LUMBERPORT
LUMBERPORT, Aug. 26—Lumberport is on the boom. Mr. Barris is here in the interest of a glass factory. He has secured and laid out the H. C. Hodges farm in town lots and factory site. The lots are fine, lying ones on what is called "Hedges Heights" in the western section of Lumberport. The lots are now on sale at the Lumberport bank. Seventy lots are to be sold within the next forty days.

A new bridge is being built across the West Fork river, which will be the finest one in the county. A new street has been established from the west abutment of the bridge running southwest and connecting with Main street, thence on a new grade established on Main street to the Lee Boggs store. The grading is now being done by the Allen Brothers, contractors. It will be a fine grade over which the street car line runs.

A number of houses is now being built and many more will be built soon.

A new bridge is being built across Tammille creek. Will H. Hess is the contractor for the stone work and he has it well on the way.

Lee Boggs has an oil well. Mrs. Billie Carr is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. A. Boggs.

WIRELESS WAVES
Are Calling for a Revenue Cutter to Make Long Race against Death.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Wireless waves sputtering out over the Behring sea today are calling a revenue cutter to start on a 2,000 mile race against death. Somewhere out of the squadron cruising the broad blue waters of the Arctic circle a fleet ship will be found to get Fred M. Chamberlain, a government naturalist at St. Paul island, and rush him down to Seattle in time, it is hoped, to save his life.

Chamberlain, a bridegroom of a year, went to St. Paul to take the seal census for the department of commerce. He became ill of heart disease.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 26.—A sentence of death today was pronounced upon Lee M. Frank, convicted yesterday of murdering Mary Phagan. The execution of the young factory superintendent was set for October 10.
