ADVERTISES

For a Wife Does Wealthy and Handsome Farmer of Albright.

GRAFTON, Sept. 25—That romance is not dead but off on a vacation, or else sleeping in some out-of-the-way place is the belief of "E. L.," a wealthy and handsome young farmer, of Albright, W. Va. Mr. "E. L." has accordingly decided that vigorous action is required to arouse romance from its slumber or bring it back from the long vacation. To do this he has planned his campaign on the basis of the firm belief "that it pays to advertise," and in today's Sentinel, his "Wife Wanted" advertisement is inserted.

"E. L." wants a young lady of good moral character, and that is all that he asks. The girl is preferably from the country, however, but it makes no difference as to whether she is rich or poor. Assurance is given by him to the young ladies, who are contemplating matrimony and who answer his advertisement, that they will not be sorry they took the step.

DON'T SPANK YOUR CHILDREN.

A little boy on a side street in Clarksburg says he always counts on getting a spanking every Monday, because his mamma does the washing and is so tired and cross she won't overlook his pranks. No wonder she is tired and cross, but it is hard on the boy. If his mother would use Easy Task soap she would have her washing on the line before 9 o'clock because Easy Task Soap does half the work for her.—Advertisement.
