Holds Reception.
This afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock Miss Genevieve Harrison is entertaining at a large afternoon reception, having as guests of honor Miss Harnischfeger and Miss Mayer, of Milwaukee. The house is elaborately decorated with jonquils, tulips, and spyras, and the breath spring seems to pervade everywhere. Miss Harrison is assisted in receiving her guests by Miss Harnischfeger, Miss Mayer and Miss Leifer, of Kane, Pa.

In the dining room which is made most brilliant with its floral decorations of spring blossoms, salads and jces are served from an attractive table which has for its centerpiece a shepherdess basket filled with jonquils augmented by a huge bow of gold chiffon.

Mrs. Charles Smiley presides at the coffee table and the aids through the rooms are the Misses Louise and Virginia Davis, Miss Bertha Bland the Misses Edna and Grace Haymaker, Miss Snyder, Miss Virginia Gaylord and Miss Christine Haynes.

Assembly Cottillon.
One of the most brilliant social affairs to be given this Easter week will be the cottillon on Thursday evening in the assembly room at the Waldo. The patronesses will be Mrs. Henry Haymond, Mrs. J. J. Duncan, Mrs. John Koblegard, Mrs. Anson D. Parr, Mrs. John Ruhl and Mrs. Ohn W. Brown.

Easter Dance.
The guests who will attend the Easter dance at the Fairmont Country Club this evening from Clarksburg will be Mr. and Mrs. J. Hornor Davis, the Misses Davis, Miss Snyder and her visitor, Miss Mayer, of Milwaukee; Miss Harnischfeger, of Milwaukee, and Miss Genevieve Harrison.

Theater Party.
Complimentary to some out of town visitors Mrs. Frank Haymaker will give a theater party Wednesday afternoon at the Robinson Grand to see "The Third Degree." The guest list will include Miss Genevieve Harrison, Miss Virginia Snyder, the Misses Hay-maker, Miss Eugenia Young, of Buckingham; Miss Mayer and Miss Harnischfeger, of Milwaukee.

To Give a Tea.
Invitations have been issued by Miss Virginia Snyder for a tea from 4 to 5 o'clock which she will give in her home on East Main street Friday afternoon. The guests are asked to meet some out of town visitors, Miss Page, of Idaho; Miss Mayer and Miss Harnischfeger, of Milwaukee; Miss Leifer, of Kane, Pa., and Miss Young, of Buckingham.

Black Recital.
Under the auspices of the Marcato Music Club Mr. Louis Black, tenor, of Morgantown, will give a recital this evening in the Central Christian church. All members of the club will be admitted free and the tickets will be twenty-five cents. The program will be in charge of Miss Cora Atchison.

Married at Parsonage.
Mrs. Rosa Burwell, of Smithsburg, and Mr. Stias E. Morris, a prominent farmer of near West Union, were married Sunday noon at the parsonage of the United Brethren church at Stealey Heights by the Rev. H. R. Hess, the pastor of the church. They will make their home on the Morris farm.

Concert to Be Given.
There will be a concert and entertainment given in the Adamston Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Frank McCamie will render some very striking recitations and dialogues and there will be music.

Activity Resumes.
With the passing of Lent this week promises to be one of great gaiety in social affairs, devoted to the entertaining of some out of town visitors and the college girls and boys home from school for their Easter vacation.

CARDUFF
And Quinn Will Try Out with Newport News Baseball Team.

Joseph Carduff and Junior Quinn, well known local boys who played on L. O. Smith's baseball team last season, left Sunday for Newport News, Va., where they will try out with that team.

Newport News is the Virginia League, which is a class O league, one class higher than the old West Penn League.

Both Quinn and Carduff are good ball players and should make the Newport News team without much trouble, as all they lacked here was steady practice and they will get lots of practice there. The boys have all the good wishes of local fans and if they make good their records will be watched very closely by the fans here.

A Great Benefactress
Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., bequeathed to posterity such a legacy as few women leave behind them. This woman, gifted with the knowledge of the medicinal virtues of roots and herbs, won lasting fame by her discovery of a priceless medicine to relieve women from their sufferings and thousands of American women, now well and strong, claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.—Advertisement.

"THE WOMAN'S STORE"

EASTER

Services at the Christ Episcopal Church Are Quite Impressive.

The Easter services at Christ Episcopal church were most impressive and elaborate at the 11 o'clock and 4:30 o'clock services. The altar and chancel formed a fitting setting in their decorations of Easter flowers for the services of the day.

The Trinity window in the altar was heavily massed with tall ascension lilies and white carnations, while the entrance to the chancel was marked by stately palms and potted plants of spyras with groupings of Easter lilies by the lectern and font. A full and beautiful program of Easter music was rendered by the vested choir which entered the church to the processional, "Christ is Risen." The Rev. Charles Baird Mitchell, rector of the church, preached to a large congregation on "The Everlasting Life," and in the afternoon on "My Easter Faith." Many beautiful memorial windows were heavily banked with Easter flowers.
