Mrs. Kemper made a very entertaining hostess. At noon the table was spread with a sumptuous dinner which had been prepared by the ladies. A birthday cake bearing the date of the anniversary which was sixty-five years, formed a very attractive center piece. The cake was baked by a daughter, Mrs. M. O. Davis, of Adamston. Later ice cream, watermelon and other refreshments were served.

Mrs. Kemper was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents, among which was a handsome black serge coat presented by her children. All left at a late hour wishing Mrs. Kemper many more happy returns of the day.

These present were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kemper, children and grandchildren; Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Davis and son, Audie, of Adamston; Mr. and Mrs. J. Willie Kemper, daughters Bonnie and Frankie, and son, Teddy, of Adamston; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Kemper and son, Hollis, of Wallace; Mrs. M. E. Shaver and daughter, Freda, Mrs. W. E. Robinson and daughters, Merle, Fern and Thelma, of Brown.

Other relatives and friends present were W. C. Kemper, of Clarksburg; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thomas, of Wallace; Mrs. J. L. Arnett and children, of Wallace; Mrs. D. C. Bennett and sons, Joseph and Richard, of Folsom; Miss Lucy Moore, of Dola; Mr. and Mrs. Al Bennett, Mrs. Thomas Davis, Mrs. Sarah Rogers, Mrs. Golden Robinson and children, Misses Hattie Rogers and Cinza Davis, of Brown.

For Grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wery delightfully entertained at a 5 o'clock dinner Wednesday afternoon given in honor of their grandchild, Mildred Burnside, of Pittsburg. The dinner followed baptismal services for little Miss Mildred. The guests included Mrs. Adel Pague, of Salem; Florence Chapelle, great grandmother; Mrs. Olga Pevont, Leon Ray Pevont, Mrs. A. H. Wery, Miss Thelma Wery, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ledoux, Henry Ledoux, Jr.; Miss Mildred Wery and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wery, Sr.

Successful Festival.

The festival given by the Union Sunday school at Quiet Dell in the Methodist Episcopal church recently was the most successful held in that village for a number of years. The attendance was large. All seemed to realize the importance of the occasion and accordingly put forth their best efforts to make it a success. The school will make an effort to give another festival in the near future.

FURNISHERS TO WOMEN WHO KNOW

The Woman's Store

A WOMAN'S ADVICE.

A woman was looking over the shoulder of a man who was writing this item, and just when he got to this point, and was writing the word "soap" she said:

"There's one great essential in a laundry soap. It must be a soap that will not rot the clothes or the fabrics. Some soaps will clean goods, but they rot them; others have sticky, yellow rosin in them and stain the clothes yellow. Just you write that Easy Task soap saves half the work and saves all the clothes and drives away the dirt and keeps away the disease germs and is the best soap I ever found."

And so her advice has been followed for women know soap.—Advertisement.

YOUR WIFE'S PICTURE.

A man ought to be ashamed to live so that his wife is compelled to look as she does at housecleaning time. He'll allow her to buy cheap old yellow soap right along and take twice as long for her housework and washing, when Easy Task soap will save time, health and money for her. A man wouldn't tolerate old-fashioned methods in his place of business for a minute. If your wife would use Easy Task soap all the time there wouldn't be a tenth of the dirt to get rid of at housecleaning time.—Advertisement.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes: "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.
