SOCIAL

Large Card Party.

One of the most attractive social affairs given this week was the large card party given by Mrs. John O'Hare this afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock in her home on Carr avenue. Spring bouquets were used in the floral decorations of the rooms and upon the arrival of the guests ices, cake, confections and coffee were served in the dining room which was made most attractive by its floral decorations of spring flowers and festoons of southern smilax.

The table had a covering of cluny lace, and was enhanced by a large mound of marguerites, with garlands and clusters of smilax artistically grouped on the electric dome and under the soft glow of the waxen tapers in cut glass candlesticks capped with yellow muffs, formed a pleasing setting for the brilliant afternoon costumes worn by the many guests, who received as favors long stemmed Jonquills, the color scheme of yellow and white being carried out in all the appointments. Mrs. R. B. Willison and Mrs. Lafayette C. Crile presided at the table, and were assisted by Mrs. George Stone and Mrs. Earl Travis.

Later seven tables were arranged in the reception hall and for progressive euchre and at the completion of this popular game handsome prizes of cut glass perfume bottles were presented by the hostess to the guests who had the highest scores.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. O'Hare's hospitality were Mrs. Earl H. Travis, Mrs. Lyle Smith, Mrs. Emil Francois, Mrs. Earl Spraker, Mrs. Joseph Hart, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Burton D. Bailey, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Jack Williams, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Hugh Downs, Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mrs. Frank Gaylord, Mrs. H. V. D. King, Mrs. William T. Wallis, Mrs. R. B. Willison, Mrs. Lafayette C. Crile, Mrs. George C. Stone, Mrs. Frank McEnteer, Mrs. Joseph Ridgeley, of Colorado; Mrs. Frank Denison, Mrs. M. J. Francis, Mrs. William Harrington, Mrs. Davis, Miss Jennie Wilson, Mrs. Blair Willison, Mrs. Marshall Cannon and Mrs. Annan.

Five Table Card Club.

The Five Table Card Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Benjamin F. Thompson this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in her home on Maple avenue. Roses and sweet peas formed the floral decorations of the rooms. Refreshments were served in the dining room upon the arrival of the guests. The table had for its centerpiece a huge mound of sweet peas. The ices were served by Mrs. William A. Vance assisted by Mrs. Charles O. Findlay and Miss Lillie Koblegard and coffee was poured by Miss Garrard. Later progressive euchre was played at five tables.

Among the club members and guests who enjoyed the afternoon were Mrs. Lynn S. Hornor, Mrs. Mord Lewis, Mrs. Osman Swartz, Miss Garrard, Mrs. Bland Brannon, Mrs. Charles O. Findlay, Mrs. Edward G. Smith, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. George Leatherbury, Miss Ewing, Miss Lillie Koblegard, Mrs. Henry Haymond, Mrs. Cecil Jarvis, Mrs. Peter Koblegard, Miss Roberta Fleming, of Fairmont; Mrs. Edward Bryan Templeman, Mrs. Charles Furbee; Mrs. Robert Sellers, Mrs. William A. Vance and Mrs. John Ruhl.

For Hair Health

If Rezell "93" Hair Tonic does not improve the health of your scalp and hair, we will pay for what you use during the trial.

We could not so strongly endorse Rezell "93" Hair Tonic as we continue to sell it to the same people if it did not do all we claim. Should it not prove satisfactory our customers would lose faith in us, we would lose their patronage, and our business would suffer.

If your hair is falling out or you suffer any scalp trouble, we believe Rezell "93" Hair Tonic will do more to eradicate the dandruff, give health to the scalp, stimulate new hair growth and prevent premature baldness than any other human agency.

We want you to make us prove this. We ask you to risk no money whatever. Buy a bottle of Rezell "93" Hair Tonic, use it according to directions for thirty days; then if you are not entirely satisfied, come and tell us and we will promptly hand back the money you paid us for it.

We won't ask you to sign anything, nor even to bring the bottle back. We won't obligate you in any way. We will take your mere word. Could anything be more fair? Could we do anything more to prove our belief in Rezell "93" Hair Tonic, and our honesty of purpose in recommending it to you?

Rezell "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as spring water and has but a faint, pleasing odor. It comes in two sizes of bottles, 60c and $1.00. You can buy Rezell "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store:

Rummage Sale.

The members of the Civic Club had great success at the rummage sale they held in the Monticello garage with Mrs. John L. Ruhl, Mrs. Earl H. Travis, Mrs. A. L. Roberts, Mrs. Clarence Waldeck and Mrs. James Allen in charge during the day and evening. Quite a good deal of furniture, shoes, hats, clothing for men, women and children, dishes, beds, pictures and other articles are included in the rummage sale which met with ready sale yesterday and liberal patronage.

It is being continued today and evening and tomorrow and all contributions for the sale will be gladly received and much appreciated by the club.

Term Closes.

The closing meeting of the winter term of the children's dancing class was held yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in Hoffman Hall. Professor Nott included a reception to the older folk and served refreshments followed by a few figures of the German, danced by the children which was most enjoyable to the many parents and friends present. The children looked most attractive in their dainty dancing frocks and frills, augmented by bright colored sashes, and formed a charming picture with their collection of attractive little German favors and souvenirs. The new spring term will begin Monday afternoon and it promises to be quite a large class.

Knights to Give Dance.

Invitations reading as follows have been issued:

The Knights of Columbus Clarksburg Council, No. 872, cordially invite yourself and lady to attend a dance in honor of the ladies and gentlemen of the Tuexdo Minstrels Wednesday evening, April sixteenth, nineteen hundred and thirteen. Hoffman Hall.

Committee—J. A. Farrell, Thomas Ward, Ralph Saeger, W. E. Downs, Anthony Schulte, M. L. McGraw and Joseph Fox.

Society Entertained.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Ash Chapel, Broad Oaks, met at the home of Mrs. Louis Sass Thursday afternoon. After the devotional and business sessions, the hostess served refreshments. The members present were Mrs. Ryder, Mrs. Mills; Mrs. Garrison, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Wine, Mrs. Kinch, Mrs. Hipshun and Miss Alice and Louise Saas.

Mrs. Watson Hostess.

Mrs. Andrew J. Watson entertained the First Methodist Episcopal church Ladies' Aid Society Thursday afternoon in her home on Mechanic street. After the transaction of regular business a social hour was observed. Mrs. N. S. Longbaugh sang two solos and refreshments were served to thirty-two ladies.

Circle Meets.

Miss Maud Walsh entertained members of the East End Sewing Circle Thursday evening in her home on Jackson street. There was fancy work and the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Annual Ball.

The Masonic Social Club's annual ball in Hoffman Hall Thursday night was very delightful and well attended. The Cadenza orchestra played.

Some comedians at the Robinson Grand Monday night.

borough. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done.

It is understood that a member of the House of Commons who is friendly to women's suffrage will ask Home Secretary McKenna next week whether he is contemplating deportation of Miss Emerson and other American militant suffragettes who are guilty of breaking the English laws as undesirable aliens. Mr. McKenna can do this under the law. Hence the report has caused consternation among the American women here who have jail records as well as among those whose affiliations are with the militant suffragettes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. P. Lemley, of Huntington, are visitors in the city.

Everybody should have a copy of the Prohibition Law, by Mr. Yost, in pamphlet form, 3½ by 6 inches. Price 15c. See A. F. Combs, at the Daily Telegram Office.
