898. It still stands in an excellent state of preservation.

Records recently found give the location of many old crypts under the cathedral in San Juan. One of these proved to be the burial place of Bishop de Solis, who died in 1641. Of this bishop the records say that he entered the priesthood after the death of his wife and that he had "both performed and received all the sacraments of the church." His death followed a pilgrimage through the diocese during which it is recorded he baptized 10,000 Indians.

Old church documents show that the present bishop's palace was purchased in 1738 by Bishop Sebastian Lorenzo Pizarro, who "spent 4,000 pesos in repairs."

CELEBRATION OF CATHOLIC COMING

To the Americas Four Hundred Years Ago is to Be Held Soon.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Feb. 8.—In order to participate in the four hundredth anniversary of the creation of the first Catholic diocese in the new world and the same anniversary of the arrival of the first Catholic bishop in the Americas, Cardinal Farley, of New York, who was formerly Bishop of Porto Rico, are among the prelates from the United States who will come to Porto Rico for the church celebration which will be from February 28 to 27.

Together with Bishop Norris, of Little Rock, Ark., and Bishop Gunn, of Natchez, Miss., Cardinal Farley and Archbishop Blew will sail from New York Saturday, February 15. An invitation has been extended to the Catholic bishops in the United States to attend the anniversary ceremonies. The last day of the anniversary there will be a public demonstration in connection with the third Insular Fair.

The Diocese of Porto Rico is the oldest Catholic diocese in the Americas and was erected by Pope Julius II. in 1511. Bishop Alonso Manso, the first bishop to reach the New World, discovered by Columbus, reached Porto Rico in 1513. He died in 1539 and his body was buried in the cathedral in San Juan, where the remains of many of the fifty bishops of the diocese have been deposited. This cathedral marks the site of the mother church in the Americas, and while much of the present building is modern, parts of it date back to early in 1600.

Cardinal Farley will officiate at the first of the anniversary services, a solemn high mass to be celebrated Sunday morning, February 23. The following day, Monday, Archbishop Blew will officiate at a special service, when the remains of Ponce de Leon, the first governor of Porto Rico, who died in his quest for the fountain of youth, will be placed in a crypt in an elaborate monument erected in the cathedral.

Many churchmen from other countries are to participate in the anniversary ceremonies, including usurers to go to confession within Cardinal Almaraz, of Seville, Spain, a certain period of time, that they who was elevated to the Cardinalate with Cardinal Farley a little more than a year ago; Bishop Estrada, of Havana, Cuba; Archbishop Bernada, of Santiago, Cuba; Bishop Ruiz, of Pinar del Rio, and Bishop Aurelio, of Cienfuegos, Cuba.

Archbishop Adolfo Nouel, of Santo Domingo, who recently was chosen president of that country, has sent word to Bishop Jones, of that he wrote to the Spanish crown, Porto Rico, that his duties as president will prevent him from coming to San Juan. Through one of his priests, President Nouel, who still remains head of the church in Santo Domingo, he has advised Bishop Jones that if he left Dominican soil for eight days there would be no other revolutionary outbreak.

None of the dioceses in the United States can compare in age with the Diocese of Porto Rico. While St. Augustine, Fla., was an established community and had a church in 1565, yet it did not become a diocese until 1870. The first diocese in the United States was that of Baltimore, which was created in 1789. New Orleans became the next diocese in 1793, while New York, Boston and Philadelphia were created as sees in 1808, and are the next oldest.

With the coming of the anniversary celebration many interesting bits of church history have been dug up from old records.

As far back as 1533 the high cost of living seems to have been a problem that the first bishop in the Americas reckoned with. For old records show that he ordered prepared a report on the sin of usury and of buying and selling at exorbitant prices. At the same time, records show that "Bishop Manso commanded that a decree be read in the cathedral in San Juan exhorting anniversary ceremonies, including usurers to go to confession within a certain period of time, that they who was elevated to the Cardinalate with Cardinal Farley a little more than a year ago; Bishop Estrada, of Havana, Cuba; Archbishop Bernada, of Santiago, Cuba; Bishop Ruiz, of Pinar del Rio, and Bishop Aurelio, of Cienfuegos, Cuba.

And only a little later the church records show that there was a sugar tariff that Bishop Rodrigo Bastidas, who succeeded Bishop Manso, thought needed revising so badly has sent word to Bishop Jones, of that he wrote to the Spanish crown, Porto Rico, that his duties as president will prevent him from coming to San Juan.

"The new impost upon sugar will be his cause depression in business, which is already suffering. Let the impost be suppressed." This was in 1544. In the same letter to the Spanish sovereign, Bishop Bastidas wrote: "It would be convenient to establish this bishopric a school of grammar."

He reported other affairs in Porto Rico to the crown indicating a
