35 Women Can Have Beautiful Summer Frocks For $18.75

each. No tone of the dresses but cost $21.50 or over earlier in the season. Voiles, Crepe Voiles, Eponge and Linen; all fresh, clean, not mussed. Mostly white, a few light blue, Copenhagen, tan, leather and Nell Rose.

Parasol Styles From the Land of Mikado

Quite a most novel parasol of the season is the one in Japanese shape—flat and quaint, but very picturesque, and really quite practical.

With white linen covers, embroidered, $12; figured and fancy silk covers, $5, $6 and $7.50; plain and changeable taffetas, $3.75. These are made in America, but Japanese styles.

The pagoda shape in another distinctive parasol, in plain silk and charming colors, $3.75 and $5.00.

The parasol with handle of extreme length promises to be quite fashionable. $3.75.

The Princess parasol has a canopy top and brass ribs, $5; in different colored silks.

A Coat's Dress of This Stripe Ratine

with the skirt of plain white eponge or reversing it; have coat plain and skirt of the stripe. Very smart style.

White with vertical stripe of black 35c a yard.

An Etamine open Mesh Ratine with raised stripes in Black, Tan or Blue on white ground; 25c yard.

Ripplette a Yard at 15c

A good name for this Seersucker weave; a good fabric for washable petticoats, house dresses, children's rompers and any other garments that need tubbing often.

Black and white, grey and white and pink and white; vertical stripes. 27 inches wide. 15c a yard.

For Mrs. Morris.

Complimentary to Mrs. James H. Morris, of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Robert R. Wilson entertained a few friends this afternoon at cards. June roses and wisteria vines formed the floral decorations. Upon the arrival of the guests ices were served in the dining room from a prettily appointed table which had for its centerpiece a wicker basket filled with Killarney roses. Mrs. Richard T. Lowndes and Mrs. Mord Lewis presided at the table and were assisted by Mrs. Edward Bryan Templeman, Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, Miss Musgrove and Miss Maxwell. Later four tables were arranged for auction bridge.

Among the invited guests were Mrs. Morris, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Cecil C. Jarvis, Mrs. John W. Brown, Mrs. Ell B. Templeman, Mrs. Henry Hammond, Mrs. Albert W. Rapp, Mrs. William A. Vance, Miss Ewing, Mrs. Oriss, Mrs. W. Brent Maxwell, Mrs. Mord Lewis, Mrs. Harry T. Wilson, Mrs. Benjamin Brown, Mrs. George Leathery, Mrs. Clara Brannon, Mrs. Edward B. Templeman, Miss Musgrove, Miss Ruth Maxwell, Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, Miss Garrard and Mrs. Richard T. Lowndes.

Birthday Party.

Master Vance Keaster celebrated his ninth birthday Thursday. Many of his little friends were present from 3 to 6 o'clock. Ice cream, cake, bananas and candy were served. The guests were Misses Lucile and Lila White, Misses Cynthia and Icel Rearden, Miss Martha Woolford, Miss Sarah Smith, Miss Ruth Skinner, Miss Mildred Rymer, Miss Helen Hammond, Okey Smith, John Skinner, Harry Skinner, Russel Rymer, Roy Woolford, James Woolford, Chester Cottrill, James Cottrill, John White, Willard White and Junior White. All report a good time.

Entertains Choir.

The members of the choir of the First Baptist church were guests of Mrs. W. C. Taylor last evening from 9 to 10 o'clock. Dainty refreshments were served and the occasion was delightful. Those present were Misses Helen and Hazel Boardman, Miss Goldie Martz, Miss Ionia Smith, organist; Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee Williams,

FURNISHERS TO WOMEN WHO KNOW.

For Summer - Warner's Rust Proof Corsets

Warm weather here and up in a hurry comes the question of cool corsets.

Three of the rust proofs are made in soft Batiste, one has a low bust and long hips; one has short hips and is intended for short figures. One has a very low bust and long hips.

Any one of these cost $1.00.

The Truth About Women's Clothing Is Nothing to Hurrah About Any Good Store Can Tell It

And the plain truth about the woman's lower-price Clothing Store at Parsons-Souders is this — that a woman in it for a low price—$10. wool, well tailored suit of clothes in it for a low price—$10.50—and that she cannot get a bad or indifferent suit in it at any price.

Money counts with most women, with some more than others. So does a good appearance. The purpose of this lower priced clothing is to insure for a woman a good appearance and good service in her clothes at the lowest price for which this can be done. She may pay much more for a suit than the prices asked, and get much less for the money. She cannot pay less and be given anywhere near as much.

The women's new summer suits are here in splendid variety from $10.50 to $20.

The Out-Clearing of Suits at $13.90, $17.90 and $23.90

"Here's where I save $10 and more," said a customer when she saw these suits at $23.90. She had been buying $35 Suits season after season; these are really beautiful suits, but the lines are badly broken, hence the reduction. About 80 suits all old, plenty navy and black, tans and Copenhagens.
