

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

As Recorded in the Files of the Daily Telegram

E. Thad Post and Russell Johnson purchased the Florence hotel property, then owned by Mrs. M. Mulheran for $9,500, and located where the First Methodist Episcopal church is now.

Mrs. Emma Townsend, wife of M. G. T. Townsend, of Glen Falls, was dead as a result of tuberculosis. Her age was 36 years.

Col. Thomas B. Seeley stated that the Beverly, O. Dispatch was in error when it published that Judge Nathan Goff was interested in Col. Seeley's McBride oil lease at Beverly.

W. W. Boggess and family published a card of thanks for kindnesses shown them, when Mrs. Sarah Lowe Boggess lay dead.

Charles M. Ward, a printer, and family had returned from his former home, Caldwell, O., where they had visited relatives.

S. E. Smith and E. W. Wohlford, who had passed successful examinations for the position of railroad engineer, were given temporary assignments to the Short Line railroad.

A Moor, calling himself I. M. Him on a tour of the world arrived from Parkersburg with a company and began a several days' series of hypnotical demonstrations with large crowds interested.

A justice extended Thomas McKenna's stay in the temporary jail ten days as a result of a bout McKenna had had with Fred Anderson at the bartender's annual outing the Sunday before.

Jacob M. Swartz, West Virginia encampment alternate, expressed the intention of attending the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic beginning August 24.

The board of directors of the asylum at Weston passed favorably on court papers for the admission of William Haust, a crazy letter writer here, to that institution.

The Carroll Comedy Company was holding forth in the casino at Union park with big success. The park had been opened only a few days prior.

Both Bond, a Quiet Doll Boy, was suffering as the result of a rattlesnake bite.

AT CAMP DAWSON.

Company K under command of Captain Duncan Boughner has gone to Camp Dawson near Kingwood for annual rifle practice. The company did not muster to its full strength of fifty-four men.

REAPING BENEFIT

From the Experience of Clarksburg People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Clarksburg residences on the following subject will interest and benefit many of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

Mrs. R. C. Williams, 203 Oak St., Clarksburg, W. Va., says: "It was a cold that started trouble with my kidneys. I had severe dizzy spells when I stooped over to pick up anything. I had to take hold of something to steady myself. My head seemed to whirl around. I had severe backaches and pains over my hips. The action of my kidneys was irregular. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Wells & Haymaker's Drug Store. They made my kidneys normal and put a stop to the pains and dizziness. I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills two years ago and I am glad to confirm that endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

ENJOYABLE

Is Sacred Music Sung in Local Church by Minneapolis Tenor.

Lovers of sacred music well sung had unusual cause for enjoyment at the First Presbyterian church here Sunday morning when Henry E. Moran, of Minneapolis, sang most naturally and sweetly the two tenor solos, "The Ninety and Nine," and "I'm a Pilgrim."

From the standpoint of the average worshiper the rendering was more than faultless. It was rich, sympathetic, sincere and effective. It is no wonder that Mr. Moran is the valued soloist of one of the largest western churches and that musical people in our eastern metropolis who know a good thing have their eyes upon him.
