Words Backed Up By Facts

How Long Should A Good Thing Last

Something like the question put to Lincoln: "How long should a man's legs be?" and which he answered: "Long enough to reach the ground."

A good June Sale should last till the month-end provided the fresh-running stream of stocks keep filling it up.

In our sale the gaps are filled up again and the picking is nearly as good as on the opening day of the sale.

Advance Information of a
SUMMER DISPOSAL OF DRESS FABRICS
The Prices in Each Instance Being Not Less Than 25c, Some 30c, Mostly All of 35c Grade and Some As High As 50c

For the reason that we believe in the constant coming and going of fabrics and in not waiting until they have been in stock for some time before marking them at a lessened price, we will offer on Friday morning a large number of this season's new and most desirable weaves of 25c to 35c, and some 50c grades at 19c a yard.

A frock from among these will cost little, and one has but to see them on Friday to feel sure of its attractiveness and the merit of this offering.

Stone, Mrs. Wirt Lewis, Mrs. Edgar Hood, Mrs. Bernard Wilson, the Misses Bartlett, Miss Swager, Mrs. Frank Willison and Miss Ann Boggs.

All during the hours of the reception a delightful program of music was played by the Cadenza orchestra. About 125 guests called.

Wedding at Weston.

In the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, at the Methodist Episcopal church at Weston, Tuesday morning at 6:30 o'clock, took place the marriage of Miss Clara Crouch and Mr. Charles Ahy Rhodes. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Lanham, pastor of the church, and Miss Margaret Hale beautifully rendered the wedding march. Miss Dell Watkins, of Fairmont, was the bridesmaid and Mr. Claude W. Rinehart, of Weston, was the best man. There were many out of town guests, among whom was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Amy Rhodes, of Virginia.

The bride wore an attractive brown traveling suit and the bridegroom wore the conventional black.

Mrs. Rhodes is a beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mrs. Mead Crouch, of Weston, and Mr. Rhodes is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Rhodes, of Middletown, Va. He holds a responsible position with the West Virginia Central Gas Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes will visit New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Middletown, Va., on their wedding trip and on their return will reside in a handsome home Mr. Rhodes has prepared for his bride on Cottage street, at Weston, where they will be at home to their friends after August 1.

Wedding This Evening.

The marriage of Miss Genevieve Gray Haymaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haymaker, to Mr. George Gordon Lynch will be solemnized at 8:30 o'clock this evening in the First Methodist Episcopal church.

The Rev. Dr. George Smith, pastor of the church, will officiate. The ushers will be Messrs. Charles G. Coffman, Howard Lynch, Marmaduke Wells and Claude Gore. The bridegroom's best man will be his brother, Mr. William Lynch. The bride's matron of honor will be her sister, Mrs. Charles G. Coffman and the bridesmaids Misses Grace and Edna Haymaker and Miss Dearth, of Uniontown, Pa.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Haymaker will only entertain the immediate families of the bride and bridegroom in their home on East Main street, and the out of town guests who came for the wedding.

Duffy-Henry.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Agnes Leo Henry, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Henry, formerly of Shinston, but now residents of Fairmont, to Mr. Edwin Victor Duffy, of Sidney, Australia; which event was solemnized quietly Saturday at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. A. H. Clark, in Washington D. C. The Rev. H. T. Stevenson, pastor of the Rhode Island avenue Baptist church, performed the marriage ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives. Miss Ruth Henry, a sister of the bride, who accompanied her to Washington a few weeks ago, was present at the marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffy left Washington Saturday for New York on a trip through Canada and the New England states. They will later reside in Detroit.

Dinner for Ushers.

Pink Killarney roses formed the table's centerpiece at a beautifully appointed 7 o'clock dinner given last evening by David Bassel Carper in the small empire room at the Waldo hotel to his ushers, Messrs. Sidney Post, James White, David J. Carter, Joseph M. Crouch and the best man, Mr. Ernest Lewis. Long stemmed La France roses were placed at each cover and the favors were gold scarf pins encrusted with diamonds, wedding souvenirs from the bridegroom.

For Miss Page.

Complimentary to her visiting guest, Miss Page, of Idaho, Miss Virginia Snider gave a very pretty appointed dinner last evening in her home on East Main street. June roses and their foliage were used in the floral decorations and covers were laid for Miss Agnes Hood, Miss Bertha Bland and the Misses Grace and Edna Haymaker.

Ice Cream Festival.

The ladies of Wyatt Rebekah lodge, No. 177, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Wyatt, will hold an ice cream festival at the Odd Fellows hall at Wyatt Saturday evening. Every one is invited to attend.

ANTI-FREE SUGAR

sections have been approved. Anti-free sugar Democrats got together in the Senate caucus today and agreed to support an amendment by Senator Shaaroth to eliminate the provision for free sugar in 1916 and substitute a duty of approximately one-half cent a pound after that time on refined sugar.

BOWLING NEWS

To Play Grafton.

The Grafton Duck Pin team and the Gore alley team will clash Wednesday night in the first game of a series of three games. The second game will be played at Grafton and if the third one be necessary to decide the match it will be played on the Gore alleys here at a future date.

The Grafton team is composed of some very good bowlers and will make the home team go some to win. The local team will line up with the following well known bowlers: Bert Gain, Harry Davison, Lee Johnson, Louis Deem and Manager Earl G. Dresbach.

The game will start at 8 o'clock and will be played on alleys seven and eight.

Egyptian cigars exported last year totaled 1,650,000 pounds, worth $2,115,000.
